Zimbabwe

Commitment for Life works in partnership with Christian Aid in Zimbabwe. Our programmes put people at the centre. Faith is crucial to our programmes, along with that values of openness and sharing. We are committed to amplifying the voices of the poorest people. Our work focuses on Matabeleland, and is also linked to action at a national level.

MEET THE COUNTRY TEAM

TAFADZA MUROPA

Social and Economic Justice Lead

Tafadzwa leads the Social and Economic Justice Thematic Unit. She plays a leading role in mainstreaming gender in Zimbabwe as well as fundraising and implementing projects in gender equality, transparency and accountability, human rights and peacebuilding. She has worked with local and international organisations in Eastern and Southern Africa for over 16 years.

Tafadzwa has a BA Degree in Economic History and Philosophy with University of Zimbabwe, has received post graduate short course training in public policy, human rights, gender equality, project management and macroeconomic policy with local, regional and international institutions. She is currently completing her dissertation in a Master's in Public Policy and Governance with Africa University, Zimbabwe.

Without people like Tafadza, Commitment for Life could not begin to be effective in our work for justice in Zimbabwe. We are grateful to her and the rest of the team!

P.S. don't forget to diarise our Commitment for Life Zoom-to-Zimbabwe and meet the team! Tues 11 May at 2pm. Email for link: Suzanne.pearson@urc.org.uk

Our best chance of ending this pandemic is to ensure that everyone, everywhere has access to COVID-19 vaccines, tests and treatments. But pharmaceutical monopolies and patents threaten everyone as no-one is safe until everyone is safe.

People from around the world are calling for a #PeoplesVaccine – freely available to everyone, everywhere. Learn more here
