

UNITED REFORMED CHURCH PEACE FELLOWSHIP

The United Reformed Church Peace Fellowship is a group of United Reformed Church people who accept God's call to human beings to live in peace and who are committed to discerning and obeying the urgent call of God to pursue Peace and Justice in the world.

Over the years, the United Reformed Church through General Assembly has passed resolutions and made other statements on matters of peace and justice. Resolutions have also been passed on issues of nuclear weapons proliferation and the arms trade.

The United Reformed Church also works with ecumenical partners through the Joint Public Issues Team to respond to urgent matters as they arise.

In 1999, the United Reformed Church Peace Fellowship was set up to raise the profile of issues of peace and justice within the overall mission strategy of the church. We continue to welcome contributions and suggestions from all members of the fellowship and are working to ensure that we regularly keep in touch, providing news and advance notice of important events in the peace calendar.
