Over the years, the United Reformed Church, through General Assembly resolutions and other statements, has made clear its position on matters of peace and justice.

Resolutions have been passed on issues of nuclear weapons proliferation and the arms trade and the URC has been active in ecumenical efforts for peace and justice.

In 1999 an inaugural meeting was held to set up a distinct group to raise the profile of these issues within the overall mission strategy of the church:

The United Reformed Church Peace Fellowship is a group of United Reformed Church people who accept God's call to human beings to live in peace and who are committed to discerning and obeying the urgent call of God to pursue Peace with Justice in the world.

Recently, the Fellowship has focused on working with the Joint Public Issues Team on Trident, the use of drones and other issues which do affect the vulnerable and therefore create tensions.

Fellowship members have been provided with news and advance notice of important events in the peace calendar.

Members and friends in the United Reformed Church are invited to become members. The subscription covers the cost of the distribution of information and subsidises the annual meeting.

The subscription is set at £10 per person, £15 for a couple at the same address; unwaged persons pay half. Church subscription £30.
