
1. United Reformed Church Acts 1972, 1981 and 2000. As in previous edition of the Manual, the only parts of the Acts to be reproduced here are the Trusts for places used for religious worship and the trusts for ministers’ residences and other church workers’ residences. These are set out in the schedules to the Acts and for convenience here are referred to as 'The Scheduled Trust Properties'.

2. The trusts related to the Scheduled Trust Properties in Scotland are contained in schedule 1 to the 2000 Act and the trusts relating to all the other Scheduled Trust Properties are contained in schedule 2 to either the 1972 Act or the 1981 Act, although this latter distinction is immaterial since the two are identical.

3. Both the 1981 Act and the 2000 Act made minor changes to the earlier trusts and these have all been incorporated in the text now printed.

4. The Scottish trusts contained in the 2000 Act do not differ substantially from the other trusts and in order to save space the Scottish variations are shown in square brackets in the text.

5. In relation to Scheduled Trust Properties in Wales, the expression 'Provincial Synod' refers to the National Synod of Wales.

6. Copies of the Acts may be obtained from the General Secretary.

7. Copies are also held in each synod office.

such authority or permission shall be paid to the local church as an addition to its general funds.

7(1) The statutory power of appointing new trustees shall be vested in the Church Meeting and shall be exercised by a resolution of the majority of those present and (being entitled to vote) voting at a meeting convened by notice stating the purpose of the meeting given at each service held on the two Sundays immediately preceding the meeting. The chairman shall have for this purpose if necessary a casting vote. If there is no Church Meeting in existence to exercise the power of appointing new trustees as aforesaid, the statutory power of appointing new trustees shall be vested in the trustees for the time being.

(2) No individual person shall be eligible for appointment who is not on the membership roll of some local church (which need not be within the district [area] of the same District [Area] Council as the local church).

(3) Any trustee who ceases to have the qualification last mentioned shall be deemed to be unfit to act in the trust.

(4) Any trustee who wishes to be discharged from the trust may be discharged therefrom, without any appointment of a new trustee, by such a resolution as is mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(5) The number of trustees shall so far as practicable be kept up to four.
