

Stepwise streams and stepping stones: The programme in outline

Stream	Focus	Stepping stones (modules)* Offered through a range of one-to-one, group and online work
Faith-filled life Available from September 2018.	Personal calling and vocation You'll be getting to grips with the programme while exploring key elements of faith, individually and in community. The stream is likely to include a retreat experience and a local placement.	What am I on the planet for? Exploring purpose in life, personal motivation, and God's embrace <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The relationship between vision, vocation, strengths and self-development • Developing resilience through discovering a sense of God's purpose. Who is my tribe or network? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exploring issues around identity, community and belonging • Recognising the commitment that comes with being a member of the body of Christ • Probing what mission might mean to us as individuals and as part of something bigger • How we create meaning through others and in Christ.
Faith-filled confidence Available from September 2019.	Faith literacy Confidence in our own faith and in interfaith relationships.	Opportunities for encounter <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interfaith issues, within and between faith cultures • Rites of passage: their differences and similarities • How faith contributes to contemporary culture. Common threads <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessing the relationship between religion and morality across faiths and worldviews • Examining what is distinctive, particularly within Christian outlooks and faith. Living the Bible <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exploring the status of scripture through the Bible and other faith texts • Putting the Bible to work in everyday life.
Faith-filled community Available from September 2019.	Living church in community Taking discipleship seriously in the crossover between community engagement and mission.	Who is my neighbour? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discovering communities through observation and analysis • Engaging with communities through conversation • Contributing to communities, both beyond and within the church. Developing a Christ-centred community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is a Christ-centred community? • How do we get there?
Faith-filled worship Available from September 2020.	Transforming worship – transforming lives Design and leading of worship in varied settings.	What is worship and who is it for? Key characteristics of Christian worship Theological and biblical background to contemporary approaches The craft and art of effective worship for where we are now. How can worship make a difference? Why do worship traditions matter? How worship can make a difference in people's lives.
Faith-fuelled leadership Available from January 2019.	Leadership of all believers	Who decides where we are going? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding the nature and character of Christian leadership • Exploring the relationship between leaders and followers • Examining and following Jesus' example of leadership. How can we nurture leadership contributions? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acknowledging skilled leaders we already know in church and in life • Developing a culture that fosters leadership • Encouraging leadership through the example of Christ.

*Elements of the programme content are still under development. Some module descriptions may change a little by the time the streams become available.