

Welcome to November's newsletter.

As autumn gives way to winter, the changing season reminds us that God is at work in ways we cannot always see. In children's and youth ministry, we often have the privilege of witnessing moments when faith is expressed openly, however, much of our work happens in quieter ways. Through conversations, prayers, acts of welcome, and faithful presence, we accompany children and young people on their journey of faith. While the significance of these moments is not always immediately visible, we trust that God is at work through them. As Advent draws near, we remember that God's kingdom is revealed in a similar way, not through power and spectacle, but in the unexpected coming of a child, bringing hope into the ordinary realities of everyday life.

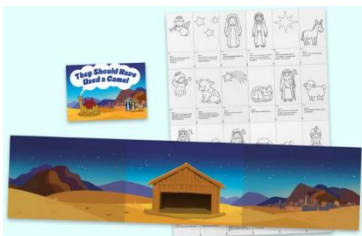

Advent reminds us that incarnational ministry begins with God's own action: God did not remain distant but came to live among us in Jesus Christ. In the same way, much of our ministry with children and young people happens through presence, relationship, listening and walking alongside them in everyday life. When we do this, we embody Christ's love in our churches, communities, schools and organisations. We at the Offices of General Assembly are deeply grateful for your faithfulness, creativity and care. As Christmas approaches, we pray that you will find time to pause and wonder again at the gift of God-with-us, and be renewed by the hope, peace, joy and love that the Incarnation brings.

Advent is such a special time, one in which we often see more families walk through our doors. We understand that it can sometimes be difficult to think of new ways to explore Advent which is why we have created a section on the website dedicated to all things advent! <https://bit.ly/AdventResourcesURC>

There you will find frameworks for services for under 5s, youth and outdoor worship aswell as ideas for advent in the style of: brick church/ reflective story telling/ creative prayer and forest church. There are nativity suggestions, activity sheets and more. Take a look here:

.....would like to introduce you to the new Parenting for Faith Five Key Tools Course.

The Five Key Tools Journey is a six-session course for parents and carers, introducing five key tools for helping children and teenagers grow in faith.

Every fortnight from 15 September, you'll receive a new 20-minute video teaching session, plus a 20-minute bonus episode featuring real families trying the tool out. You can watch or listen whenever it suits you — on BRF Online, in your podcast app, or with others as part of a group.

Parenting for Faith | The Five Key Tools Journey: FAQs

Grounded in the belief that all young children, including those who are neurodiverse, are naturally open to spiritual experience, this event explores how environment, routine, and simple practices can nurture welcome, inclusion and faith from the very beginning.
