How to leave a gift in your will

Commitment for Life does not offer legal or financial advice. Always use a solicitor or a professional will-writing service. Include in your will that you'd like to leave a gift to Commitment for Life. For example:

'I leave [a fixed sum of money, object, or % of my estate] to the United Reformed Church Commitment for Life, 86 Tavistock Place, London, WC1H 9RT, Charity Number 1133373.'

Leaving a gift in your will to us

An easy
guide

Why would you leave a gift in your will?

- In response to your faith
- Because you care about justice
- You support the values and mission of the United Reformed Church
- Watch Jacqui from Petts Wood tells us more in this video: www.bit.ly/urc-cfl

Types of gifts

- Specific: an object, like a piece of property or a work of art
- Pecuniary: this is a sum of money
- Residuary: a gift of money or asset left when other legacies and expenses have been paid. This last type is the most common gift left to charities. It allows you to take care of your loved ones first.

Your gift

- Will help some of the poorest people in the world
- Through Christian Aid we focus on Bangladesh, Zimbabwe, Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory
- 75% goes to Christian Aid
- 5% goes to Global Justice Now
- 20% is held by the URC to fund grants, advocacy, education and costs.
