

A large red cross shape is centered on a green background. The cross is outlined with a decorative border of small, stylized figures in white, yellow, and purple. The text is written in a yellow, serif font inside the cross.

Fellowship is for all - each belonging meaningfully to the rest.

Fellowship is for all – each belonging meaningfully to the rest

What do you see in the picture?

For Discussion:

How are we in communion with each other?

Bible Passage:

When our days there were ended, we left and proceeded on our journey; and all of them, with wives and children, escorted us out of the city. There we knelt down on the beach and prayed and said farewell to one another. Then we went on board ship and they returned home.
(Acts 21 v 5 & 6)

Prayer:

Lord, when we find it hard (this business of being Church), show us your perspective. Show us the wonder and glory of very different people in love with you.

Open our eyes to the stunning work of art you create in our Church by weaving the threads of our lives into one great, gorgeous and growing tapestry of faithfulness.

Help us to see the possibilities you see in us, and to not hold back our fellowship.

Amen.

