This week's passage from the Bible is about loving living simply and not just wanting more and more money and things. This doesn't mean you shouldn't have enough to eat and drink and to keep you safe and warm. But it does mean that there are more important things in life than being selfish and greedy and getting more and more stuff that you don't need.

Why not see if you can spend some time playing a pen and paper game with someone in your family or with your friends instead of playing video games or watching TV (which use electricity). A good game is SQUIGGLES where one person draws a squiggle on the page and the other person turns it into a picture. Or how about SQUARES where you take it in turns to draw lines between dots on the page with the aim of being the one to create a square. If you do, you put your initial in it and draw the next line. See who has the most when you've finished. Or you could play battleships or hangman or consequences or any other game you know. Why not invent your own?

A prayer for when you buy something new

Jesus, help me to love living simply

Bible Reading

Luke 12:32-34 – Living simply

“Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom. Sell all your belongings and give the money to the poor. Provide for yourselves purses that don't wear out, and save your riches in heaven, where they will never decrease, because no thief can get to them, and no moth can destroy them. For your heart will always be where your riches are.
