Photos

Take some time to look at photo albums of your family. I wonder if you can find the oldest photo and the most recent photo. If you don't have access to a photo album, perhaps you could share stories of growing up.

Cakes

Make or buy some cakes and decorate them. Write your best piece of advice on a label, attach that to a cocktail stick and stick it in the cake. Share the cake and advice with someone else.

A prayer for when you are with others of a different age:

Dear God, help me to learn from others and others to learn from me. Amen

Bible Reading – Psalm 78: 1-7

Intergenerational sharing

My friends, I beg you to listen as I teach.
² I will give instruction
and explain the mystery
of what happened long ago.
³ These are things we learned from our ancestors,
⁴ and we will tell them
to the next generation.
We won't keep secret
the glorious deeds
and the mighty miracles
of the Lord.

⁵ God gave his Law
to Jacob's descendants,
the people of Israel.
And he told our ancestors
to teach their children,
⁶ so that each new generation
would know his Law
and tell it to the next.
⁷ Then they would trust God
and obey his teachings,
without forgetting anything
God had done.
