Play out some role-playing scenarios, with soft toys, toy characters or people.

Role-playing allows us to step into someone else's shoes, helping us to understand different perspectives and emotions. Some ideas could include: a new person starts at school feeling lonely; or a friend who is upset. You may want to role-play how to cope when someone isn't very kind or good towards you.

A prayer for when you wake in the morning:
Jesus, help me to know your goodness today.
 Help me to show it to others. Amen

Bible Reading Luke 6: 43–45

Good at heart

⁴³ “A good tree does not produce bad fruit. And a bad tree does not produce good fruit. ⁴⁴ Every tree is known by the kind of fruit it produces. You won’t find figs on thorny weeds. And you can’t pick grapes from thornbushes! ⁴⁵ Good people have good things saved in their hearts. That’s why they say good things. But those who are evil have hearts full of evil, and that’s why they say things that are evil. What people say with their mouths comes from what fills their hearts.
