Family challenge:

Can you collectively find things to donate or pass on to others?
Make it a game.

Set a minute's timer each time a new 'find' is instructed. For instance, set a minute timer and say everyone needs to find one thing from their bedroom to pass to someone else. Then reset the minute timer and challenge everyone to find something edible to pass onto someone else (such as a foodbank or a neighbour). Reset the timer and see if anyone has a coin they could give to charity, and so on.

A prayer for when you are offered something:
Dear God, thank you for this offering. Help me take it with happiness. Amen
