

Luke 19: 28 – 40 Palm Sunday

The Easter story by Saddleback Kids

Everyday we see people treated unfairly or badly. It's very sad. Sometimes when we see these things happening we are not sure what to do or say. Play a game called What would you do: come up with some scenarios of when people may be treated badly or unfairly: being left out of a game/ being called names/ wrongly blamed. Take turns saying what you could do or say in that situation.

A prayer for when there is injustice.

Dear God, Let me speak up when I see people treated badly. Amen

The Triumphal Entry

²⁸ After Jesus^[a] had said this, he continued on ahead,^[b] going up to Jerusalem.^[c] ²⁹ Now^[d] when he approached Bethphage^[e] and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives,^[f] he sent two of the disciples, ³⁰ telling them,^[g] “Go to the village ahead of you.^[h] When^[i] you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden.^[j] Untie it and bring it here. ³¹ If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs^[k] it.’” ³² So those who were sent ahead found^[l] it exactly^[m] as he had told them. ³³ As^[n] they were untying the colt, its owners asked them,^[o] “Why are you untying that colt?” ³⁴ They replied, “The Lord needs it.” ³⁵ Then^[p] they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks^[q] on the colt,^[r] and had Jesus get on^[s] it. ³⁶ As^[t] he rode along, they^[u] spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷ As he approached the road leading down from^[v] the Mount of Olives,^[w] the whole crowd of his^[x] disciples began to rejoice^[y] and praise^[z] God with a loud voice for all the mighty works^[aa] they had seen:^[ab] ³⁸ “Blessed is the king^[ac] who comes in the name of the Lord!^[ad]” Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!” ³⁹ But^[ae] some of the Pharisees^[af] in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples.”^[ag] ⁴⁰ He answered,^[ah] “I tell you, if they^[ai] keep silent, the very stones^[aj] will cry out!”
