

1 Chronicles 12: 38-40: David's coronation

I wonder what plans God has for you?

Find a photograph of you now, or draw a self portrait.
 What might you look like in ten, twenty years time?
 Can you change the picture so you look older? You could draw/colour on it, or even collage on the picture. Maybe your hair will look different, maybe you'll have glasses, even a beard! How might your clothes change?
 And what about what you might be doing? Can you change the background so that it reflects what you might be doing in the future, the plans God might have in store for you?

We'd love to see the finished results!

A prayer for when you look in the mirror:

You made me, God, and you have plans for me.
 Help me be the person you made me to be.

1 Chronicles 12: 38-40: David's coronation

³⁸ All these fighting men were ready to go to war. They came to Hebron fully agreed to make David king of all Israel. All the other Israelites also agreed to make David king.

³⁹ The men spent three days there with David. They ate and drank, because their relatives had prepared food for them.

⁴⁰ Also, their neighbors brought food. They came from as far as the areas belonging to Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali. They brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. They brought much flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, oil, cows and sheep. This was because the people of Israel were very happy.

I wonder what plans God has for you?

I wonder what you'd bring to a party to celebrate the choosing of a new leader?
