

Philemon1: 15–17 Speaking out and standing up

Watch the cartoon by Crossroads Kids' Club

https://youtu.be/bTyU5gvgTEM?si=O5m1sQDHNxN_TGXt

We can see injustice around us all the time. We don't always feel able to say anything or do anything. But God can!

Create a space in your home that is for prayer. Each time an injustice happens, pray. You could have a jar and some stones; each time you see injustice, take a stone. Hold it, ask God to help, and then pop it in the jar. Or have a piece of paper and each time you pray draw a little heart on the paper.

A prayer for when you see injustice:

Jesus, help me to have a strong voice to speak out. Amen.

Philemon 1: 15 – 17 Speaking out and standing up

Watch the cartoon by Crossroads Kids' Club

https://youtu.be/bTyU5gvgTEM?si=O5m1sQDHNxN_TGXt

We can see injustice around us all the time. We don't always feel able to say anything or do anything. But God can!

Create a space in your home that is for prayer. Each time an injustice happens, pray. You could have a jar and some stones; each time you see injustice, take a stone. Hold it, ask God to help, and then pop it in the jar. Or have a piece of paper and each time you pray draw a little heart on the paper.

A prayer for when you see injustice:

Jesus, help me to have a strong voice to speak out. Amen.

Philemon 1: 15–17 Speaking out and standing up

¹⁵ Perhaps Onesimus was taken from you for a little while so you could have him back for good, ¹⁶ but not as a slave. Onesimus is much more than a slave. To me he is a dear friend, but to you he is even more, both as a person and as a follower of the Lord.

¹⁷ If you consider me a friend because of Christ, then welcome Onesimus as you would welcome me.

Copyright © 1995 by American Bible Society. For more information about the Contemporary English Version of the Bible, visit www.bibles.com and www.cev.bible.

How else could we let others know about our feelings other than using our voice?

Philemon 1: 15–17 Speaking out and standing up

¹⁵ Perhaps Onesimus was taken from you for a little while so you could have him back for good, ¹⁶ but not as a slave. Onesimus is much more than a slave. To me he is a dear friend, but to you he is even more, both as a person and as a follower of the Lord.

¹⁷ If you consider me a friend because of Christ, then welcome Onesimus as you would welcome me.

Copyright © 1995 by American Bible Society. For more information about the Contemporary English Version of the Bible, visit www.bibles.com and www.cev.bible.

How else could we let others know about our feelings other than using our voice?