

The book of Esther.

Watch the cartoon of Esther by kids on the move

https://youtu.be/SaS_ePAjCvk?si=325VzTKTqljQx9Xi

Make your own characters from the story of Esther using wooden spoons, some felt tips, glue, wool and some material. Start by glueing some wool to the top of the spoon to create hair, cover that with some material as a head covering leaving some wool showing. Use the felt pens to draw a face on the spoon. You could use the material to create some clothes. The spoon characters could be used to act out the story. They could also be used as a conversation starter for who influences us in our lives.

A prayer for each time you put on your crown:

Dear God, Help me to be a good influence in others lives. Amen

(Either use the crown made in the session or make your own)

The book of Esther

Watch the cartoon of Esther by kids on the move

https://youtu.be/SaS_ePAjCvk?si=325VzTKTqljQx9Xi

Make your own characters from the story of Esther using wooden spoons, some felt tips, glue, wool and some material. Start by glueing some wool to the top of the spoon to create hair, cover that with some material as a head covering leaving some wool showing. Use the felt pens to draw a face on the spoon. You could use the material to create some clothes. The spoon characters could be used to act out the story. They could also be used as a conversation starter for who influences us in our lives.

A prayer for each time you put on your crown:

Dear God, Help me to be a good influence in others lives. Amen

(Either use the crown made in the session or make your own)

Bible Reading - Esther 5:1-8

On the third day Esther put on her royal robes. Then she stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, facing the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the doorway. The king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard. When he saw her, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther went up to him and touched the end of the scepter. Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom." Esther answered, "My king, if it pleases you, come today with Haman to a banquet. I have prepared it for you." Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly so we may do what Esther asks." So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared for them. As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "Now, Esther, what are you asking for? I will give it to you. What is it you want? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom." Esther answered, "This is what I want and ask for. My king, I hope you are pleased with me. If it pleases you, give me what I ask for and do what I want. Come with Haman tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for you. Then I will answer your question about what I want."

I wonder what it means to be influenced by something?

Bible Reading - Esther 5:1-8

On the third day Esther put on her royal robes. Then she stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, facing the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the doorway. The king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard. When he saw her, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther went up to him and touched the end of the scepter. Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom." Esther answered, "My king, if it pleases you, come today with Haman to a banquet. I have prepared it for you." Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly so we may do what Esther asks." So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared for them. As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "Now, Esther, what are you asking for? I will give it to you. What is it you want? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom." Esther answered, "This is what I want and ask for. My king, I hope you are pleased with me. If it pleases you, give me what I ask for and do what I want. Come with Haman tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for you. Then I will answer your question about what I want."

I wonder what it means to be influenced by something?