Saying sorry isn't always easy but we can find fun ways to do it. Using shapes of paper, stars and flowers work well, write or draw on them in biro the things for which you are sorry. If you are doing this as a family, you may want to talk about why you are sorry and what you are sorry for. Then fold the points/ petals down and place in a bowl of water. Watch as the flowers/ stars open up as the paper absorbs the water. As they open imagine the sorry or even shout it out, remembering to try your hardest not to repeat the mistake.

A prayer for when the word sorry is used:

Dear God, I am sorry when I upset others,
help me to forgive those who upset me. Amen

Matthew 18: 21-35 The unforgiving servant

God's kingdom is like a king who decided to collect the money his servants owed him. The king began to collect his money. One servant owed him several thousand pounds of silver. He was not able to pay the money to his master, the king. So, the master ordered that he and everything he owned be sold, even his wife and children. The money would be used to pay the king what the servant owed. "But the servant fell on his knees and begged, 'Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.' The master felt sorry for him. So, he told the servant he did not have to pay. He let him go free. "Later, that same servant found another servant who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him around the neck and said, 'Pay me the money you owe me!' "The other servant fell on his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.' "But the first servant refused to be patient. He told the judge that the other servant owed him money, and that servant was put in jail until he could pay everything he owed. All the other servants saw what happened. They felt very sorry for the man. So, they went and told their master everything that happened. "Then the master called his servant in and said, 'You evil servant. You begged me to forgive your debt, and I said you did not have to pay anything! So, you should have given that other man who serves with you the same mercy I gave you.' The master was very angry, so he put the servant in jail to be punished. And he had to stay in jail until he could pay everything he owed. "This king did the same as my heavenly Father will do to you. You must forgive your brother or sister with all your heart, or my heavenly Father will not forgive you. Easy-to-read Bible Copyright © 2006 by Bible League International

I wonder what forgiveness looks like?
