Two games to play

1) Draw a template of a man wearing a coat of many colours on a piece of A4. This is Joseph. Now draw a colourful scarf to go with it on a separate piece of paper. Cut out the scarf.

Take turns being blindfolded and trying to pin the scarf onto Joseph!

2) This game can be done in pairs. One person holds a paper plate on top of their head. The other person calls out instructions and the other draws what they are told, without peeking. The aim is for the person instructing to describe a man named Joseph wearing a colourful coat, with a smile on his face and a shepherd's stick in his hand. The end results can be quite comical

A prayer for when you choose a favourite something:

Jesus, thank you that we are all your favourites. Amen

Bible: Genesis 37: 1 - 11 Joseph's dreams

Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. This is the account of Jacob's family line. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made an ornate robe for him. When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him. Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more. He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: We were binding sheaves of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it."

His brothers said to him, "Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?" And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said. Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?" His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind
