When out and about look at the lights in your community (traffic lights, Christmas lights, lights in your house). What do they represent and how do they make you feel?

When at home stand on your doorstep or look out of your window. Can you see any stars? Perhaps an aeroplane or a satellite? Maybe some clouds or the moon? Did you notice something different that you didn't notice yesterday?

Draw or create a picture of what you see.

A prayer for when you look at the sky:

God of the small things and the big things,
Help me to hope Amen

Bible Reading - Isaiah 2: 1-5 – Hope

This is the message that appeared to Amoz's son, Isaiah, about Judah and Jerusalem. This is what will happen in the last days. The mountain where the LORD's temple is will continue to be there. It will be the most important mountain of all. It will be higher than all the hills around it. People from every nation will go there all the time. As they come, people from many nations will say, 'Come! We will go to the mountain of the LORD, Jacob's God. We will go to worship him at his temple. Then he will teach us how to live in a way that pleases him. We will be able to walk in his paths.' At that time, Zion will be the place where people learn about what is right. Yes, in Jerusalem the LORD will teach people his message. God will be the judge between different nations. When they argue together, he will say who is right. They will take their swords and they will make them into ploughs. Their spears will become knives to cut their vines. Nations will no longer need weapons to attack other nations. They will not prepare to fight wars any more. Jacob's family, come now! We need to live in the light that the LORD gives to us.
