Introduction: What would be helpful to know in my planning? Please use this section as a reference and information guide for leaders only – we don't expect it to be read out to the children.

At the start of Advent we can spend time together as a whole church, outside in creation as we think about beginning the journey of Advent leading to the celebration of Christmas. A Forest Church session is not simply a church service taken outside, it's an opportunity for people of all ages and stages to be in creation together and experience and explore Creator God together. It's not about taking books, papers and resources into the outdoors with you, it's more about using what we find in creation, within each season to worship and respond to God. Don't worry if you are a church based within a city landscape, you don't need a big forest or even a green area, you can use whatever outdoor space you have such as a car park. Or you could run the session inside by considering how you can bring the greenery and elements of creation into your context.

This session we have created explores the theme of journeying and waiting through advent.

Together – prayer and games

Let's start our time with God and each other well

Use this opening prayer or encourage young people to open the session with a prayer of their own.

All mighty God,

Be with us as we learn more about you through stories and people in the Bible.

Help us to walk in your way and follow your path.

Be with us as we make decisions that affect our lives, and the lives of those around us.

Amen

Alternatively, you may join with the widgit prayer found in the Faith Adventures: Children Together, or else the Lord's Prayer found at the end of this session.

Active game - Wait a minute……

Advent reminds us that people were waiting for the Saviour God had promised, Jesus. Waiting can feel slow, especially when we're looking forward to something. This game helps us experience a little of the waiting and anticipation that Advent invites us to reflect on.

You'll need a timer on your phone for this game. Gather everyone together and explain that they must sit/stand quietly and raise their hand when they think one minute has passed. Start the timer and wait. Note who was closest to the minute, then continue until everyone has raised their hand. Who guessed too early? Who waited the longest? How did the waiting feel?

Quieter game - Signs of Life.

Advent reminds us that waiting does not mean nothing is happening. Invite everyone to work in pairs or small groups and look for as many signs of life around then as they can find, even in the middle of winter. Encourage them to take photos of their discoveries if they can but remind them not to pick or disturb anything. When everyone has finished, share your findings together. Who found the most signs of life? What did you discover that others missed?

Experience – Bible story and songs

Hear, watch and sing the Bible story

This link takes you to Isaiah 11: 1 – 2 in New International Version

You may wish to research different versions of this reading on www.biblegateway.com
Recommended versions to try are NRSV, Easy-to-read, The Message, NIRV

A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse;
from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.
The Spirit of the Lord will rest on him—
the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of might,
the Spirit of the knowledge and fear of the Lord—

Watch: Instead of watching clips on a screen consider these ways of story telling:

1. Gather round the campfire. Just like the ancient people of God would have gathered together and shared God's stories and prophesies verbally. Create a story circle, gathering round a firepit gives the mind something to reflect on as they listen. Try to retell the story of Isaiah and the two verses from today's passage from memory.
2. Small group sharing. Gather people into smaller groups, invite them to sit down and share the passage with each other. Phones are a great tool for people sharing the passage from different translations.
3. Remembered Bible. Ask the group to retell the prophecies that God gave over the centuries concerning the coming of Jesus.

Songs to support the story

Remember that Forest Church is not about taking PowerPoint and amplification outside, consider how you can enable the group to worship simply. Use songs that are familiar and repetitive so people can access them and join in. Use of guitars, recorders and simple percussion can be very effective in outdoor sung worship. People can be engaged with clapping hands, clicking fingers, stamping feet.

You could write some words to a familiar tune or even nursery rhyme, here are a few we have had a go at producing.

To the tune of We will rock you – Queen

Begin by clapping twice and raising your arms on the third beat repeat x4, then sing

We will, we will praise you x 4

This is the chorus, a leader could then do the verses
Verse 1
Coming into our town, your town, my town
We're waiting for a new king today
Gonna stand in the crowd
Shout out loud
Won't be ashamed, gonna sing it out proud

Singing… We will, we will praise him x 4

Verse 2
Coming into our town, old town, this town
We're waiting for a new king today
Here he comes, God's own Son
Coming for the sake of every-one

Singing… We will, we will praise him x 4

To the tune of Twinkle, twinkle, little star

Twinkle, twinkle Advent star
Shining brightly from afar
Lead us on and show the way
To the Christ child in the hay
Twinkle, twinkle Advent star
Shining brightly from afar

Twinkle Advent star so bright
Lead us to the wondrous sight
Give us patience on the way
Keep us walking, night and day
Twinkle Advent star so bright
Lead us to the wondrous sight

Twinkle, twinkle little star,
Watching quietly from afar.
You wait to hear, angels sing,
All about the baby king.
Twinkle, twinkle little star,
Watching quietly from afar.

Explore – ways into the theme

Ideas and activities to explore this week's Bible passage together

A new way to explore the theme

This is a new way to explore the Bible passage and the theme for this week.

Alternatively, you may wish to use the Explore section from this week's Faith Adventures: Children Together to guide your exploration of the theme this week.

Tell me s'more (campfire storytelling)

Storytelling space

Create your storytelling space: you may encourage group members to bring blankets or camp chairs; have snacks or hot drinks ready to share or perhaps set up around a fire pit.

However you create your space, make sure there is a dedicated campfire storytelling area for this section of the session.

Remembering together

This week's bible passage is a prophecy of Jesus' birth. Ask the group what they remember about Jesus' birth story. Here are some ideas to give a little more structure:

- People may prefer the chance to talk in small groups first, then share their ideas with the whole gathering.
- Give themed prompts – What journeys can you remember? Who is in the story? What problems do the characters face? Where does the story take place?
- Encourage participants to embellish their answers by asking them to – 'Tell me s'more!'

The purpose of the exercise is to give people the chance to recall what they remember – rather than collecting answers that are right or wrong. The facilitator will need to gather responses carefully, using language that is encouraging. If there are sections of the story that are a little fuzzy, remind them that there will be a chance to learn more over the next few weeks.

Asking your own questions

After remembering the story together, encourage your group to think of questions for their Advent journey. What would your group like to find out about the Christmas story over the next few weeks? If they could ask the characters any question – what would it be? I wonder who (from the story) they would like to go on a journey with? Why?

Modern parables

This section includes references to TV programmes, films, books, TED talks, TikTok etc aimed at this age group that will have been widely seen, or where a clip is available to use as a stimulus for discussion. You may also enjoy the picture book recommended for Faith Adventures: Children Together and explore the relevance of the story to the theme of the session in more depth – young people and adults are often well tuned in to the deeper meanings in materials aimed at younger people and the authors are often very aware of the adults reading the books to or with younger ones.

The littlest watchman by Scott James – available to buy at The Good Book Company (£7) Published by Good Book Company 2017 ISBN 1784981400

https://www.thegoodbook.co.uk/the-littlest-watchman

The site also has downloadable pictures that could be used to tell the story outside.

This story is wonderful to share around the fire circle as it tells the story of the root of Jesse prophecy from today's passage.

This tells the story of Benjamin, the littlest watchman, who is waiting for and then witnesses the first Christmas. He waits patiently by the tree stump as he knows the prophecy of a new root sprouting from the Jesse stump.

- I wonder what you are waiting patiently for?

Group discussion

- If you could jump into any of the characters stories which one would it be?
- I wonder what people expected a royal descendent would look like?
- I wonder why they had to wait so long for the descendent?
- Who in the story had the hardest journey?
- I wonder what would have happened if the shepherds/ wise men didn't make that journey?

Personal reflection

- What do you prefer - the journey or the destination?
- What does waiting look like?
- What have you waited for?
- What's the best journey you've been on?
- How is advent like a journey for us?

Express – prayer and creative activities

Praying together: enabling your group to respond spiritually

Praying together

Prayers Respond to the theme by writing or saying a short prayer. Alternatively, use the creative prayer from Faith Adventures: Children Together for this session, or use the prayer activity below. Alternatively, light a candle and play some music while you listen and talk to God together.

Nature mandala

A mandala is a symmetrical design that reminds us of the circle of life and creation. Mandala means circle.

Invite the group to gather items of nature (leaves, moss, twigs, acorns etc) and then to gather into a circle. (or small groups if there are lots of you)

Leader begins by placing items on the ground that will become the centre of the mandala, whilst beginning the prayer by saying:

Creator God, we bring our prayers to you….hear our prayers.

Participants take it in turn to step forward and add to the design along with a spoken prayer if they have one, ending in hear our prayer.

Once the mandala is complete, pause to see what has been created and complete the prayer time by saying Amen together.

See here for examples https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zgvsvwx

Spoken prayers – to open and close the session

The same format can be followed to provide liturgy that opens and closes the session.

Thank you, God,

For…

A leader chooses things that they can see – making this prayerful 'shout out' specific to the space you are sharing. It could be layered leaves or swirling snowflakes; a wise gathering of trees or stubborn shoots escaping from concrete.

Creative God

We praise you!

Amen

Encourage the group to join in with the response We praise you! After the leader has said the words Creative God

This pattern can be repeated several times – then closed with a communal Amen.

After the 'shout out' has been modelled at the beginning of the session, a group member can be asked to take the role of leader for the closing words. They don't need to repeat what has been said before, but notice the surroundings for themselves, and share with the group what they see.

Responding together

This is an opportunity for a social justice challenge, some research, craftivism, or a craft or STEM activity. You may have a specific activity chosen but free choice is also an option. Here are some suggestions for this week's theme. Choose whatever will work best for your group.

Nativity star

The Nativity story is filled with journeys. The star led the Wise Men on a very long and important journey. For this craft, you will need to go on a journey as well to find some twigs. Don't cut any off trees, look around on the floor to find some, or if there are trees that have been chopped down, you could take some off them. Ask an adult to help you. Once you have found them, you're nearly ready to make your own Christmas star.

NB - if you cannot find any twigs on the ground, you can buy some.

You will need:

- five twigs, roughly 15cm long (you can have them longer if you want a bigger star)
- twine or string
- scissors
- you may need secateurs to cut the twigs, ask an adult to help

What you do:

Prepare your twigs! Get an adult to cut off any spiky bits or little offshoots.

Take two twigs and bind them together at one end, to create an upside down 'V'. Repeat with a further two twigs.

Take one bundle of twigs and turn them onto their side. Bind one of the ends with the other the end of a twig in the second bundle.

Place the remaining twig on top of the others, connecting the bottom left point with the top right. Tie the ends together.

Make a loop at the top of the star and you now have your own Christmas star. You can decorate this further by adding ribbon, coloured cotton, pom poms etc.

Challenge

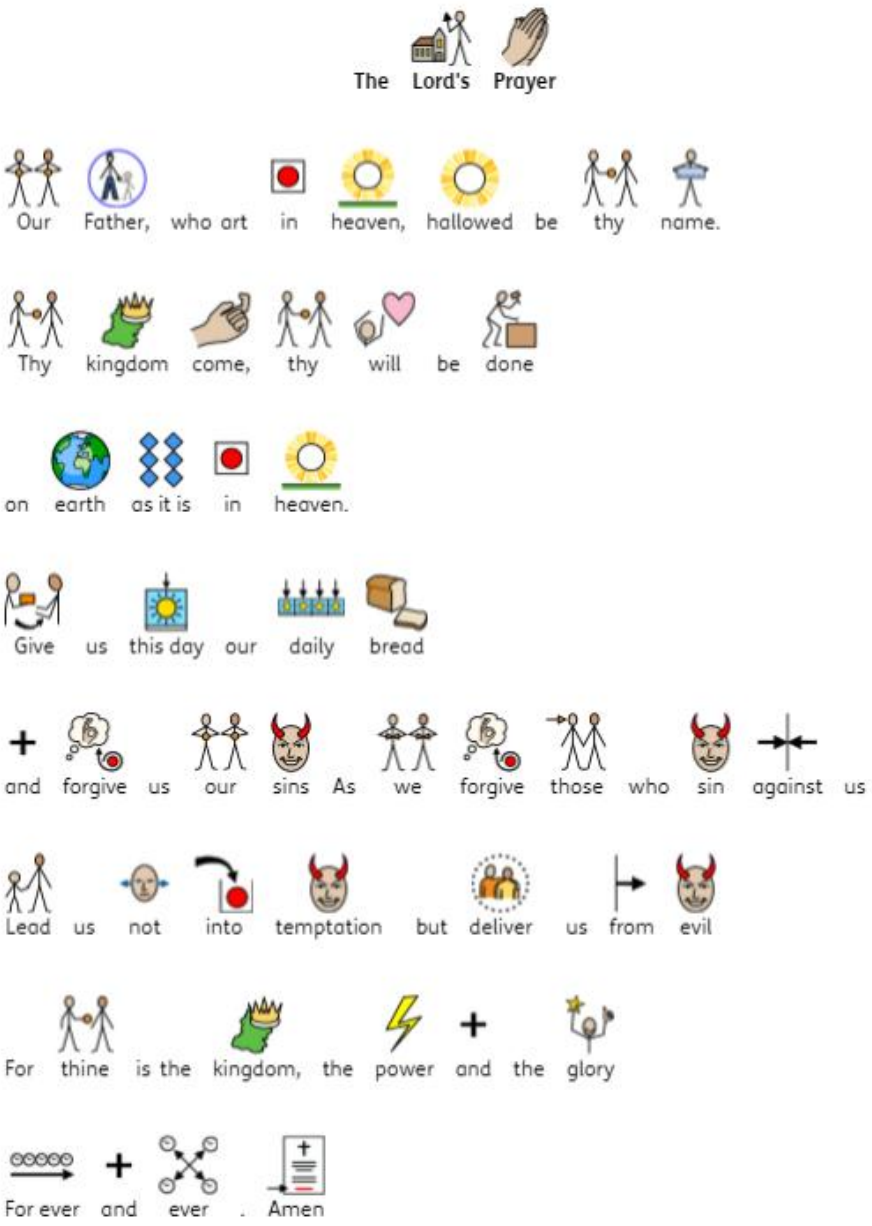

Discipleship doesn't stop when you walk out of the church door – it is a part of everyday life. Take a challenge with you and try to make it part of your week.

You may think of your own suggestion of what you as an individual or a group might do in the coming week in response to what you have explored today. If not here are some suggestions:

- Use one of the "conversation starter" questions or the question below to talk with someone of a different generation or from a different setting and share your questions, thoughts, insights together. How do you connect with God when you are in nature?
- Research something suggested by JPIT Resources (jpit.uk) Commitment for Life (cforl.co.uk)
- Continue to focus on God when you are in nature this week.

Thank you for exploring the Isaiah passage with us.

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
+ and forgive us our sins As we forgive those who sin against us
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, the power + and the glory
For ever + and ever . Amen

Use some paper and wax crayons to take some rubbings. You could take a rubbing of tree bark, some indentations or an interesting stone.
