

Dr Kerry Baker

Dr Kerry Baker is the Safeguarding Policy Development Co-ordinator for the URC. She has extensive experience in research, teaching and policy development in the areas of youth justice, probation and social work. She also has experience of working in the charity and education sectors and is the safeguarding coordinator at her local church.