New resource

URC Youth has consulted with Sam Richards to help her develop a resource.

This will help Fiona to stop getting shapes and colours mixed up.

Microphones that work

You need to speak into the mic

GA now under standing order Hokey Cokey

in light of the length of the Church Life Review, break and mealtimes are now going to be reduced to the length of standing up, turning around and sitting down.

Wanted - Shoe thief

Have you seen this person. They are suspected of stealing children's shoes. if found contact Paul Robinson.

"Smile and wave boys, smile and wave".

During a moment of technical difficulty, the Moderator asked online members to show their vote in favor by emulating the Madagascar Penguins. We wonder whether our Zoom members of Assembly feel flattered by the comparison...

A picture speaks 1000 words

When invited to respond to comments in the comms committee resolutions, rather than waste 3 minutes of time on his right to reply, Andy Jackson decided to respond using the far more meaningful and efficient method of making faces, including expressions of confusion, disapproval and apathy. GAG encourages all committee convenor to use this highly entertaining method of response in all future business sessions.
