Foreword

Worship: from the United Reformed Church

These resources for worship are offered to the church as a contribution to the conduct of public worship at the beginning of the 21st century. In 1980, eight years after the foundation of the United Reformed Church, A Book of Services was issued by the Doctrine and Worship Committee under the wise and able guidance of John Huxtable. In his short preface he wrote, 'The orders found here are not prescribed. It is not expected that they will be used in our churches to the exclusion of others. Yet we believe most of these services reflect the ethos of our Church and of its inherited traditions.' These sentiments applied also to the 1989 Service Book and still hold true for this publication.

What has changed at the beginning of the 21st century is the context in which public worship is offered. We now find ourselves in a missionary setting where the church can no longer take for granted that most people understand the religious language and imagery of past generations. Language is changing and the language of worship has to take account of this. Our words may be beautiful and doctrinally sound, but if they are not 'something understood', they do not aid our worship. There is, of course, a measure of ambiguity and mystery lying at the heart of the most telling language of worship. However, we should aim at clarity as well as elegant expression. We should be expressing old truths in new ways.

We also need the language to express new truths in thoroughly Christian ways. Contemporary liturgists search for such language – and this quest can bring a creative tension with the traditional language of the church.

At the time of original publication, the then Doctrine, Prayer and Worship Committee had been aware of the need for continuity and change within the worship of the church. We have provided worship resources deeply rooted in our Reformed heritage, along with resources which develop our liturgical tradition in the spirit of the dictum 'the Reformed church is ever in need of reformation'. We are aware of the breadth of liturgical expression within the church and we have sought to provide a range of styles of services. The rubrics have deliberately been kept to a minimum, thus encouraging worship leaders to develop styles appropriate to their situation. There are exceptions, such as 'prayers for healing' and 'laying-on of hands', where it was felt greater guidance would be welcomed. The Baptism service contains wording required by the General Assembly. It is our hope that all the services act as guides to the development of the worship life of the church, and all to the glory of God.

This publication includes an element in the form of an order for daily worship. The first Order of Holy Communion and the Baptism service had originally been issued in draft form and the comments received from the church have been taken into account in the final texts.

The committee owes a debt of gratitude to all contributors to this publication, which uses the work of many talented liturgists.

Introduction

The four services presented here reflect the belief of the Reformers that the service of Word and Sacrament is the normative service of the church – as we read in Acts 2:42, ‘They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.’

John Calvin maintained that any time the church came together to meet it should involve the reading of scripture, preaching and the celebration of the Lord’s Supper. This should be done at least every Sunday.

For reasons of history, the predecessor denominations of the United Reformed Church (except for the Churches of Christ) have never been, or felt, able to do this. However, they never lost sight of the centrality of the service of Word and Sacrament, and even when the Lord’s Supper has not been celebrated we still look to that service to provide us with an order for our worship of God.

The first two services have been written especially for this book, and both contain a wealth of new material. The first order of Holy Communion provides a full order of worship for a service of Word and Sacrament with the use of many of the liturgical items found in Rejoice and Sing. The language draws on a very rich range of biblical imagery, especially from the Old Testament. Within the service the narrative of the institution (1 Corinthians 11:23-26) may be used as a warrant before the thanksgiving prayer or included within it. While the former position is traditionally Reformed, both practices are ecumenically acceptable. A greater degree of participation by the congregation is allowed for, both in the responses and in physical movement. The service may either be used as it stands or it may be shortened by the omission of some of the suggested items.

The second order of Holy Communion is one that is especially suitable when there is a broader range of ages present in the congregation and a less formal service is desired. The language is simpler and more direct, and the congregational responses can be made by the repetition of phrases.

The third order of Holy Communion is taken from the 1989 Service Book and continues the liturgical heritage of the Churches of Christ in our midst. The most noticeable variation from the other services is the way in which the thanksgiving may be divided so that thanks is given over the bread and it is shared, and then a thanksgiving over the wine before it is shared. This reflects the early tradition according to which, at the Last Supper, Jesus said separate prayers over the bread and the wine.

The fourth order of Holy Communion is perhaps the most historic of the four services for the United Reformed Church. Usually thought of as the order from New Church Praise, it had appeared shortly before that, being produced at the request of the first United Reformed Church General Assembly in 1973. Primarily the work of James Todd, it drew on material from both the Presbyterian and Congregational churches, and ecumenically from the Joint Liturgical Group of Great Britain. Much of the material used in it can be found at the front of Rejoice and Sing, and the first section of thanksgiving prayer can be varied to reflect the different seasons and festivals of the church year.

The preparation

The congregation stands as the Bible is brought into the church and placed open upon the lectern, pulpit or communion table. The Minister follows and greets the people.

Greeting

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

All Grace to you and peace.

Romans 1:7

or

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All And also with you.

2 Corinthians 13:13

A Scripture sentence, seasonal or general, may replace the greeting or be used in addition.

Sentence

This is the day that the Lord has made;

All let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalms 118:24

This is none other than the house of God,

All and this is the gate of heaven.

Genesis 28:17

or

Our help is in the name of the Lord,

All who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 124:8

Hymn or Psalm

An appropriate hymn or psalm can be used.

Prayer of Approach

God our source and guide and goal:
you have made us in your image
and set us in a world full of beauty;
you dwell in light unapproachable,
yet you have come to be among us, full of grace and truth;
you are the power from on high,
coming in wind and flame to work your wonders in our midst.
Gracious God, awaken us from sleep
that we may worship you in spirit and in truth:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Great Commandments

Alternatively, 'A New Commandment' (Rejoice and Sing 745) or the Ten Commandments may be used.

Hear, O Israel:

All The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Love the Lord your God
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
with all your mind,
and with all your strength.

All This is the first and great commandment.

The second is like it:

Love your neighbour as yourself

All There is no commandment greater than these.

Prayer of Confession

All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

Romans 3:23

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves,
and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just,
will forgive us our sins.

1 John 1:8-9a

Jesus says:

I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.

Mark 2:17

Let us confess our sins together
and seek God's forgiveness.

All Almighty God, we confess before you
our own sin, the sin of the Church and the sin of the world, in which we share.
We have not loved you with our whole being;
we have not loved our neighbour as ourselves.
In your mercy,
forgive us when we turn from you;
release us from the burden of our past,
and remake us in your image and likeness
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Silence

Assurance of Pardon

The Lord says: See, I am making all things new. Revelation 21:5

All If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation. 2 Corinthians 5:17

In Christ God was reconciling the world to himself 2 Corinthians 5:19

Through him your sins are forgiven.

All Amen. Thanks be to God.

The Lord also says:

If any want to become my followers,
let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. Mark 8:34

or

May the God of mercy
who forgives you all your sins through Jesus Christ
strengthen you in all goodness
by the power of the Holy Spirit
and keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Lord, have mercy (Kyrie eleison)

The Kyries (Rejoice and Sing 5) may be said or sung.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

All Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

or

Holy God, holy and mighty,
holy and immortal,

All have mercy upon us.

Glory to God (Gloria in excelsis)

Settings may be found at Rejoice and Sing 6-8.

- All* Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.
- All* Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
- All* Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Prayer for grace or prayer for the day

An appropriate prayer for grace or prayer for the day can be used.

The Ministry of the Word

Appropriate Scripture readings may be found in the Revised Common Lectionary. The readings may be interspersed with hymns or sung responses.

Before the reading of Scripture, the first reader may say:

Lord, break the bread of your word among us
and nourish us with your truth.

At the end of the readings a response may be used:

Hear the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God

Old Testament reading (Hebrew Scriptures)

Psalm, canticle, hymn or sung response

(eg Rejoice and Sing canticles 736-758 or sung responses 394, 395, 397, 403)

New Testament reading(s)

Sermon

A short silence may be kept after the readings and/or the sermon.

Affirmation of faith

An affirmation of faith or creed may be said or sung (eg Rejoice and Sing 759-761; 36-37, 103, 118, 219, 258, 262, 275, 283, 749, 752.)

Prayers of Intercession

The intercessions may, if preferred, follow communion.

The Lord's Prayer

Various forms of the Lord's Prayer can be found on page 100.

The Lord's Supper

Invitation

Let us celebrate this joyful feast.
People will come from east and west and north and south,
and sit at table in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:29

Jesus said: I am the bread of life.
Whoever comes to me will never be hungry,
and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.
Anyone who comes to me I will never turn away.

John 6:35, 37

The invitation may be given in other appropriate words.

Offertory

The bread and the wine may be brought to the table, with the gifts of the people. If the bread and wine are already on the table, they should now be uncovered. The following sentence may be used:

Brothers and sisters,
by the mercies of God
present your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and acceptable to God.

Romans 12:1

If the Peace is used at this point, the following sentence may be used:

When you are offering your gift at the altar,
if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you,
leave your gift there before the altar and go:
first be reconciled to your brother or sister.

Matthew 5:23-24

The following prayer may be used:

Almighty and most merciful God,
out of the fullness of your gifts
we bring before you this bread and this wine,
our gifts and our lives.
Blessed be your holy name forever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have this bread to offer,
which earth has given and human hands have made.
May it become for us the bread of life.

All Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have this wine to offer,
fruit of the vine and the work of human hands.
May it become for us the cup of salvation.

All Blessed be God for ever.

All Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness
we have ourselves to offer,
fruit of the womb, and formed by your love.
May we become your servants in the world.
Blessed be God for ever.

Narrative of the institution

The narrative may be omitted if it is used as part of the prayer of thanksgiving.

Hear the narrative of the institution of the Lord's Supper as it is recorded by St Paul.

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me'. In the same way he took the cup also, after Supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We offer you thanks, Creator, Saviour, Giver of Life.
From the beginning you have made yourself known:
the heavens proclaim your glory and the earth sings your praise.
In wisdom you made all that is
and you bless us with earth's fruitfulness.
You are merciful and gracious, and abounding in love.
Yet from our first days we have disobeyed your will.
Long ago you called to yourself a people
to shine as light to guide all nations to your presence.
You led them to freedom;
you revealed to them your Law
and taught them through your prophets.
Finally you sent your promised Son, Jesus Christ,
who shared our human nature and understood our weakness.
Born of Mary, he showed forth your love by word and sign.

Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth
we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

He sought the unloved and the lost
and welcomed all who came to him;
he taught us lessons of forgiveness
he brought us healing for our sickness,
and showed us how to live according to your will.
For this he was rejected,
for this he endured grief and sorrow,
for this he gave himself up to death upon the Cross.
But you broke the power of sin and death
and raised him to the heights,
that through the blood of his Cross
and by the gift of the Holy Spirit
everything in earth and heaven might be reconciled to you.

[The Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said:
'This is my body which is broken for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'
In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying:
'This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'
For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,
you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.]

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

All Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Come, Creator God: renew the face of the earth;
come, eternal Saviour: remake us in your likeness;
come, Holy Spirit, transform these gifts:
that Christ may be known to us in the breaking of the bread and that we may be strengthened to serve him in the world.

May we on earth be one with all Christ's people,
and, when all things are complete,
be raised up to be with him, [with ... the saints; those who have died]
and with all your faithful servants in the heavenly places,
the homeland which we seek by faith,
and where he reigns in glory,
with you, Father, and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever.

All Amen.

The Peace

A sign of Peace may be shared, according to local custom. The Peace may be shared earlier in the service, eg after the assurance of pardon or at the offertory or after communion.

The peace of the Lord be with you.

All Peace be with you.

The breaking of the bread and pouring of the wine

The narrative of the institution may be used here if not used earlier.

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us.

Therefore let us keep the feast.

1 Corinthians 5:7

The bread which we break is the communion of the body of Christ.

The cup of blessing which we bless is the communion
of the blood of Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:16

or the Easter anthems may be said or sung (Rejoice and Sing 748)

Lamb of God (Agnus Dei)

Musical settings will be found at Rejoice and Sing 14-16

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world.

All Have mercy upon us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world.

All Have mercy upon us

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world.

All Grant us peace.

or

Jesus, Lamb of God:

All have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins:

All have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world:

All grant us peace.

The Sharing of the bread and the wine

Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.

All Alleluia.

or

Holy things for a holy people.

All Only one is holy, the Lord Jesus Christ.
We are made holy in him.

Take, eat; this is the body of Christ, broken for you.
Do this in remembrance of him.

This cup is the new covenant in the blood of Christ,
shed for you and for all, for the forgiveness of sin.
Drink of it, all of you, in remembrance of him.

or

The body of Christ, given for you.
The blood of Christ, shed for you.

or

The bread of heaven in Christ Jesus.
The cup of salvation in Christ Jesus.

Prayer after Communion

God of a love stronger than death,
you have given us new birth into a living hope
through the gift of your Son.

God with us,
like a mother you have fed us with yourself
and strengthened us for journeying ahead.

God of truth and power,
you take our weakness and our sin
and refashion us by grace.

All Gracious God,
may the love which bids us welcome at this table
gather all your children into one,
in your eternal presence,
whole and free at last.
Amen.

Hymn or Psalm

An appropriate hymn or psalm can be used.

Dismissal

Go out into the world with the food of your pilgrimage
in peace and gladness.

All Thanks be to God for his gift beyond words.

or

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All In the name of Christ.

Amen.

Blessing

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be with you always.

All Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Responses may be used between the sections. Sung responses will be found at Rejoice and Sing 5, 393, 397, 398, 402). Times of silence may also be left. Where possible two or three different voices may be used. In the prayers for peace, justice and the integrity of creation, candles may be lit for human rights, the peace of the earth, and the harmony of creation.

Jesus taught his disciples always to pray and not lose heart.

God all just, all merciful,
your compassion is over all that you have made:

Prayer for the Church

We pray for your Church throughout the world:
for its faithfulness in proclaiming the good news,
for its mission to reach out with Christ's love
to all who are in need,
for its witness, to shine as light where darkness prevails,
for its peace and unity,
to be a sign of reconciliation in a divided world.
We pray especially for ...
and for all Christ's people in this place,
that they may be given strength to walk in his way,
embrace his truth, and show forth his life.

Prayer for justice in the world

We pray for justice for those who are denied it,
who suffer for their beliefs,
or who are persecuted for what they are,
that their rights and dignity may be upheld;
we pray for those who are exploited
or enslaved at work or in the home,
that their cries may be heard;
for the many who go poor while the few prosper,
that the earth's resources may be fairly shared.

Prayer for the peace of the world

We pray for the world in all its need:
for its peace, remembering today ...
for the victims of war, terror, famine and disease,
that they may be freed from all afflictions;
for those who are forced to flee their homes,
that they may find safe lodging;
for those who misuse power,
that they may serve others, not themselves;
for those who nurture hatred in their hearts,
that they may come to know the meaning of the Cross.

Prayer for the integrity of creation

We pray for the earth itself, polluted and despoiled,
that the fragile balance of the natural order
may be respected,
its beauty and variety preserved,
and greed and selfish gain be put aside,
that harmony may be restored between ourselves and our environment.

Prayer for human society and those in need

We pray for nations and societies across the world,
and for our own,
for national and local government,
that those who rule may serve with wisdom and integrity;
for communities, that they may seek the common good;
for those who work to support and enhance community life,
that their endeavours may prosper;
for those whose work influences the lives of many,
that they may act responsibly and justly.
We pray for families and children,
that they may be secure and strong;
for friends and neighbours, wherever they are;
for the sick, the lonely, the neglected,
the dying and the bereaved,
that they may know the healing touch of Christ;
for those who have lost hope,
that light will shine in their darkness;
for those in any kind of need, especially for ...

Commemoration of those who have died

We remember with joy those whose journey now is ended
and whose lives among us helped us on our way,
especially ...
We commend to you those who have died
unloved,
unmourned,
and those dear to others.
We pray that we may come with them
to where there are no endings or beginnings,
but one equal joy in your eternal presence.

These prayers we offer through Jesus Christ,
who gave his life that all might be reconciled
and your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

All Amen.

Welcome, greetings and introductions.

Music may be rehearsed, news shared and any necessary explanations or instructions given.

The responses in this service are either well known or are based on repeating a line. The congregation need to know when a line is to be repeated. This can be indicated either by the worship leader or by having a designated 'cantor' who speaks only the lines to be repeated.

The call

The time is fulfilled,
and the kingdom of God has come near;
repent, and believe in the good news!

Mark 1:15

Hymn or song

Prayer of praise

Let us pray.
Loving God,
you create the world
and all the people.
You make bread and wine
and all good things.
You are holy and we praise you.

Jesus Christ,
child of God
and friend of us all,
you are with us today
as we break the bread
and share the wine.
You are Lord and we love you.

Holy Spirit,
breath of God,
moving in all creation,
you bring us close to God
and make us holy and strong.
You are here and we adore you.

A short Trinitarian verse of praise may be sung, preferably from memory (eg Rejoice and Sing 21-25).

Loving God,
in the company of all your people
we come to you,
and your presence is joy to us.
We come here
on this first day of the week
to meet with you and with each other and to listen for your word for each one.
We are ready to break bread and to drink wine,
to remember again the stories of our faith,
and to be changed by being here with you.
As we worship
in the company of angels,
surrounded by the saints,
and embraced by your love,
let us give ourselves openly and freely,
as you give yourself to us,
in tenderness and love.
Loving God, Lord Jesus, Holy Spirit,
we worship you,
the one holy and eternal God.

Prayer of Confession and words of forgiveness

God of justice and forgiveness,
we confess that we live in a world
in which some are hungry even for bread,
many people are sad or hurt,
and there is much that is unfair and unjust.
We confess that in our own lives
we do not always do what is right or turn away from what is wrong.
We ask your forgiveness,
we claim your love and mercy,
and we ask for courage to make a new beginning.
In the name of Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Jesus said, 'Your sins are forgiven.'

Mark 2:9

He also said, 'Whoever does the will of God
is my brother and sister and mother.'

Mark 3:35

Prayer for grace

Eternal God,
we believe the good news
of your mercy and love,
and rejoice that we are forgiven and free.
Receive us as your children,
as brothers and sisters of Jesus,
part of your new community of love,
and give us strength to do your will,
today and always.

All Amen.

Readings

A reading from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures)

Psalm

The psalm is 'lined out', the leader saying one line of text and the people repeating it. Psalm 117 is given as an example.

Praise the Lord, all you nations!

Psalm 117

All Praise the Lord, all you nations!

Extol him, all you peoples!

All Extol him, all you peoples!

For great is his steadfast love toward us,

All For great is his steadfast love toward us,

and the faithfulness of the Lord endures for ever.

All and the faithfulness of the Lord endures for ever.

Presentation of the Good News

(in ways appropriate for the day)

Hymn or song

The invitation

Jesus was often a guest.
He shared many meals with his friends,
and they long remembered his words at the table.
Though some disapproved of the company he kept,
Jesus ate and drank with all kinds of people
and showed everyone the love of God.
Wherever people met together
Jesus was glad to be welcomed and to be fed.
Today, we are the guests of Jesus.
He welcomes us,
whoever we are and whatever we bring,
and he will feed us at his table.
Old or young, rich or poor, joyful or in sorrow,
Jesus invites us
to share bread and wine with him,
to remember the story of his life and death,
and to celebrate his presence with us today.
On the night before he died,
Jesus shared a meal with 12 of his disciples
in an upstairs room in Jerusalem.
The Gospel writer tells us what happened that night.

The story of the Lord's Supper

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I tell you, I will never again drink the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'

Mark 14:22-25

We are the friends and disciples of Jesus today.
He invites us to break bread together,
to remember him
and to pray that God's Kingdom will come.

The prayer of Jesus

Said together, each person using the version or language most familiar to them.
The prayer may be said after the prayers of intercession instead.

Hymn or song

Offering

During or after the hymn or song the bread and wine and the offerings of the people may be brought to the table.

Offering prayer

We bring this bread and this wine
to the table of Jesus.
With them we bring ourselves,
all that we are and all that we own.
May the ordinary become holy,
and heaven be opened to the people of earth.

May God be blessed forever!

All May God be blessed forever!

The Thanksgiving

God is with us!

All God is with us!

We give thanks and praise to God!

All We give thanks and praise to God!

Loving God,
the world you made is beautiful
and full of wonder.
You made us, with all your creatures,
and you love all that you have made.
You gave us the words of your prophets,
the stories of your people through the generations,
and the gathered wisdom of many years.
You gave us Jesus, your Son,
to be born and to grow up
in difficult times when there was little peace.
He embraced people with your love
and told stories to change us all.
He healed those in pain
and brought to life those who had lost hope.
He made friends with anyone who would listen
and loved even his enemies.
For these things, he suffered.
For these things, he died.
And he was raised from death and lives with you forever.
You give us your Holy Spirit,
to teach and to strengthen us,
to remind us of Jesus Christ,
and to make us one in him.

For all these gifts we thank you,
and we join with all your people
on earth and in heaven,
in joyful praise:

Hosanna!

All Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

All Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!

All Hosanna in the highest heaven!

Mark 11:9b,10b

We praise you that we are here today,
around the table of Jesus.
We have heard the good news of your love;
the cross is the sign of your arms
stretched out in love for us and the empty tomb declares your love stronger than death.

Christ has died!

All Christ has died!

Christ is risen!

All Christ is risen!

Christ will come again!

All Christ will come again!

Send your Holy Spirit
upon this bread and wine,
and upon your people,
that Christ may be with us,
and we may be made ready to live for you
and to do what you ask of us,
today, and every day to come.

We make this prayer
through Jesus Christ,
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
in the love of the Creator,
one God,
to whom be glory and praise forever,

All Amen.

The breaking of the bread and the blessing of the cup

Eat this bread. It is the bread of life.

Drink this wine. It is the cup of blessing.

The Sharing

The Elders (or those chosen) may take the bread and wine to the congregation, or the people may pass the bread and cup from hand to hand as they are gathered around the table. There may be singing during the sharing of the bread and wine.

Thanks be to God for this gift beyond words.

All Thanks be to God for this gift beyond words.

The Peace

Jesus said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Mark 9:35a-37

Let us greet one another with a sign of peace.

Prayers

Let us pray.

Loving God,
you have fed us generously at this table,
as we have remembered Jesus
and rejoiced that he is with us today.
We are ready now to follow him,
and to be your people in the world.
May your Holy Spirit show us the way,
make us holy and fill us with love.

All Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

We pray for the Church,
for the great Church throughout the world,
and for our own church community
gathered today for worship and prayer.
May we remember Jesus every day,
grow in understanding of him,
and learn to love you and our neighbours.

Fill us with your Spirit,
and make us people of peace,
of faithful prayer and loving action.
Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

We pray for the whole world;
for the people, the animals,
the earth, the sea and the air.
May all that you have made
be sustained in peace and harmony,
and may all your creatures
share in the goodness of creation.
Bring healing to all who are suffering,
and may all your people share in hope
especially ...

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

We pray for ourselves,
for our families and our friends,
for all those we love
and for those we find it hard to love.
May young and old respect one another,
and the generations honour one another.
May nothing divide us or come between us,
but let your love bind us in affection.
Bless us with your peace,
that together we may praise you forever.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Glory to God

All Glory to God

Glory in the highest

All Glory in the highest

Today and always

All Today and always
Amen.

Hymn or song

Sending out and blessing

Jesus said,
'Go home to your friends,
and tell them how much the Lord has done for you,
and what mercy he has shown you.'

Mark 5:19

The blessing of God be upon you,
the One who loves you,
the Christ who calls you,
the Spirit who makes you holy,
today and always.

All Amen.

The stone which the builders rejected
has become the main corner-stone.
All This is the work of the Lord;
it is wonderful in our eyes. Psalm 118:22-3

Prayer, Confession, and Assurance of Pardon

Eternal God, creator of all things, giver of life,
we praise and worship you.
We thank you that you have always loved the world you have made;
and that, however far we stray from you,
your love is always there to welcome us home.

We do not deserve your love,
but we dare to believe the good news of your mercy
declared by our Lord Jesus Christ, whose offering of his life for us and for all people
we set forth in this bread and wine.

Be present at this your table
as with penitent and forgiving hearts
we break bread and drink wine in your name.
Fill us with your Holy Spirit,
that our worship may truly express our love
for you and for one another.
Make us glad and give us joy and peace.

Let us confess our sins:

All God our Father,
we have sinned against you
and against one another,
in thought, word and deed;
we have not loved you with all our heart;
we have not loved our neighbour as ourselves.
But you have kept faith with us.
Have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and restore us to newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.
To all who turn to him he says:
'Your sins are forgiven.' He also says: 'Follow me.'

The Approach to Communion

As we gather at this table, we remember that Jesus was born of Mary;
he lived our common life on earth;
he suffered and died for us;
on the third day God raised him from the dead;
and he is always present with us through the Holy Spirit.
In his presence,
and in the company of all the people of God,
past, present, and to come,
we celebrate the Supper of the Lord.

'Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking;
if you hear my voice and open the door,
I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me.' Revelation 3:20

or

How shall I repay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
I will take the cup of salvation,
and call upon the name of the Lord.
I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and call upon the name of the Lord. Psalm 116:11-12; 16

or

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst to see right prevail for they shall be satisfied. Matthew 5:6

Narrative of the institution

Hear again the words of institution of this feast as they are given by the Apostle Paul:

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed
took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks,
he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 11:23-6

Thanksgiving and Sharing

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give thanks to you, O God,
that from the earth you cause the grain to come
for the making of bread.

We praise you for Christ, the bread of life,
whose body was given for us.

By your Holy Spirit sanctify us and this loaf,
that the bread which we break may be to us
the communion of the body of Christ,
and that we may be made one in him.

As of old you fed your people in the wilderness,
so feed us now that we may live to your praise;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Minister breaks the bread saying:

When Jesus had given thanks,
he broke the bread and said:
'Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'

The distribution takes place

We give thanks to you, O God,
that you cause the vine to yield fruit.

We bless you for Christ, the true vine,
whose blood was poured out for us.

By your Holy Spirit sanctify us and this wine,
that the cup which we bless may be to us
the communion of the blood of Christ,
and that through abiding in him
we may bear fruit that shall last.

As we share the sufferings of Christ, so give us grace
that we may know the power of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Minister pours the wine and distributes it saying:

When Jesus had given thanks,
he gave the cup to his disciples and said:
'Drink this, all of you;
for this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it
in remembrance of me.'

Prayer after Communion

Strengthen for service, Lord,
the hands that have taken holy things.
May the ears that have heard your word
be deaf to clamour and dispute.
May the eyes that have seen your great love shine with the light of hope.
May the tongues that have sung your praise
also speak the truth.
May the feet that have walked in your house
ever walk in the light.
May the bodies that have tasted your living body
be restored to newness of life.
Thanks be to God for his gift beyond words.

All Amen.

or

All Now, Lord let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.
My own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared
in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations,
and the glory of your people Israel.

Luke 2:29-32

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever.
Amen.

Scripture sentences

This is the day which the Lord has made;
All let us rejoice and be glad in it.
It is good to give thanks to the Lord;
All for God's love endures for ever.

Other sentences may be used or seasonal sentences added.

Prayer of Approach

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy Name;
through Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

or

Almighty God, infinite and eternal
in wisdom, power and love:
we praise you for all that you are,
and for all that you do for the world.
You have shown us your truth and your love
in our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Help us by your Spirit
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Hymn or Psalm

An appropriate hymn or psalm can be used.

Confession of sin

Let us confess our sins to God and ask for forgiveness.

All Lord God most merciful,
we confess that we have sinned,
through our own fault,
and in common with others,
in thought, word and deed,
and through what we have left undone.

We ask to be forgiven.

By the power of your Spirit
turn us from evil to good,
help us to forgive others,
and keep us in your ways
of righteousness and love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

In repentance and in faith
receive the promise of grace
and the assurance of pardon.

Here are words you may trust,
words that merit full acceptance:

‘Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.’

1 Timothy 1:15

Your sins are forgiven for his sake.

All Thanks be to God.

or

God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him
may not perish
but may have eternal life.

John 3:16

To all who repent and believe,
we declare, in the name of the Father,
the Son and the Holy Spirit:
God grants you the forgiveness of your sins.

All Thanks be to God.

The Kyries

Lord, have mercy on us.
All Christ, have mercy on us.
Lord, have mercy on us.

Gloria in excelsis

All Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Prayer for grace

The collect of the day or prayer for grace may be said here or after the sermon.

The theme of the service may be introduced, particularly to any children present, and a hymn sung before they leave; or this may be done following one of the readings.

Old Testament reading

and/or a New Testament reading

Psalm, canticle, hymn or anthem

New Testament reading

or readings: Epistle and Gospel

Hymn

The sermon may be followed by silence and/or prayer.

Prayers for the Church and the world

After each paragraph a response may be said, such as

Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

The subjects after the words 'We pray for' are suggestions. Intervals of silence may be kept. The prayer may be made continuous by omitting the words 'We pray for' and the words in italics.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
whose Spirit helps us in our weakness
and guides us in our prayers;
we pray for the Church and for the world
in the name of Jesus Christ.

We pray for

the Church throughout the world
our Ministers, Elders and members
local unity and witness

Renew the faith and life of the Church;
strengthen its witness;
and make it one in Christ.
Grant that we
and all who confess that he is Lord
may be faithful in service
and filled with his spirit,
and that the world may be turned to Christ.

We pray for

the nations of the world
our own country
all who work for reconciliation

Guide the nations in the ways
of justice, liberty and peace;
and help them to seek the unity
and welfare of all peoples.

Give to our King and to all in authority wisdom to know and strength to do what is right.

We pray for

all who serve the community

Grant that men and women
in their various callings
may have grace to do their work well;
and may the resources of the earth be wisely used,
truth honoured and preserved,
and the quality of our life enriched.

We pray for

the sick and the suffering
victims of injustice
the lonely and the bereaved

Comfort those in sorrow;
heal the sick in body or in mind;
and deliver the oppressed.
Give us active sympathy for all who suffer;
and help us so to bear the burdens of others
that we may fulfil the law of Christ.

We pray for

our families
friends and neighbours
all who need our prayers

Keep us and the members of our families
united in loyalty and in love,
and always in your care;
and may our friends and neighbours,
and all for whom we pray,
receive the help they need, and live in peace.

We remember those who have died

Eternal God, accept our thanks and praise
for all who have served you faithfully here on earth,
and especially for those dear to our own hearts ...

May we and all your people,
past, present and to come,
share the life and joy of your kingdom,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The invitation and the gracious words

All those present may be invited to share in the Lord's Supper.

Hear the gracious words of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Come to me,
all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

I am the bread of life;
whoever comes to me will never be hungry,
and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:35

Anyone who comes to me
I will never drive away.

John 6:37

The Peace

The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ
be with you all.

All Peace be with you.

Offertory

The offerings of the people are collected. The bread and wine may be brought to the table or, if already present, are uncovered.

Let us pray.

All Eternal God,
we come with these gifts
to offer our sacrifice of praise
and the service of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Hymn

This hymn may be sung while the money, bread and wine are brought to the table, in which case the offertory prayer follows the hymn.

The narrative of the institution of the Lord's Supper

Hear the narrative of the institution of the Lord's Supper as it was recorded by the apostle Paul.

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

The taking of the bread and wine

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and following his example,
we take this bread and this cup,
and give thanks to God.

The Thanksgiving

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

With joy we give you thanks and praise,
Almighty God, Source of all life and love,
that we live in your world,
that you are always creating and sustaining it by your power,
and that you have so made us
that we can know and love you,
trust and serve you.

We give you thanks
that you loved the world so much that you gave your only Son,
so that everyone who has faith in him
may not die but have eternal life.

A seasonal or other special thanksgiving may follow here.

We thank you that Jesus was born among us that he lived our common life on earth;
that he suffered and died for us;
that he rose again;
and that he is always present
through the Holy Spirit.

We thank you that we can live in the faith
that your kingdom will come,
and that in life, in death and beyond death
you are with us.

Therefore with all the company of heaven,
and with all your people,
of all places and times,
we proclaim your greatness and sing your praise.

All Holy, holy, holy Lord
God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

All Hosanna in the highest.

Holy Lord God,
by what we do here
in remembrance of Christ
we celebrate his perfect sacrifice on the Cross
and his glorious resurrection and ascension;
we declare that he is Lord of all;
and we prepare for his coming in his kingdom.
We pray that through your Holy Spirit
this bread may be for us the body of Christ and this wine the blood of Christ.

Accept our sacrifice of praise;
and as we eat and drink at his command
unite us to Christ as one body in him,
and give us strength to serve you in the world.

And to you, one holy and eternal God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
we give praise and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The breaking of the bread

The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread and when he had given thanks,
he broke it and said,
'This is my body which is for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'
In the same way also the cup saying
'This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.'

If the narrative of the institution has been used earlier in the service, as the bread is broken the Minister may say:

The bread which we break
is the communion of the body of Christ.

And as the cup is raised the Minister may say:

The cup of blessing which we bless
is the communion of the blood of Christ.

The Sharing of the bread and wine

In giving the bread the Minister says:

Take, eat – this is the body of Christ
which is broken for you;
do this in remembrance of him.

or

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ,
given for you.

In giving the cup the Minister says:

This cup is the new covenant in the blood of Christ,
shed for you and for many
for the remission of sins: drink of it.

or

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, shed for you.

The acclamation

Let us praise the Lord.

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Blessing and honour
and glory and power
be to our God for ever and ever.
Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray.

Most gracious God,
we praise you for what you have given
and for what you have promised us here.
You have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
You have fed us with the bread of life,
and renewed us for your service.

Now we give ourselves to you;
and we ask that our daily living
may be part of the life of your kingdom,
and that our love may be your love
reaching out into the life of the world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Hymn or doxology

Dismissal and blessing

Go in peace to serve the Lord;
and the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit,
be with you always.

All Amen.

Seasonal Thanksgivings

Advent

We praise you
that through his coming
your promises given by the prophets were fulfilled,
and that the day of our deliverance has dawned;
and, as we look for the triumph of his kingdom,
we exult with holy joy.

Christmas

We praise you that he took our nature
and was born as the child of Mary,
that he might share our life,
reveal your love and reconcile us to yourself,
and give us power to become your sons and daughters.

Epiphany

We praise you that he is the light of the world through whom we are brought out of darkness into light,
and that by him your glory
has been revealed to the nations.

Lent

We praise you that because of his likeness to us
he was tested in every way yet without sin,
and that having endured and overcome temptation
he is able to help us in our times of trial,
and to give us strength to take up the cross and follow him.

Passiontide

We praise you that for us and for our salvation
he humbled himself
and in obedience accepted even death –
death on a cross;
and that he bore our sins
in his body on the tree
that we being dead to sin
should live to righteousness.

Easter

We praise you
that after he had suffered and been put to death on the cross
he was raised from the dead by your power;
that he is the true Lamb of God
who takes away the sin of the world;
and that by his glorious resurrection
he has restored us to eternal life
and given us the joy of your kingdom.

Ascension

We praise you
that having suffered and died for us
and being raised from the dead
he lives and reigns for ever in your glory,
and so fulfils his promise
to be with us always to the end of the age.

Pentecost

We praise you that according to the promise of Christ
the Holy Spirit came to fill the Church with power;
and that the Spirit comes to us today
that we being renewed and strengthened
may proclaim the Gospel to the world.

Baptism service

Where possible the sacrament of baptism should follow the reading of Scripture and the sermon or another form of proclamation of the Word.

Two forms of affirmation for the baptismal promises are included in number 3, and two others may be found in the Basis of Union, Schedule A. These are the only forms authorised for use by the General Assembly of the United Reformed Church.

The Lord is here.

All His Spirit is with us.

Jesus Christ came that we might have life

All and have it in all its fullness.

In John's Gospel we read that Jesus said to Nicodemus:

'No one can enter the kingdom of God
without being born of water and Spirit.'

John 3:5

God loves us even before we come to love God ourselves. Though we cannot understand such love, God invites us in baptism to accept it with the openness and trust of a child. In the waters of baptism, God sets us as a seal upon his heart, for his love in Christ is stronger than death. Christ's journey from death to resurrection is the pattern of our lives, in union with him. Jesus himself was baptised by John in the Jordan. His baptism found fulfilment in the cross, where he gave himself for the life of the world.

Paul writes: 'Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we have been buried with Christ by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.' Romans 6:3-4

Other texts may also be used.

But now thus says the Lord: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you: and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you. Isaiah 43:1b-2a

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the Lord', for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more. Jeremiah 31:33-34

I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses. A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes.

Ezekiel 36:25a, 26-27a

Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' Acts 2:38-39

Whether we are children or adults, baptism marks the beginning of our lives as Christians and as members of the Church. In baptism we are called to take up the Cross and follow Christ in the company of all God's people from all times and places. Because we cannot do this without help, we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, to enable us to live as God's people and to serve God's purposes in the world. We acknowledge one baptism, in obedience to Christ. After his rising from the dead, Jesus said to his disciples:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. Matthew 28:18-20a

The proclamation of faith

A large candle such as an Easter (Paschal) candle may be lit.

Let us proclaim the faith of the Church through the ages:

The Apostles' or Nicene Creed (Rejoice and Sing 759, 760) or Statement of Faith of the United Reformed Church (Basis of Union, para.17 or para.18) may be used, or a hymn of faith sung (e.g. Rejoice and Sing 36, 37, 73, 272, 283, 755).

The affirmations

The Lord says:

See, I am making all things new.

Revelation 21:5a

Paul says:

If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation.

2 Corinthians 5:17

By the candidate for believer's baptism
either:

Do you believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
maker of heaven and earth,
giver of life, redeemer of the world?

I do.

Do you repent of your sins, turn away from evil,
and turn to Christ?

By God's grace, I do.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord?

I do.

(The affirmations continue after the baptism at the point of reception into the full privileges and responsibilities of membership.)

or

a form including the following elements:

- a Trinitarian confession of faith
- repentance of sin
- a confession of faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Statement or testimony

A short statement or testimony may be given by the person to be baptised either here or later at confirmation.

To the parent(s) or those bringing the child to be baptised

... A ... and ... B ... , you have come for the baptism of ... N ...

in response to the call of Christ

and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Let us hear that you confess your faith in Christ.

Do you believe and trust in one God,

Father, Son and Holy Spirit,

maker of heaven and earth,

giver of life, redeemer of the world?

I/We do.

Where a child is old enough to make a response, a form such as the following may be used in addition:

... N ... , do you believe that Jesus loves you,

and calls you to follow him?

I do.

Prayer

The Minister may pour water into the font or baptistery.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation.

In your goodness you give us water

to sustain our life and renew the earth.

May it be for ... N ... the water of new birth.

All Blessed be God forever.

Gracious God, we thank you for your love in all creation,

especially for the gift of water,

to sustain, refresh and cleanse all life.

In the beginning you moved over the waters

and to a formless void brought light and life.

You led your people through the waters of the sea

from slavery to freedom in a land of promise.

Your Son was baptised by John
in the waters of the Jordan.
You sent your Spirit upon him.
He fulfilled his baptism upon the cross
and was raised from the dead
that we might have eternal life.
Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this water,
that ... N ... , being born anew of water and the Spirit,
may remain for ever in the number of your faithful children,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom with the Father and the Holy Spirit
be all honour and glory, now and forever.

All Amen.

The Baptism

In the case of believer's baptism an Elder and/or sponsors may stand with the candidate: in the case of infant baptism, with the baptismal party.
The candidate is immersed in water or has water poured over their head.

... N ... , I baptise you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Minister may make the sign of the Cross on the forehead of the newly-baptised person. Others (such as Elders, sponsors, family members) may also do so.

... N ... , I sign you with the Cross, the sign of Christ.

All Amen.

Declaration of Baptism

... N ... , child of God, God receives you by baptism into the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

All Amen.

The congregation may say or sing the Aaronic blessing:

All The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

Numbers 6:24-26 (Rejoice and Sing 420)

The promises

When the newly-baptised is able to answer for themselves, reception into the full privileges and responsibilities of church membership follows, in the form of confirmation.

We are now to receive ... N ... into the full privileges and responsibilities of church membership.

From the beginning,
in the worship and fellowship
of the Church.

... N ... , do you commit yourself to this life?

I do, with God's help.

Do you accept the gift and cost
of following Christ
in your daily life and work?

I do, with God's help.

With the whole Church, will you proclaim by word and action
the good news of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

or a form may be used including a promise to share in the worship, fellowship and mission of the Church.

Promise by the congregation

As a community of faith, representing the whole Church,
do you welcome ... N ... and promise to share with them
what you yourselves have received,
the gift of God's love revealed in Christ?

All We do with God's help.

When the newly-baptised is an infant, those bringing the child for baptism make these promises.

From early times
the Church has received
the children of believers by baptism
so that with help and support
they may grow up in Christ,
and by the grace of God
serve Christ all their days.

This child belongs to God in Christ.
Tell them of their baptism
that they may know they are baptised
and may come to make their own response of faith and love.

Do you promise to teach ... N ...
the love of God
and bring them up in the life and worship of the Church?

I do with God's help.

Promises by the sponsor(s) and/or Elder(s)

Do you promise to pray for ... N ... ,
and their home and family,
and to support them as you are able
as a minister of Christ's love?

I do, with God's help.

Promise by the congregation

As a community of faith, representing the whole Church,
do you welcome ... N ... and promise to share with them
what you yourselves have received,
the gift of God's love revealed in Christ?

All We do with God's help.

The confirmation or strengthening in faith

Come now to receive the laying-on of hands with prayer,
to strengthen you for the work of God.

The newly-baptised person kneels. The Minister and at least one Elder place their hands on the persons head, as the Minister prays:

God of all grace, confirm and strengthen ... N ...
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
that they may be your servant in the world
and see your glory in the world to come.

All Amen.

(The Minister may anoint the newly-confirmed with oil as a symbol of the anointing of God's Holy Spirit)

The newly-confirmed member stands.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
the only head of the Church,
and in accordance with the decision
of this local church meeting,
we welcome you into membership
of this congregation of the United Reformed Church.
May your sharing in our life together
bring blessing to you and to us all.

The Minister and Elder(s) may give the right hand of fellowship as a sign of welcome. A Bible or other appropriate book and a certificate of Baptism and/or Confirmation may be presented.

All In the name of Christ we welcome you.
May we grow together in unity,
and be built up into the body of Christ in love,
to the glory of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

A baptismal candle may be lit from an Easter (Paschal) candle and either placed on the table or given to the new member.

Shine as a light in the world.

All To the glory of God.
Amen.

Hymn (eg Rejoice and Sing 368, 417-419, 421-426, 428-433)

Prayers of Intercession

These should include prayer as appropriate for the newly-baptised (and confirmed), their family, and the Church.

If the service does not continue with the Lord's Supper the newly-baptised (and confirmed) and those accompanying them may lead the congregation out of the church after the final blessing.

Confirmation service

Reaffirmation of Baptism and admission to Church Membership

For those baptised at some time in the past who come to make their own confession of Christian faith and enter into the full privileges and responsibilities of membership of Christ's Church. The service follows after the reading of Scripture and the sermon or another form of proclamation of the Word.

Two forms of reaffirmation for baptismal promises are included in number 3, and two others may be found in The Basis of Union, Schedule A. These are the only forms authorised for use by the General Assembly of the United Reformed Church.

Introduction

By the sacrament of baptism we are all made one in the Body of Christ. We receive the gift of the Holy Spirit to enable us to live as the people of God and to serve God's purpose. In baptism God says "Yes" to us. Today, in response to the call of Christ and the leading of the Holy Spirit, ... N ... comes to affirm their baptism, to say "Yes" to God, to make their own profession of faith in Jesus Christ, and to be received into the full privileges and responsibilities of membership of Christ's Church. By confirmation they are promised the strengthening of the Holy Spirit so that they may be a faithful follower of Christ and member of his Church.

I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.

So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

Ephesians 2:19-22

The proclamation of faith

A large candle, such as an Easter (Paschal) candle, may be lit.

Let us proclaim the faith of the Church through the ages:

The Apostles' or Nicene Creed (Rejoice and Sing 759, 760) or Statement of Faith of the United Reformed Church (Basis of Union, para.17 or para.18) may be used, or a hymn of faith sung (e.g. Rejoice and Sing 36, 37, 73, 272, 283, 755).

The affirmations

The Elder responsible for the candidates pastoral care or another sponsor may present the candidate to the congregation with appropriate introduction.

Either:

... N ... , you have come in response to the call of Christ and the leading of the Holy Spirit to confess your faith in Christ.

Do you believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
maker of heaven and earth,
giver of life, redeemer of the world?

I do.

Do you repent of your sins, turn away from evil,
and turn to Christ?

By God's grace, I do.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord?

I do.

or

a form including the following elements:

- a Trinitarian confession of faith
- repentance of sin
- confession of faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Statement or testimony

A short statement or testimony may be given by the person to be confirmed.

The promises

... N ... has made confession of their faith.
Now they are to make their promises
as they are received into the full privileges
and responsibilities of Church membership.

From the beginning,
in the worship and fellowship
of the Church.

... N ... , do you commit yourself to this life?

I do, with God's help.

Do you accept the gift and cost
of following Christ
in your daily life and work?

I do, with God's help.

With the whole Church,
will you proclaim by word and action
the good news of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Or a form may be used including a promise to share in the worship, fellowship and mission of the Church.

Promise by the congregation

As a community of faith, representing the whole Church,
do you welcome ... N ... and promise to share with them
what you yourselves have received,
the gift of God's love revealed in Christ?

All We do, with God's help.

The confirmation, or strengthening in faith

The Minister may touch the ears and mouth of the person to be confirmed:

... N ... , may the Lord open your eyes to see his glory,
your ears to receive his word
and your mouth to proclaim his praise.

Come now to receive the laying on of hands with prayer
to strengthen you for the work of God.

The candidate may kneel or stand for a moment of silent prayer. The Minister and at least one Elder place their hands on the candidates head as the Minister prays:

God of all grace confirm and strengthen ... N ...
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
that they may be your servant in the world
and see your glory in the world to come.

All Amen.

The Minister may anoint the newly-confirmed member with oil as a symbol of the anointing of God's Holy Spirit.

All sing or say the Aaronic blessing (Rejoice and Sing 420)

The newly-confirmed member stands.

Welcome

... N ... , by baptism you have been received into membership of the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
You have now affirmed your baptism
and confessed your faith in Jesus Christ
as your Saviour and Lord.
You have accepted the privileges
and responsibilities of membership of the Church.
In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
the only head of the Church,
and in accordance with the decision
of this local church meeting,

we welcome you into membership
of this congregation of the United Reformed Church.
May your sharing in our life together
bring blessing to you and to us all.

One of the following texts, or another appropriate to the newly-confirmed member, may be used.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

For once you were darkness, but now in Lord you are light. Live as children of light – for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, ‘Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.’ Ephesians 5:8, 14

May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this. 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24

The Minister and Elder(s) may give the right hand of fellowship as a sign of welcome. A Bible, or other appropriate book, and a Confirmation certificate may be presented.

All In the name of Christ we welcome you.
May we grow together in unity,
and be built up into the body of Christ in love,
to the glory of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

The service continues with the Lord’s Supper. The new member(s) may bring forward the bread and wine.

After the dismissal and blessing the Minister (and Elders) may lead the new member(s) through the church and members of the congregation may be encouraged to greet them.

Reception of members

For use when members are being received into membership of a local congregation by transfer from another congregation or by reaffirmation of faith.

This follows the reading of Scripture and the sermon or another form of proclamation of the Word.

1.	Introduction	64
2.	The affirmation	64
3.	The welcome	65

Introduction

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the only head of the Church,
and in accordance with the decision
of this local church meeting,
we now receive ... N ...
by transfer from ... X ... Church/ by reaffirmation of faith into membership of this congregation
of the United Reformed Church.

(Other words, appropriate to the circumstances, may be used)

The affirmation

By baptism ... N ... has been received into membership of the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. They have affirmed their baptism, confessed their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Lord, and has accepted the privileges and responsibilities of membership of the Church of Christ.

If appropriate, reference may be made to previous membership.

(We rejoice in the pilgrimage that has brought them to this time and place.
We give thanks to God for every community of faith that has nurtured their faith along the way, and for their desire to join with us in Christian faith and discipleship.)

As they come to unite with us in this congregation (or to renew their membership of the church)
we invite them to reaffirm their confession of faith, and to promise to live as a faithful member of this fellowship.

... N ... , do you confess anew your faith and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, maker of heaven and earth, giver of life,
redeemer of the world?

I do.

Do you promise to continue in the worship
and fellowship of the Church in this congregation,
accepting the gift and cost of following Christ,
and proclaiming by word and action
the good news of God in Christ?

I do, with God's help.

or

... N ... , do you confess anew your faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
and do you promise to share with us
in the life of this church,
and to be faithful in the privileges
and responsibilities of church membership?

I do, with God's help.

Promise by the congregation:

In welcoming ... N ... as a fellow member in the life of this church,
do you promise your friendship in the Lord,
and will you give them your support in prayer and service,
so that they, with us, may continue to grow
in the knowledge and love of God
and witness to Jesus Christ our risen Lord?

All We do, and with God's help, we will.

God of grace,
you call us to be your servant people,
and gather us into the body of Christ.
We thank you for sending us ... N ...
to work with us in serving your kingdom.
Confirm us all in the power of your covenant
to live in your Spirit,
to love each other
and to share the mind of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The welcome

The Minister and one or more of the Elders greet the new member(s) with the right hand of fellowship as a sign of welcome.

All In the name of Christ we welcome you.
May we grow together in unity,
and be built up into the body of Christ in love,
to the glory of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
now and forever.
Amen.

The service may continue with the Lord's Supper. The new member(s) may bring forward the bread and wine.

Thanksgiving for the birth of a child

The dedication of parents and the blessing of children

Where possible the act of thanksgiving should follow the reading of Scripture and the sermon or another form of proclamation of the Word. It is most appropriate when other children in the congregation are present. The act looks forward to baptism at a point in the future and is therefore not a substitute for baptism.

- 1. Introduction 67
- 2. The Word 67
- 3. Thanksgiving, dedication and blessing 68
- 4. Prayers 69

Introduction

All O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures for ever.

Psalm 106:1

We come together as part of the family of God.
We welcome especially ... A ... and ... B ... , who have come to give thanks to God
for the birth of their son/daughter ... N ... ,
to seek God's blessing upon them,
and to dedicate themselves [again]
to the responsibilities of parenthood.

We share in their thanksgiving.
We acknowledge the claim of this child
upon the prayers and support of this church
both now and in the years ahead.

We welcome them as Jesus welcomed little children;
and we affirm that it is the duty of parents
and the church together
to show the love of God in their lives,
so that in due time this child may come to confess their faith in Jesus Christ and be baptised.

The Word

One or both of the following readings are read.

We read in the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures):

Hear, O Israel: The Lord is our God, the Lord alone. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.

Deuteronomy 6:4-7

We read in the New Testament:

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Thanksgiving, dedication and blessing

All stand. The Minister asks the parents:

Do you thank God for the gift of ... N ... ?

We do.

Do you, as parents, dedicate yourselves to God?

We do.

Do you promise so to order your lives that ... N ... will be surrounded by love and goodness?

We do.

Where parents are not members the following question may be omitted:

Do you promise, by God's help,
to provide a Christian home for ... N ...
and to bring them up in the faith of the Gospel
and the fellowship of the Church?

We do.

If there are older children in the family the Minister may include a suitable promise for them to make.

May the Lord bless you and give you grace
faithfully to carry out these promises;
may God grant you joy and patience, love and peace.

To the congregation:

On behalf of the whole Church of Jesus Christ,
we undertake to provide for the instruction of ... N ...
in the gospel of God's love,
the example of Christian faith and character,
and the strong support of the family of God
in prayer and friendship.

Then the Minister, laying one hand upon the child's head, says:

... N ... , the blessing of God,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be with you, now and always.

All Amen.

or

... N ... , the Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you
and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

All Amen.

Numbers 6:24-26

If the Minister does not use the Aaronic blessing it may be sung by the congregation (Rejoice and Sing 420).

The Minister or Elder may present a Bible to the parents.

Prayers

God our creator, we thank you for the gift of ... N
We thank you for the love that prepared for their coming
and welcomed them into the world, and we rejoice with ... A ... and ... B ... in their hopes for the future.
Be with them in their home;
guide them in the upbringing of their child
and deepen their knowledge and love of Christ.

Give us grace so to live that they and their family
may find in the Christian fellowship
a source of strength and love.

God of love, we commend ... N ... to your care.
Give them health of body and mind;
and in due time draw them to come to you in baptism,
to make their own profession of faith in you,
and to commit their life to Christ as Saviour and Lord.
So may they serve you
and, at the last, share the joys of your eternal kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Service of the Word

When God's people gather for worship a service of the Word may be used. This outline draws on classic patterns of Reformed worship and is offered as one model. It is simple and adaptable, having a three-fold structure based around the reading and exposition of Scripture: preparing to hear God's Word; hearing God's Word and responding to God's Word. The resources which follow provide a variety of material for a service of the Word. They are drawn from a wide range of liturgical voices and are indicated by the numbers in brackets.

Preparing to hear God's Word

Call to worship (1)	71
Hymn/Song
Prayers of Approach, Adoration and Confession (2)	72
Assurance of Pardon (3).....	75

Hearing God's Word

Theme introduction
Prayer for grace, or collect for the day (4)	75
Reading from Scripture
Psalm or hymn or song
Reading(s) from Scripture
Hymn or song
Sermon or other Exposition of the Word

Responding to God's Word

Hymn or song
An affirmation of faith may be used (optional, eg Rejoice and Sing 759, 749, 752)
Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession (5)	76
Offering prayers (6).....	78

Blessings (7)	79

(1) Call to worship

Let us worship God.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

O God, your loving kindness is better than life itself;

All our lips shall give you praise.

So we will bless you as long as we live

All and lift up our hands in your name.

or

Jesus invites us to a way of celebration,
meeting and feasting with the humble and poor.

All Let us walk his way with joy.

Jesus beckons us to a way of risk,
letting go of our security.

All Let us walk his way with joy.

Jesus challenges us to listen to the voices of those who have nothing to lose.

All Let us walk his way with joy.

Jesus calls us to follow the way of the cross,
where despair is transformed by the promise of new life.

All Let us walk his way with joy.

or

We are God's people.

How good it is that we have all come
– women and men, young and old –
to worship God who creates us;
how good it is that we are gathered
to meet Jesus Christ – God's living word;
how good it is that we seek together
signs of the Holy Spirit,
whom we cannot catch or subdue.
Come, let us worship God.

(2) Prayers of Approach, Adoration and Confession

All-holy God,
you call us together to be your holy people,
and so we join to give you praise
 for the joy of our creation;
 for our redemption in Christ;
 for the empowerment of your Spirit.

Gracious God,
fill our hearts with your love
and our lives with your glory
as we come before you in worship and prayer
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Intimate God,
we praise you because you know each one of us;
the worries that nag us, the achievements we are proud of,
the hopes and expectations that we hold,
half-recognised, in our hearts.

We praise you for what we know of you;
the ways in which you have welcomed and met us,
your quiet, constant, presence in our lives.

And we praise you for what we do not yet know;
the mysteries of your creation,
the questions that baffle us,
the wonders of discovery awaiting us.

Unknown God,
may we be open to meet with you in unexpected ways;
discerning your presence in what is strange to us,
and seeing the familiar with newly-opened eyes.

All Amen.

or

Wise and Holy One
you are beyond our imagination
beyond our understanding
beyond our humanity;
and because you are beyond us
we turn to you for sanctuary
we come to you for protection.

Wise and Holy One

you are not completely beyond our imagination,
because Jesus Christ shows us what you are like;
you are not completely beyond our understanding
because Jesus Christ teaches us the way;
you are not completely beyond our humanity
because Jesus Christ is one of us.

And because you are beside us
we can walk alongside you as a companion
we can speak honestly with you as a friend
we can keep silence with you as a lover.

Wise and Holy One

not completely beyond us,
not only beside us but deep within our being.

Spirit of God

when we feel confused,
help us to make sense of life and offer it to others;
when we feel abandoned,
help us to know your love and share it with others;
when we feel at a loss,
help us to rediscover hope and offer it to others;
when we fail to love you,
help us to know your forgiveness and share it with others;
encourage us to leave what is past and travel on,
with you and all your people,
into your glorious future.

All Amen.

and/or

God of love and mercy,
we come before you
knowing that we are in need of forgiveness.

We have sinned against you
in our speaking and in our silence;
in our thinking and in our thoughtlessness;
in our actions and in our inaction.

We have sinned against you,
in not loving you with our whole heart
and soul and strength;
in not loving our sisters and brothers in Christ.
Grant us, O Lord, your forgiveness,
restore us in the image of your Son,
and lead us along the way to your kingdom,
to the glory of your name.

All Amen.

or

O God,
we have come together to turn to you
as your people have gathered before.
With Christians over the centuries and across the world,
with all your people of all places and times,
we have come.

We bring with us everything we are,
all our gifts and talents,
all that we do well and for good.
We bring our weakness
and our sorrow
and every way in which we fail.

We come in the hope and expectation that we shall find you here in this company of people,
as the scriptures are read and interpreted
and as the music and the words touch our spirits.

We pray that as we learn to follow Jesus, your Son,
we may be saved from all that harms us, that we may become the people you made us to be
and that we may find strength to do good in the world
so that your will may be done.

God the Creator, we praise you.
God in Christ, we turn to you.
God the Comforter, we call upon you.

Blessed be God, forever.

O God of justice,
we have heard your commandments
and they are a gift to us.
Yet we have failed always to live by them.
For this we are sorry and we turn to you for forgiveness.
We have not loved you wholeheartedly.
We have failed in love to our neighbours
and to our selves.
We have not loved our enemies
or blessed those who do us harm.
We live in an unjust world,
where many are hungry,
and there is little peace.

Lord have mercy upon us.

(3) Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news!
Who is to condemn?
It is Christ Jesus,
who died,
yes,
who was raised,
who is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.

Romans 8:34

So if anyone is in Christ,
there is a new creation:
everything old has passed away;

see, everything has become new!

2 Corinthians 5:17

All Amen.

Receive God's gift of forgiveness
and be at peace.

or

O God,
your heart is full of mercy.
May we hear and trust your words to each of us:
'Your sins are forgiven.'
May we forgive each other and forgive ourselves.

Thanks be to God.

All Amen.

(4) Prayer for grace

O Lord, heavenly Father,
in whom is the fullness of grace and wisdom,
enlighten our minds by your Holy Spirit,
and give us grace to receive your Word
with reverence and humility,
without which no-one can understand your truth.
For Christ's sake.

All Amen.

or

Eternal God,
who longs for us to know all good things
and to walk along a peaceful path,
open the eyes of our hearts
that we may see the way to life,
open our ears that we may hear the truth,
and open our lips that we may praise you,
this day and all our days,
in Jesus' name.

All Amen.

(5) Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

Loving God,
we give you thanks and praise
for all that you have done for us.

For your whole created universe
bursting with life and infinite possibilities,
a universe created and yet still being created.

For the beauty and fragility of our spinning planet,
the blue oceans, swarming with life,
and the green and verdant earth.

For our fellow human beings,
people of many colours, of many languages,
of many abilities, yet all your children.

We give you thanks
for the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ.
For the message which he brings,
for the life in us which he renews,
and the example he has given us to follow.

We give you thanks for the Holy Spirit,
sweeping through all of life with boundless energy,
at once as gentle as the breath of a child,
and yet as fierce as a raging storm,
lifting us up in your grace.

Hear us, Lord,
as in our own hearts and minds
we give you thanks for your presence in our lives ...

Silence

For all these things we give you our joyous praise,
through your Son, Jesus Christ
and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

or

God, Maker and Lover of all,
we know that your way is not always easy;
that peace is not given lightly,
that sometimes justice comes only through struggle.

We pray for the places in your world
where we long to see justice and dream of peace.

We remember especially the peoples of ...
where conflicts seem so long-standing and complex
that we cannot imagine resolution;
and we pray for wisdom and reconciliation ...

We remember communities divided by poverty and racism,
especially ...
where the gaps between privilege and powerlessness
seem to grow ever wider;
and we pray for justice and healing.

We remember your church,
sometimes fragmented and confused,
where in spite of division,
your people seek to live out the Gospel;
and we pray for joy and a new sense of the Spirit's power.

We remember our friends, neighbours and ourselves,
especially ...
in those areas of our lives where we struggle
to be true to what we have learned of you;
and we pray for faithfulness and courage.

God, Maker and Lover of us all who summons us in Jesus to the way of the cross,
and empowers us to live by your Spirit,
hear our prayer.

All Amen.

or

Liberating God,
we bring our prayers for those whose lives are limited,
by their own attitudes or beliefs,
by the pain of their circumstances,
by the actions of others,
seeking for all confidence to journey in freedom.

We pray for those worn down by illness,
or exhausted by caring for others,
longing to feel the freshness and energy
of a bright new day.

We pray for those confined by oppression,
their opportunities limited by prejudice,
longing to experience the possibility of travelling on an open road.

We pray for those limited by their own lack of self-worth,
held back by doubts and fears, and repeated rejection,
longing to walk with the confidence
of striding out freely along their own path.

We pray for those trapped in poverty,
their energies sapped by the struggle against greed and injustice,
longing to know the abundance
of an earth where resources are freely shared.

All Amen.

(6) Offering prayers

Eternal God
we come with these gifts
to offer our sacrifice of praise
and the service of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

Loving God, we bring these our gifts,
in thanksgiving for all that you have given us;
asking that we may be servants of others
and witnesses to your love.
In the name of Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

or

Generous God
we bring our gifts to you
with cheerfulness and joyful hearts.
Give us courage that with these gifts
we may also offer our minds, bodies and spirits, ready and willing to show the truth of the Gospel in our lives.

All Amen.

(7) Blessings

May the God of hope
fill you with all joy and peace in believing,
so that you may abound in hope
by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:13

All Amen.

or

The blessing of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
be with you, now and forever.

All Amen.

or

May the God whose longing is for justice
and whose passion is for the freedom of all strengthen us to work for all that makes for peace;
and the blessing of the living God,
Creator, Redeemer and Spirit
be with us all, now and always.

All Amen.

or

Let us go out into the world
as bringers of love
as makers of peace
as messengers of hope
knowing that the blessing of God, the source of life,
of Jesus Christ, the way to life,
and of the Holy Spirit, the sustainer of life,
is with us today, tomorrow and forever.

All Amen.

Daily worship

This is based around the Lord's Prayer and may be used by individuals or in a group setting. The use of movement and/or symbols may be appropriate.

Our Father in heaven

A candle is lit and the Bible is opened.

Let us wait upon the Lord, God of heaven and earth.
Let us worship God in spirit and in truth.

One of these Scripture sentences, or another appropriate to the season, is read.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3

As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, says the Lord. Isaiah 66:13a

'Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth.' Psalm 46:10

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Micah 6:8b

Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage;
wait for the Lord! Psalm 27:14

As a father has compassion for his children,
so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him. Psalm 103:13

Jesus said 'Remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age.' Matthew 28:20b

Silence

Hallowed be your name

O Lord open our lips:
and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

All

Give thanks to the Lord of lords:

All

for his steadfast love endures for ever.

A Psalm is read or sung.

All Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever.
Amen.

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven

The following prayer, or another for God's kingdom, is used:

God of all,
your kingdom is the coming of peace and justice,
the dawn of your tender mercy and compassion.
Your kingdom is seen in Jesus Christ,
your will for all is lived out in his teaching and healing,
his dying and rising to new life, for the world.
Your kingdom is in our midst,
your Spirit is at work, here and now,
so we pray:

Among all who suffer ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

Among our families and friends ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

In our community ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

In our nation ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

Among the nations of this world ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

In the life of your Church, across the world and in this place ...
Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

And in our living this day ...

Your kingdom come:

All Your will be done.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.

Give us today our daily bread

Listen for the word God speaks today:

All feed us, Lord, with your Word.

or

God of life, make us hungry for your justice:

All challenge us with your Word of Life.

or

Open your word to us, Lord:

All give us ears to hear and minds to receive.

or

Lord, break the bread of your word among us:

All and nourish us with your truth.

Readings from Scripture.

Hear the word of the Lord:

All Thanks be to God.

Silence

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us

Let us confess our sins to God and resolve to accept and share his forgiveness.

Silence

Lord God most merciful,

All we confess that we have sinned,
through our own fault,
and in common with others,
in thought, word and deed,
and through what we have left undone.

We ask to be forgiven.

All By the power of your Spirit
turn us from evil to good,
help us to forgive others,
and keep us in your ways
of righteousness and love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Assurance of pardon

In words of Scripture such as these.

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance,
that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners –
of whom I am the foremost.

1 Timothy 1:15

Our sins are forgiven for his sake.

All Thanks be to God.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil

One of the following prayers is used:

All Great God, you have chosen the weak things
of the world to confound the mighty;
shed forth continual day upon us
who watch for you
that our lips may praise you,
our life may bless you
and our meditations glorify you.
Amen.

or

All Encircle us, Lord, with your grace.
Encircle us, Lord, with your truth.
Encircle us, Lord, with your love,
 your joy,
 your peace.
Encircle us, Lord, this day
and for ever.
Amen.

or

All Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.
Amen.

or

All Help us, God of truth and mercy,
to act justly,
to love tenderly
and to walk humbly with you,
this and every day.
Amen.

or

All God of grace, clothe us with the armour of Christ,
and defend us from all evil.
Empower us by your Spirit,
that we may wear truth and integrity,
walk the way of peace,
hold fast to faith and salvation
and carry your word of life within us.
For we pray in the name of Christ,
who for the sake of us all,
hung naked on a cross.
Amen.

or

All God of grace,
pour your love into our hearts;
pour your Spirit into our being;
create within us new hearts and minds
and lead us in the way of Christ.
Amen.

or

All Strengthen us for your service, Lord.
Lead us in your way of peace.
Amen.

For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen

A New Testament Canticle or hymn is read or sung.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever.

Ephesians 3:20-21

All Amen.

The grace

All The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with us all evermore.
Amen.

The gathering of the people

The people gather and wait in silence.
The lights are dimmed.

Psalm verses and the lighting of candles

Where appropriate the words may be shared by a number of voices.

O Lord, God of my salvation,
when, at night, I cry out in your presence, let my prayer come before you;
incline your ear to my cry. Psalm 88:1-2

(after silence, a candle is lit)

It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night. Psalm 92:1-2

(after silence, a second candle is lit)

Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time on and for evermore. From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the Lord is to be praised. Psalm 113:2-3

(after silence, a third candle is lit)

Blessed be the name of the Lord.
All Come bless the Lord, all you servants of the Lord,
who stand by night in the house of the Lord!
Lift up your hands to the holy place,
and bless the Lord.
May the Lord, maker of heaven and earth,
bless you from Zion. Psalm 134

Hymn or song

Prayer for Christ's presence

As the darkness falls and the shadows grow ...
All Come, Lord Jesus.
When we are tired and weary and longing for rest ...
All Come, Lord Jesus.
While the business of the world goes on
and when there is no silence ...
All Come, Lord Jesus.
Whenever we meet together to curse the darkness
and to light a flame for justice ...
All Come, Lord Jesus.

While we cannot find your peace in the world
and long for your blessing ...

All Come, Lord Jesus.

As we join in the great circle of prayer with all your saints ...

All Come, Lord Jesus.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

A night Psalm

Psalm 139 or one of the other night psalms (4,33, 34, 91, 134, 136) may be sung or said.

Meeting with Christ at evening time

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God.'

John 3:1-2a

Silence

Let us, in the quietness of evening,
open our minds and hearts to receive the teaching of Christ,
so that we may learn to follow him
and find courage to go with him,
even on the way of the cross.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. Mark 1:32-33

Silence

May we, who have gathered here at sundown,
bring our pain and suffering to Christ,
and bring our prayers for others,
that all may find healing and freedom
in the presence of God.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you'. John 20:19

Silence

Let us, who come bearing many fears,
and marked by disappointment and failure,
find here the reconciling peace which Christ gives,
the hope of new beginnings,
and the promise of the coming dawn.

They urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognised him; and he vanished from their sight. Luke 24:29-31

Silence

All Lord Jesus Christ,
we have gathered for prayer as the day is nearly over.
Though we cannot see you before us,
enlighten the eyes of our hearts,
that we may recognise your presence
and know that you are with us,
and will stay beside us,
this night and for evermore.
Amen.

Gospel reading

Reflection on the Gospel

A short spoken reflection may follow or a guided meditation. A picture, icon or painting may illuminate the text. Someone may lead a discussion. A poem may be read or a piece of music played. Or silence may be kept.

Hymn or song

Prayers of Intercession

either

Let us pray for the Church, for the world
and for all who are suffering.

We pray for peace among the nations,
for the unity of the Church,
and for the healing of our hearts.

All I call upon you, O Lord, come quickly to me;
give ear to my voice when I call to you.

Psalm 141:1

We pray for justice in business and in government,
for true community in the Church,
and for goodness in all our deeds and words.

All Let my prayer be counted as incense before you,
and the lifting up of my hands
as an evening sacrifice.

Psalm 141:2

We pray for food and drink for the hungry,
for rescue for those in peril and danger,
for comfort for those sorrowing or deeply troubled.

All I call upon you O Lord, come quickly to me;
give ear to my voice when I call to you.

We pray for those who find the night long and bleak,
for those who cry out for the morning,
that they may know the presence of God in the dark hours.

All Let my prayer be counted as incense before you,
and the lifting up of my hands
as an evening sacrifice.

We pray for those new born this day,
for those celebrating or remembering a significant time,
and for those newly baptised and received into the Church.

All I call upon you O Lord, come quickly to me;
give ear to my voice when I call to you.

We pray for those who are close to death,
that they may find peace and rest,
and be received into God's eternal presence with all the saints.

All Let my prayer be counted as incense before you,
and the lifting up of my hands
as an evening sacrifice.

Silence

We pray these and all our prayers
in the name of Christ.

All I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope;
my soul waits for the Lord.
Amen.

Psalm 130:5-6a

or

The people may be invited to light a candle as a symbol of prayer and to say

Hymn or song

The song of Simeon

All Now, Lord, let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.
My own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations,
and the glory of your people Israel.

Blessing

The blessing of God be yours:
the God who makes the darkness light,
the Saviour who is light to the world,
the Spirit who brings us peace,
this night and always.

All Amen.

17.	Closing prayer and blessing	99

Before the service the leader explains that it will include prayer for the healing of people and situations as well as the laying-on of hands for any who wish it.

The laying-on of hands may be done in different ways. It is always helpful when two or more people, who may have helped to lead other parts of the service, share in this. Some congregations have teams of people who administer the laying-on of hands. Other churches invite people to participate in giving as well as receiving the laying-on of hands. People need to feel valued and at ease whether or not they are actively involved at this point. It is best if those who share the leadership of the laying-on of hands begin or finish by ministering to one another. Where anointing takes place, a little olive oil is normally placed on the forehead in the form of a cross, after the laying-on of hands.

Prayers of intercession can be a time of silence during which people may call out names. Alternatively, names may be collected first and grouped into different concerns, or gathered from pieces of paper on a board or prayer tree. Using only first names helps to show that God knows us all. Not specifying the illness or distress may help the prayer to focus on health. Prayers could be for healing in body, mind and spirit, for relationships and situations, for the bereaved and dying, and for the healing of the nations. It is good to include those in the medical services and all aspects of healing and reconciliation, as well as giving thanks for those who are recovering. It is helpful to involve more than one voice in leading these prayers.

Any sermon or reflection should be brief and lead on to the intercessions and laying-on of hands. This may offer the chance to clarify an aspect of the service that relates to the Bible passage, or a short piece of prose or poetry may be used to shed light on the reading. The address could even come before the reading on occasions.

At the end of the service people may wish to stay in quietness for a while.

Call to worship

Jesus said:

Come to me, all you that are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me;
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:28-29

or

Jesus said:

Ask, and it will be given to you;
search, and you will find;
knock, and the door will be opened for you.

For everyone who asks receives,
and everyone who searches finds,
and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luke 11:9-10

Opening responses

God beyond us,
forming us in your own likeness,
delighting in all that you create:

All we turn to you,
we are made by you,
our hearts are restless
till they find their rest in you.

God beside us,
companion on the road,
who has come to give us life in all its fulness:

All we listen for you,
we yearn for you,
we seek your healing touch.

God within us,
closer than our breathing,
present at the heart of all that is:

All we are waiting for you,
we are open to you,
as you waken us with promise of new life.

Silence

Hymn

Prayer of Confession

Living God,
always near to those who call on you:
make us confident in prayer, joyful in praise,
and responsive to your word,
that we may know your peace in our hearts
and your healing in our lives.

Loving God,
in silence we ask you to lift from us
all that weighs us down or spoils our relationship with others
or separates us from you.

Silent confession

Affirmation and Assurance of Pardon

You are merciful to me, O God,
in your faithful love.

All You cleanse me of my sin
and remove the guilt that clings.

You desire deep and inner truth:
you accept me as I am.

All You create in me a pure heart
and renew me from within.

You restore to me the joy of your salvation;
you support and strengthen me.

All You open my lips
that my mouth may proclaim your praise.

You accept the offering of a broken spirit.

All A broken and a contrite heart
you do not despise.

Jesus says: Your sins are forgiven.

Christ has set us free.

All Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer

Offering

An offering may be taken here or after the intercessions.

Generous God, we bring to you our gifts,
our prayers, ourselves.
Let our gifts be used well,
our prayers be sincere
and our lives reflect your generosity and love.
So may our offering be acceptable to you;
and may we be ready to receive your healing and your grace.

All Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Let us bring before God
those who are on our hearts and minds,
all for whom prayer has been requested
and any who have asked us to remember them.

Let us pray:

Loving God,
long ago people brought their friends to Jesus,
or approached him on behalf of others.
So now we bring to you
those who need your help.

Prayers for healing, caring, reconciliation and thanksgiving, which may conclude:

God of compassion and love,
we offer you all our suffering and pain.
Give us strength to bear our weakness,
healing even when there is no cure,
peace in the midst of turmoil
and love to fill the spaces in our lives.

Glory to God, from whom all love flows,
glory to Jesus, who showed his love through suffering,
and glory to the Holy Spirit,
who brings light to the darkest places.

All Amen.

Invitation

People who are able to come forward are invited to do so, during or after the next hymn, for the laying-on of hands. If anointing with oil is offered this may also be mentioned. Any who remain in their seats are invited to hold in prayer those receiving and administering the laying-on of hands. It is made clear that those ministering will come to any who are unable to move forward. The invitation ends with these or similar words:

This is God's word, the word of your creator:
'Do not be afraid – I will save you.
I have called you by name – you are mine.
When you pass through deep waters, I will be with you;
your troubles will not overwhelm you.'

So come with your fears and your hopes,
come with your sadness and your regrets,
come with your pain and your doubt,
come with whatever faith you have.
Whether the storm is around you or within,
the Saviour holds you;
you are not alone.

Hymn

The laying-on of hands

In preparation for the laying-on of hands, the following prayer may be said:

Compassionate God, encircle us as we reach out in love.
Wounded Christ, touch us in our weakness and our strength.
Life-giving Spirit, breathe through us, channels of your peace.

As hands are laid on each person in turn, the following prayer may be said:

Healing Spirit of God,
at work in Jesus,
present here and now,
fill your whole being,
free you of all harm,
and give you peace.

All Amen.

Anointing with oil

When some present request anointing each is told:

I anoint you with oil of gladness
in the name of Jesus Christ.

after anointing:

Rise up and take courage:
God is all around you,
banishing the darkness
and bathing you in light.

or

Turn your face to Christ:
his mark is upon you
as, through all your days,
he gently leads you home.

or

Lift up your head:
the Spirit is within you,
cleansing and renewing you,
bringing you new life.

When some present request anointing each is told:

I anoint you with oil of gladness
in the name of Jesus Christ.

and when this has been completed all are addressed together:

Lift up your head
and seek the face of Christ.
His spirit is within you,
cleansing and renewing;
his presence is around you,
bathing you in light;
his mark is upon you,
as, through all your days,
he gently leads you home.

Closing prayer and blessing

When all have returned to their places:

All May the Christ of all that has been
and all that is to come stay by our side through daylight and darkness,
heal us of the wounds of the past,
and welcome us into the future.

Go in peace,
protected by God,
befriended by Christ,
empowered by the Holy Spirit,
and held by the prayers of the people.
And the blessing of the sacred Trinity of love go with you now and always.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

First Form

All Our Father in heaven
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Second Form

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

or

All And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever.
Amen.

Welcome and introduction

Welcome to ... church,
for the celebration of the marriage between ... AB ... and ... CD

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us worship God.

This is the day that the Lord has made;

All let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 118:24

or

Love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave ...
Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.

Song of Songs 8:6b-7a

or

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God,
and God abides in them.

1 John 4:16b

or

I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

John 13:34

Hymn or song

Statement of purpose

We have come together in the presence of God to witness the wedding of ... AB ... and ... CD ... , to rejoice with them

and to surround them with our prayers.

We are created male and female in the image of God
and marriage is a gift of God within creation.

God has given us marriage so that husband and wife
may live faithfully together.

In plenty or in need, in sorrow or in joy,

they give each other strength, friendship and healing.

With delight and tenderness they may know each other in love,
and so belong to one another in honour and in joy.

*(In marriage, children may be born and nurtured
that they may grow up in the security of love and come to know the freedom of faith.)*

In marriage, husband and wife begin a new life together.
They are a sign to the world of unity and loyalty;
their love enriches society and strengthens community.
Marriage is a way of life made holy by God.
It is both joy and demand, grace and work.
It is a gift and calling of God
and is not to be entered into lightly or thoughtlessly,
but reverently and responsibly.
This is the way of life that ... A ... and ... C ... have chosen.
They come to accept each other freely,
to give their consent to one another in solemn promises,
and to ask for God's blessing.

Prayer

Eternal God,
you are with us this day
in the fullness of your love.
In the love of one for another
we see your will for all creation.
In the tenderness of love's embrace
we remember your love once made flesh for us.
In the marriage of minds
we know your Spirit between us and among us.
Your love fills our hearts
and draws us to one another with holy desire.
Your love in us offers forgiveness
and sets us free to be together in peace.
Your love creates community
and heals our deepest loneliness.
This love you renew continually
in ... A ... and ... C ...
and in all your people.
Make them today a sign to us
of your love in all creation,
of your enduring affection and faithfulness,
and of your joy in all that you have made.
May we see this day, before our eyes,
the joy of love and the hope of faith.
Bless our celebration with your presence and touch us with your Spirit,
in Christ's name we pray,

All Amen.

Readings from Scripture

Some suggested readings:

Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures):

Genesis 1:26-28, 31a, Psalm 23, Song of Songs 7:10-13

New Testament:

Matthew 5:1-9, Mark 10:6-9, John 2:1-1, 1 Corinthians 13:1-8a, 13, Ephesians 3:14-21, 1 John 4:7-19

Sermon

The readings and the sermon may come later in the service,
after the marriage ceremony.

Declarations

The Minister says to the couple:

Before God and before this congregation,
I will ask you to declare your freedom and readiness to enter into the covenant of marriage.

I will also ask your families and this congregation to affirm their willingness to support you today and in the years to come.

Legal declarations:

Due notice of the intention of ... AB ... and ... CD ... to be married has been given and no objection has been made.

or

I ask the congregation:
if you know of any reason in law
why ... AB ... and ... CD ... may not be joined in marriage, please declare it now.

To the couple:

I ask you, ... A ... and ... C ... , to declare that you know of no reason in law that you may not be married.

As required by law each one declares in the presence of the Authorised Person, or the Registrar, and two witnesses:

*I declare that I know of no legal reason
why I, ... AB ... ,
may not be joined in marriage to ... CD **

*I declare that I know of no legal reason
why I, ... CD ... ,
may not be joined in marriage to ... AB **

or

*I do solemnly declare that I know not
of any lawful impediment
why I, ... AB ... ,
may not be joined in matrimony
to ... CD **

*I do solemnly declare
that I know not
of any lawful impediment
why I, ... CD ... ,
may not be joined in matrimony
to ... AB **

or

Are you, ... AB ... , free lawfully to marry ... CD ... ?
*I am. **

Are you, ... CD ... , free lawfully to marry ... AB ... ?
*I am. **

Prayer for Assurance and Sincerity

O God of all faithfulness,
we pray for those who will make promises today:
bless them with sincerity and give them your grace.
May ... A ... and ... C ... know that their love is both your will and your delight.
May the promises they make govern the life they will lead.
May your presence surround them,
your faithfulness encourage them,
your Spirit strengthen and guide them.

All Amen.

The promises

The man is asked:

... AB ... will you take ... CD ...
to be your wife in Christian marriage?
Will you love, comfort, honour and protect her,
in times of prosperity and health
and in times of trouble and suffering?
And will you be faithful to her as long as you both shall live?

I will.

The woman is asked:

... CD ... will you take ... AB ...
to be your husband in Christian marriage?
Will you love, comfort, honour and protect him,
in times of prosperity and health
and in times of trouble and suffering?
And will you be faithful to him as long as you both shall live?

I will.

If either, or both, has children:

Will you promise to be faithful, loving and caring parents to ... N ... (and ... N ...)?

We will.

The immediate family is asked:

Will you, the families of ... A ... and ... C ... ,
give your blessing to their marriage
and will you always support and encourage them?

We will.

The congregation is asked:

Will you, the friends of ... A ... and ... C ... , support and encourage them in their marriage?

All We will.

The vows

The couple turn to face each other and join right hands. In the presence of the Authorised Person, or the Registrar, and two witnesses they exchange vows in this form or one of the alternative forms (pp 150-152).

I, ... AB ... , take you (thee), ... CD ... ,
to be my wedded wife:*
in accordance with God's holy will,
to have and to hold
from this day forward,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish
till death us do part.
This is my solemn vow.

I, ... CD ... , take you (thee), ... AB ... ,
to be my wedded husband:*
in accordance with God's holy will,
to have and to hold
from this day forward,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish
till death us do part.
This is my solemn vow.

The giving and receiving of rings

The rings are given to the Minister who prays:

Eternal God,
whose love encircles us all,
bless the giving and receiving of these rings.
May they be signs of a love which never ends,
beautiful, holy and strong.
May they be tokens of commitment and faithfulness
and reminders of the promises and vows made today.
In the name of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Creator, Christ and Spirit.)

All Amen.

Each says in turn:

I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage.
With my body I honour you,
all that I am I give to you,
all that I have I share with you,
within the holy love of God.

or

I give you this ring in God's name
as a sign of all that we have promised
and all that we shall share.

If only one ring is used, the Minister prays:

Eternal God,
whose love encircles us all,
bless the giving and receiving of this ring.
May it be a sign of a love which never ends,
beautiful, holy and strong.
May it be a token of commitment and faithfulness
and a reminder of the promises and vows made today.
In the name of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Creator, Christ and Spirit.)

All

Amen.

The man says:

I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage.
With my body I honour you,
all that I am I give to you,
all that I have I share with you,
within the holy love of God.

or

I give you this ring in God's name
as a sign of all that we have promised
and all that we shall share.

the woman replies:

I receive this ring as a sign of our marriage.
With my body I honour you,
all that I am I give to you,
all that I have I share with you,
within the holy love of God.

or

I receive this ring in God's name
as a sign of all that we have promised
and all that we shall share.

The couple may exchange other appropriate symbols and gifts.

The Marriage blessing

Most gracious God, source of all true love,
we give you thanks that ... A ... and ... C ...
have answered your call
and have given themselves today to one another in the covenant of marriage.
Pour out the fullness of your blessing on them.
Lead them into that love
which never comes to an end.
Give them grace to forgive when words or actions hurt.
Give them strength to persevere through times of testing
and to support each other through darkness and distress.
May they be thankful
for all that has brought them to this moment.
May they joyfully embrace this new beginning,
and journey on with ever new delight.
Bless their families and friends,
that they may be a constant source of strength.
Bless their home,
that it may be a place of welcome.
*(Bless them in the gift of children,
that they may be wise and loving parents).*

Bless all who celebrate with ... A ... and ... C ... , that love may flourish
and friendship touch the lonely.
And grant that we, who today have witnessed
the sharing and exchange of words and signs of love,
may find our faith renewed and our hope restored.
May love, the greatest of all your gifts,
stronger than death, gentle as a touch,
bring us through every passing moment
closer to Jesus Christ, our lover and our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

All Amen.

Numbers 6:24-26

The declaration of Marriage

... A ... and ... C ... have declared before God and before you that they will live together in Christian marriage. They have made promises to one another, have exchanged solemn vows and have symbolised their marriage today by joining hands and by the giving and receiving of rings. (a ring) I therefore declare them to be husband and wife, in the name of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Creator, Christ and Spirit.) Those whom God has joined together, let no one separate.

Greeting

The couple may kiss. The congregation may applaud.
The sign of Peace may be shared.

Hymn or song

Prayers of Intercession

O God of love,
we pray for all those who have made a commitment to love another;
for all those newly married today,
for those in the first days of love,
and for those who have celebrated many anniversaries.
Be with us all in the joy and vulnerability of loving.
Strengthen us in commitment and loyalty,
guide us when love is difficult or costly,
and comfort us whenever love ends.

We pray for the Church,
the church communities we know,
and the one Church throughout the world.
May your people be united in love,
embody your peace and grow in faith.
May our worship be joyful and sincere
and our communities welcoming and warm.
Let faith be expressed with integrity
and service to the world offered with love.

We pray for the world,
that the peace of God will reign among the nations
and between all peoples.
May there be an end to conflict and aggression,
a growth in understanding between faiths and traditions,
and among all people a desire for justice.
May the hungry be fed, the enslaved set free,
and the weak find their strength.
May the earth be honoured
and all creatures treated with respect.

We pray for all in need, in sorrow or pain,
for those who are sick,
for those who are sad to be alone,
and for all afraid for the future
or grieving for the past which is gone.
May all in agony find comfort,
all who cry aloud be heard,
all in silent sorrow find the solace of friends.

On this day so full of joy and promise,
we bring the sorrows and struggles which are always with us,
in the confidence that you will hear us
and that your love will bless us with new hope.
We pray in the name of Christ,
and in the power of the Holy Spirit,

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The service may continue with the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Hymn or song

The signing of the register(s)

The register(s) or the marriage schedule is/are signed in the presence of witnesses.

Blessing

May God who is light shine in your darkness.
May God who is love be the love between you.
May God who is life be your life everlasting.
And the blessing of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, (Creator, Christ and Spirit)
be with you all, now and for ever,

All Amen.

or

May the God who made us for one another,
who loves us with a faithful love
and whose spirit makes us passionate and strong,
bless you and embrace you, now and for ever,

All Amen.

Blessing of a marriage

This service may be used after a civil marriage. It may take place in a church building or another place – on the same day as the civil marriage or on a subsequent occasion. It is desirable that Elders and members of the local church are present, along with the person conducting the service (normally a minister), to make evident and real the presence of the Church.

A service of blessing does not supersede or invalidate any marriage previously solemnised and no record should be entered in a marriage register.

Welcome

The Minister welcomes the people and continues:

Bless God,
and acknowledge him in the presence of all the living
for the good things he has done for you.
Bless and sing praise to his name.
With fitting honour declare to all people
the deeds of God.

Hymn or song

Prayer

God of love,
on this day of joy
we come to praise you.
When two people find love together
you are with them
and in their faces we see your delight.
When love is expressed in promises
we see a faithfulness like yours.
When the future beckons with hope
we are restored and renewed.
Bless our celebration today
with your presence and promise,
that all of us may be touched by grace
and strengthened with joy,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Statement

... A ... and ... B ... have been married in law.
They have made solemn vows
and have contracted to live together
as husband and wife
until death parts them.
Now they come before God,
in the presence of the Church,
to ask for a blessing for their marriage.
We rejoice in the love they share
and gladly pray for the blessing of God upon them.
In marriage,
a man and woman love each other.

They promise to be faithful,
in good times and in bad,
and to honour one another for all their days.
*(In marriage,
children may be born and grow up,
in the security of a loving home.)*
In marriage,
a new community is made
and all may celebrate a sign of unity and faithfulness.
Marriage is a gift and a calling,
and God's blessing strengthens us
to live according to the promises we have made.

Sermon

Hymn or song

Prayer

Eternal God,
whose love is always faithful
and whose promises never fail,
we pray for ... A ... and ... B ...
as they ask for your blessing on their marriage.
Strengthen them by your Spirit,
that they may remember the vows they have made,
grow in love and honour for one another and live according to your holy will.
Fill them with joy,
guide them in future days
and surround them with your love,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The promises

The husband says to his wife:

... B ... , you are my wife.
I promise to be faithful to you,
to love and honour you,
to comfort and protect you,
as long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn promise.

The wife says to her husband:

... A ... , you are my husband.
I promise to be faithful to you,
to love and honour you,
to comfort and protect you,
as long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn promise.

If either, or both, has children the Minister may say to the couple:

Do you promise to include ... N ... (and ... N ...)
within the circle of your love?

We do.

Do you promise to care for the children you now have,
and to welcome those who may be given to you?

We do.

The rings

Eternal God,
whose love, like a circle, never ends,
we pray that these rings
may be signs of unending faithfulness.
Give ... A ... and ... B ... a love that lasts,
joy in one another,
and years of peace together.
And may your presence,
the perfect Trinity of love,
be always with them.

All Amen.

If there is only one ring, the Minister prays:

Eternal God,
whose love, like a circle, never ends,
we pray that this ring
may be a sign of unending faithfulness.
Give ... A ... and ... B ... a love that lasts,
joy in one another,
and years of peace together.
And may your presence,
the perfect Trinity of love,
be always with them.

All Amen.

The prayer of blessing

God our Creator,
you make us in your image,
and bless us with the gift of love.
In the longing of our bodies,
the passion of love's touch
and the strong bonds of affection,
your love and blessing are already known.
We pray for your blessing to be upon
... A ... and ... B ... , married in your sight.
Lord Jesus Christ,
who once blessed a wedding
by turning water into wine,
we pray that ... A ... and ... B ...
may taste the good wine
of a happy and joyful marriage.
Holy Spirit,
bless them with your gifts
of love and joy,
of peace, patience and kindness,
that they may be good for one another
through the years to come,
and have strength to go on through times of sorrow and struggle.
May your love, bound with theirs,
keep them faithful to one another,
and close to you all the days of their life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

All Amen.

Numbers 6:24-26

Declaration

... A ... and ... B ... you are husband and wife.
You have declared your commitment to one another
before your friends and before God.
In the presence of the Church,
in the strength of God's grace, you have made solemn vows.
Let no-one separate you. Be together always.

Greeting

The couple may kiss. The people may applaud.
The sign of Peace may be shared.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

Loving God,
we thank you for every blessing we have known.
Thank you for the simple, everyday pleasures of life
and for the great, amazing days when life is made as new.
Thank you for the moments when we know that we are blessed and that life is good.
Thank you for this day,
for what it means to ... A ... and ... B ... and to all of us,
and for everyone for whom today brings joy.

You promise blessing for those who are suffering
and on the darkest days in all our lives you are there.
We pray that the poor will be blessed with justice,
that those who are sad will find comfort and strength,
and that all who work and pray for peace will receive their reward.
We pray that broken hearts will be mended,
that bitter disputes will be resolved
and aggression be smoothed by gentleness.
Where your creation is cursed by suffering and struggle,
come with blessing upon us all.

We thank you that we have seen this day,
and witnessed such joy together.
May we carry your blessing with us
to our homes, our friends, our families.
May the places where we live, and the places where we work,
the people we love, and the people we serve,
be blessed by your presence and by holy joy.
May your name be blessed,
among us and through all the world,
this day and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Hymn or song

Blessing

God our Maker gives joy to bride and groom!
Christ our Saviour gives life to the world!
The Holy Spirit brings us together in love!
The blessing of God,
the Trinity of love,
be with you today and always.

All Amen.

Funeral services

Worship offered with the dying and after a death needs to be prepared and conducted with dignity, grace and sensitivity. The mourners want to do what is right to give honour to the one who has died. The Church seeks to minister to those who grieve, to proclaim that God's presence is with us in every sorrow, and that Christ is victorious over death itself.

In recent times there have been significant changes in the ways in which funerals are conducted, giving rise to a wide variety of practice. Whereas a service in church followed by a committal used to be quite normal, now these may take place the other way round. Some mourners want a simple service at the crematorium and a further act of worship as the ashes are scattered or buried. The receiving of the body into church on the night before the funeral, and prayers around the coffin, are other possibilities to consider. Those who grieve are increasingly taking a more active part in planning the worship and in contributing to it. Practices and customs vary across different regions. Sometimes innovation is sought, and sometimes simply the comfort of tradition.

For all these reasons, a variety of resources have been provided here, all of which are available online. The first service has brought together familiar material in a new and more readily usable way. It has taken much of the best of the 1980 and 1989 books and recast them in a service which is both simple and easy to use. This service is one of powerful witness to the Resurrection. The second service has been newly written for this publication. It draws from pastoral theology a strong awareness of the experience of grief and the changes which any death brings. It does not assume what people feel, but provides a space for the expression of what they genuinely experience. People in the congregation are encouraged to be active and to participate in the service, which draws deeply from the traditions of our faith while setting them in a modern context. The third service is simpler in format and language, and reflects the down-to-earth immediacy which is an important part of our tradition.

All the services (and the further material online) may be used creatively and freely, as a source of material and ideas rather than prescriptive texts. Every funeral service, like every human life, is unique and brings its own special circumstances. There is always more to do than read from 'the book'.

A selection of readings appropriate for funeral services is provided in full at the end of the funeral section.

4.	Commendation at the time of death	125
5.	Nunc Dimittis	126
6.	Prayers with the family.....	126

When death is near the Minister may be asked to be with the one who is dying and their family, loved ones and carers.

Scripture sentence

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:1

Prayer of Assurance

Gracious God,
look upon ... N ... , (your child through baptism,)
may they know your love now and always;
the love from which nothing
in life or death can ever separate us.
And may they be comforted
with the promise of eternal life,
given in the resurrection of your Son, our Saviour.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Commendation at the time of death

Depart, O Christian soul, out of this world:
in the name of God the Father almighty, who created you;
in the name of Jesus Christ, who redeemed you;
in the name of the Holy Spirit, who sanctifies you;
may you rest in the peace of God's eternal kingdom.

Into your hands, O merciful Saviour,
we commend your servant ... N Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you,
a sheep of your own fold,
a lamb of your own flock,
a sinner of your redeeming.
Receive them into the arms of your mercy,
into the blessed rest of everlasting peace,
and into the glorious company of the saints in light.

All Amen.

O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life,
until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes,
the busy world is hushed
the fever of life is over and our work is done:
then, Lord, in your mercy, grant us safe lodging,
a holy rest and peace at the last:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Nunc Dimittis

Now Lord you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.
My own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations,
and the glory of your people Israel.

Prayers with the family

Loving God, we turn to you now in our need.
The moment of death has come.
May we find the strength and faith
to release ... N ... to you, confident that they may know the joy
of your eternal keeping.
You have shared these last days and hours
as you share all our days.
Stay close to us in the days to come.
Be our good shepherd,
light for our darkness, hope for our sorrow.
Hold us now and always
in the comfort and peace of your love.
This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

All Amen.

or

Holy and gracious God,
we thank you that death is past and you welcome home your precious child, ... N
As we have waited and watched and prayed,
you have been with us.
Because you love us so much we may trust ... N ... to your mercy and ourselves to your care.
We thank you for the years shared,
the precious memories that remain,
the legacy of love that is treasure beyond price.
Now we turn to you for hope, strength and comfort,
and cling to your promise to be with us always.
Guide us in the ways of your love
and lead us to the glory of your eternity.

All Amen.

I am the resurrection and the life.
Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

John 11:25-26

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:1

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation,
who consoles us in all our affliction.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4a

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Matthew 5:4

Prayer of Approach

Eternal God,
Lord of life and conqueror of death,
our help in every time of trouble,
comfort us who mourn;
and give us grace, in the presence of death,
to worship you, the ever-living,
so that we may have sure hope of eternal life
and be enabled to put our whole trust
in your goodness and mercy:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

Merciful God,
you are our help in times of trouble,
and the source of our consolation,
to you we turn in times of sadness.
Comfort and strengthen us
by the power of your Holy Spirit,
that we may trust in your promise of eternal life
and know your goodness and mercy:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

God, our strength and our hope,
our hearts cry out to you in our grief.
In Christ you wept at the grave of a friend,
hold us now in our weeping.
In Christ you healed those who came to you in their need,
touch us now to heal our pain.
In Christ you gave your life for us and conquered death,
comfort us now with your words of eternal life.

In our believing and in our doubting,
may we know you as the God of all love and compassion:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Readings from Scripture

Prayer of Assurance

Loving God,
Lord of life and death,
we praise you that all people are made in your image
and held under your care;
we praise you that we are made to need each other's love
and so reflect your truth and life.
We thank you for the life of ... N ... ,
for the love and mercy they received from you and gave to us.
Above all we rejoice
in the gift of your love in Jesus Christ.
Give us the confidence to believe that as Jesus has conquered death,
nothing can separate us from your love.
We ask that we may at the last share with ... N ...
the completeness of your eternal kingdom,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Almighty God,
Father of all mercies and giver of all comfort,
deal graciously, we pray,
with those who mourn,
that, casting all their care on you,
they may know the consolation of your love:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

God of the living and the dead,
trusting that your compassion bears all our burdens
and gives us strength beyond ourselves,
we place this day before you.

We prepare now to give thanks for the life of ... N ... whom we have loved and to commend them to your sure keeping.

May we know your gifts of grace:
hope for our sorrow,
light for our darkness,
peace for our troubled hearts,
faith for our future.

In the name of Jesus we pray.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The grace

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Scripture sentences

The Minister may lead the funeral procession into church saying:

I am the resurrection and the life.

Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. John 11:25-26

The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deuteronomy 33:27a (RSV)

No one shall be able to stand against you all the days of your life.
As I was with Moses, so I will be with you;
I will not fail you or forsake you. Joshua 1:5

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27:1

Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you;
he will never permit the righteous to be moved. Psalm 55:22

He will feed his flock like a shepherd;
he will gather the lambs in his arms. Isaiah 40:11a

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him
may not perish but may have eternal life. John 3:16

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus
were baptised into his death?
Therefore we have been buried with him
by baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,
so we too might walk in newness of life.
For if we have been united with him in a death like his,
we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. Romans 6:3-5

We have come together to worship God;
to give thanks and praise for the life of ... N ... ,
whose days among us here have drawn to a close.
We are here to share our grief
for one loved and respected by those who knew them,
and one whose own love and concern have,
through the years, strengthened others.
We are here to pray for the comfort and strength that God promises us
and to affirm the Christian conviction that,
while death is the end of human life,
it marks a new beginning in our relationship with God.

Hymn or song

Prayers of Approach and Confession

Eternal God,
the creator and upholder of all things,
your ways are not our ways,
nor your thoughts our thoughts;
your wisdom is unsearchable;
your purposes cannot fail.
Humbly we worship you,
and as trusting children we come to you.
Let not our hearts be troubled,
neither let them be afraid.
Comfort us in the natural grief of parting,
and help us bear ourselves as Christian people,
for whom death itself is swallowed up in victory;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

or

God of comfort and compassion,
we come seeking the faith to trust that ... N ... is with you.
We come seeking the peace you promise to us.
We come to open our hearts to you.
In the pain of grieving,
may your strong love hold us.
In the joy of treasured memories,
may your peace comfort us.
In the love and support of family and friends,
may your grace keep us.
Grant us strength for today and hope for tomorrow
as we pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

or

God who gave us birth,
you are ever more ready to hear than we are to pray.
You know our needs before we ask,
and our ignorance in asking.
Show us now your grace,
that as we face the mystery of death
we may see the light of eternity.
Speak to us once more
your joyful message of life and of death overcome.
Help us to live as those who are prepared to die,
and when our days here are ended,
enable us to die as those who go forth and live,
so that living or dying
our life may be in Jesus Christ our risen Saviour.

All Amen.

God of compassion and grace,
faced now with the reality of death, sorrow and sin,
grieving and guilt intertwine.
In our frailty we confess
the regrets we can do nothing to change
and the unfulfilled hopes of what might have been.
We ask you to heal our hurt with pardon and love.
In the mystery and mercy of your eternal love
from which nothing in life or death can ever separate us,
may our freedom, hope and peace be in Christ Jesus.

All Amen.

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ:
'Your sins are forgiven.' Thanks be to God.

Sermon on the Christian hope

Hymn or song

Thanksgiving for the victory of Christ

Almighty and everlasting God,
we thank you that you sent your Son Jesus Christ
to die for us and rise again.
His cross declares your love to be without limit;
his resurrection that death, our last enemy, is doomed.
By his victory we are assured of the promise
that you will never leave us or forsake us;
that neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come,
can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All Amen.

Thanksgiving for the life of the departed

Eternal God,
before whose face the generations rise and pass away;
we praise you for all your servants
departed this life in your faith and love, especially for ... N ... ,
each of us recalling, in a moment of silence,
what they have meant
to their loved ones, friends and colleagues....
We give thanks for all your goodness towards them;
all they accomplished by your grace;
and all that they were to those who loved them.
And now we praise you that for them
sorrow and sickness are ended,
death itself is past,
and they live for ever in your love and care;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayers of petition and Intercession

God of all compassion,
We bring to you all who mourn ... N ... now, especially those whose loss is deepest,
whose need is greatest ...
(mourners may be named).

May they cling to your firm promises
and know the strength and comfort of your love.
May they find beyond their tears
the light of your eternity,
and receive from your treasure-store
gifts beyond human giving; peace, hope, joy and faith,
gifts for their grieving and gifts for their future.
Through the bonds of family and friendships
may we be channels of your grace.
We pray through Jesus Christ your Son and our Saviour who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Hymn or song

Commendation

Holy God,
by your mighty power you gave us life,
and in your love you have given us new life in Jesus Christ.
We now entrust ... N ... to your merciful keeping:
in the faith of Christ Jesus, your Son our Lord,
who died and rose again to save us,
and is now alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit in glory for ever.

All Amen.

All Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord,
and let light perpetual shine upon them.

or

All May they rest in peace
and rise in glory.

Now to him who is able to keep you from falling,
and to make you stand without blemish
in the presence of his glory with rejoicing,
to the only God our Saviour,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
be glory, majesty, power, and authority,
before all time and now and for ever.

All Amen.

Jude: 24-25

The peace of God,
which is beyond all understanding,
guard your hearts and thoughts in Christ Jesus.

And the blessing of God our Creator,
Christ, our Saviour,
and the Holy Spirit, our Comforter,
be with you always.

All Amen.

or

The blessing of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
be with you,
now and evermore.

All Amen.

All The grace

The funeral party may proceed from the church to the place of committal.

Scripture sentences

Come to me,
all you that are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

So you have pain now;
but I will see you again,
and your hearts will rejoice,
and no one will take your joy from you.

John 16:22

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor rulers,
nor things present, nor things to come,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us
from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:38-39

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have died.
So it is with the resurrection of the dead.
What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.
It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory.
It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

1 Corinthians 15:20, 42-43

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy he has given us
a new birth into a living hope
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

1 Peter 1:3

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Revelation 7:16-17

Words of committal

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life,
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
we commend to almighty God our brother/sister ... N ... , and commit their mortal body to the ground/to the elements:
(earth to earth,) ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
trusting in the infinite mercy of God
and the victory of Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord,
All and let light perpetual shine upon them.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Prayer

Almighty God,
you have bound together all your people
in heaven and on earth
in one holy fellowship:
let not our thoughts linger here,
but help us to believe
that your servant's life has made a new beginning,
with your mercy and your love still around them.

Strengthened by this assurance,
may we return to the duties which await us in the world,
resolved to be more faithful to you
and more helpful to one another,
for the sake of those no longer with us upon earth;
through Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

All Amen.

Dismissal and blessing

May the God of hope
fill you with all joy and peace in believing,
so that you may abound in hope
by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:13

Go in the peace of Christ.
And the blessing of God Almighty,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit
be with you now and always.

All Amen.

The Minister greets the mourners at the cemetery or crematorium and leads them into the chapel or to the graveside.

Scripture sentence

Jesus said, 'I am the resurrection and the life.
Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die.' John 11:25-26

Words of introduction

We have come together in the name of Jesus Christ,
our risen and ascended Lord.
Through him God has given us new birth into a living hope,
which nothing can destroy, or spoil, or wither.

We come to commit our beloved ... N ... into God's hands
where they will be safe and complete for ever.

We come to seek strength from God
to face the unknown future without ... N ... 's presence and support.

We come to find a place of quiet calm,
in which we may express private grief
before facing in public
the wider world of ... N ... 's circle of family, friends, and acquaintances.

Let us hear from the Scriptures the promises of God,
and receive their comfort.

Readings from Scripture

Prayers and Lord's Prayer

Let us thank God for ... N ... 's life,
as we recall how much they meant to us;

let us commit ... N ... to God's sure keeping;

let us offer our grief to God
and ask for God's comfort in our sorrow;

let us remember others who also mourn loved ones today;

let us pray for grace and strength
to reach out to others in their need;

may we so live that we may not be afraid to die.
Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayers.

Let us gather up our prayers in the words which Jesus taught us:

All Our Father ...

Words of committal

Now that the earthly life of ... N ... has come to an end, we commit their mortal body to the ground/the elements,
(earth to earth), ashes to ashes, dust to dust,
trusting in the infinite mercy of God,
creator of all things, visible and invisible,
and the victory over death of Jesus Christ our Lord.
To God be glory for ever.

Affirmation of faith

God will swallow up death for ever.
Then the Lord God will wipe away
the tears from all faces.
It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him,
so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isaiah 25:8a, 9

Prayer

Lord, you have been our dwelling place
in every generation.
From everlasting to everlasting you are God.
You stand beside us
in every experience of joy or sorrow,
happiness or desolation.

As we walk through death's dark valley,
help us to trust in your steadfast love
until the day dawns,
the morning stars sing together,
and the whole creation shouts your praise;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The grace

This may be said by everyone.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with us all, evermore.

All Amen.

Call to worship

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 124:8

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:1

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to mourn and a time to dance.

Ecclesiastes 3:1, 2a, 4b

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Matthew 5:4

The souls of the righteous are in God's hands;
no torment will touch them. They are at peace.

Wisdom 3:1, 3b

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy God has given us
a new birth into a living hope
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled
and unfading.

1 Peter 1:3-4b

Hymn or song

Approaching the mystery

Words of introduction

We have come together because ... N ... has died and the life we shared with them has come to an end.
This is a time of parting, loss and sadness.

All of us who knew ... N ... had a unique relationship with them.
Death does not bring to an end their influence
nor the love and respect
in which they were held during their life.
They will continue to be powerful for as long as they are remembered.

... N ... was made in the image of God
(*and was baptised into the Christian family of faith.*¹)
Every moment of their life they were a dearly loved child of God.
Their death does not alter God's love for them.
They bear God's name
and is lovely in the eyes of God who created them.

At the heart of death there is mystery.
There is much we cannot know or understand.
Death marks for every person the boundary between the life God gives in this world and the new life God gives beyond death.
We stand on this boundary,
not knowing what lies beyond our seeing,
our hearing or our imagining.
Yet by faith we grasp God's promise,
declared in the resurrection of Jesus,
that we shall not die into oblivion but shall all be changed.

Even in sorrow,
we are empowered by the Holy Spirit
working in our hearts to say
'Thanks be to God who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ.'

¹ The words in italics should be omitted where baptism has not taken place.

Prayer

Creator God,
Lord of life and conqueror of death,
our hearts are grieving because ... N ... , whom we love, has died.

Their death reminds us that our lives are brief
and will one day come to an end.

As we stand on the boundary between life and death,
we praise you for your precious gift of life,
for giving ... N ... to be with us,
and for the journey which we have shared with them on earth.

Help us to release them as they journey on,
confident that death is not an abyss of destruction
but a crossing over into new and richer experiences of your love and grace.

In the midst of our grief and loss,
give us the peace of Christ,
who passed through the deep waters of death for us all,
and by your power was raised to glorious life.
Lord, hear our prayer.

All Amen.

Celebrating hope

Readings from Scripture

In times of loss,
God's people have always drawn strength
from the promises of God in the Bible.
Let us now listen for God's word of life
as the Scriptures are read to us.

The prayer verse 'Nothing in all creation' (Rejoice and Sing 397) may be sung between each reading.

Remembering with Thanksgiving

Lighting of Thanksgiving candles

The Minister or another representative person may light a central thanksgiving candle, saying:

‘I light this candle in thanksgiving for ... N ... as ... ‘

Members of the family, church members, representatives of the community, work colleagues or friends may also light candles.

At the end the Minister may say:

Thanks be to God for the light which ... N ... has brought into our lives.

Tribute

A tribute may be given.

Prayers of Thanksgiving

Eternal God,
we thank you for the light
that has come into the world
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
and for his promise that whoever follows him
will have the light of life.
Hear us as we remember and give thanks for ... N ...
and for everything they meant to us.

Silent prayer

Thank you for giving them to us,
for everything they achieved
by your grace during their life,
for the gracefulness, warmth and tenderness
which they embodied.
Thank you for ...

Silent prayer

Eternal God,
giver of life and conqueror of death,
we praise you that for ... N ...
all suffering and sorrow are ended,
death itself is past,
and they live for ever in your love and care.
In the midst of our sorrow
we boldly affirm our faith that there is nothing in all creation
that can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

We pray for those among us whose loss is greatest,
especially ... A ... and ... B ... and ... C
We remember those who lovingly cared for ... N ...
and ministered to their needs.
Give courage to all who mourn.
Comfort them when their pain seems unrelenting
and no light shines in their darkness.
Help us as a community to offer support and comfort,
to know when to speak and when to be silent.

Silent prayer

Lord, remembering ... N ... with gratitude, and celebrating their life and deeds,
we also give thanks for all whom we love
who have passed from our sight
into the joy of your heavenly kingdom.
Keep us united in one holy and joyful fellowship
until, at the last, all shall be gathered up in Christ,
and the whole universe shall praise your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Releasing in hope

The commendation

The congregation is invited to stand.

Surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses
who have died in the faith of Christ,
and with whom we lift up our hearts to God,
we now commend ... N ...
to God's eternal care and keeping.

Let us find wisdom, safety and delight
within the communion of saints.

Let us know that those we love are not lost,
but remain with us in the same family,
led by the same Spirit,
and sustained by the same faith.
Let us rejoice in Jesus our Lord,
who died in weakness,
but was raised by the power of God
to whom be glory and praise, for ever and ever.

God of peace,
you brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus,
the great shepherd of the sheep,
by the blood of the eternal covenant.
Show us the peace we should seek,
show us the peace we must try to give,
show us the peace we may keep,
show us the peace you have given,
and make us what you want us to be:
through Jesus Christ,
to whom be glory for ever and ever.

All Amen.

or

Deep peace of the running wave to you,
deep peace of the flowing air to you,
deep peace of the quiet earth to you,
deep peace of the shining stars to you,
deep peace of the gentle night to you,
moon and stars put their healing light on you,
deep peace of Christ the light of the world to you.

The Lord's Prayer

If the committal is to take place elsewhere, this part of the service concludes with the blessing. If the whole service takes place in the crematorium chapel the committal follows.

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious to you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

Numbers 6:24-26

Scripture sentences

The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son,
full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

We are not our own.
Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit
and through them we glorify God.

1 Corinthians 6:19, 20

Words of committal

... N ... 's body has been a temple of God's Spirit,
through which they have served God
and given support and comfort to those whom they loved.
We now commit their mortal body
to the elements/to the ground,
trusting that by the power of God
this perishable body will be clothed with the imperishable,
and death will be swallowed up in victory;
through Jesus Christ,
our risen and ascended Lord,
to whom be glory for ever.

All Amen.

I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write this:
Blessed are the dead who from now on die in the Lord.'
'Yes', says the Spirit, 'they will rest from their labours, for their deeds follow them.'

Revelation 14:13

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands,
eternal in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 5:1

Prayers

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you
such good things as pass our understanding;
pour into our hearts such love towards you,
that we, loving you above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

O Lord, support us by your grace
through all the hours of life's day;
until the shadows lengthen,
the busy world is hushed,
the fever of life is over,
and the evening comes.
Then, Lord, in your mercy,
grant us safe lodging, a holy rest,
and peace at the last;
through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Ascription of glory

Now to the One who is able to keep us from falling,
and set us in the presence of his glory,
jubilant and above reproach,
to the only God our Saviour,
be glory and majesty,
power and authority,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
before all time, now, and for evermore.

Jude: 24-25 (adapted)

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the faint-hearted;
support the weak;
help the afflicted;
honour all people;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

The blessing of God be with you;
the blessing of the Creator;
the blessing of the Son;
the blessing of the Spirit,
now and always.

All Amen.

Opening words

We are here today
because ... N ... has died.
We are here to remember them before God
and to give thanks for their life.
We are here to express our sorrow,
the grief which hurts because we loved them.
We are here to listen to words from the Bible
and in them to find comfort and hope.

Scripture sentences

St Paul says;
as it is written,
'What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the human heart conceived,
... God has prepared for those who love him.'

1 Corinthians 2:9

Hymn or song

Opening prayers

God our Creator,
you made all the rhythms and patterns of creation,
and just as you give us birth
so you are there when death comes.
You have made us mortal beings,
of frail flesh and gentle spirit
and you give us a span of life,
a time to be born and a time to die.
Today we see the value of life
and are glad that it may be lived within the knowledge of your eternity.

Loving God,
you comfort those who mourn.
We come before you
believing you share our love for ... N ...
and know our sense of loss at their death.

Assure us of your love
and support us with your strength,
today and in the days to come.
Even as we feel lost and sorrowful
hold us in your strong embrace.
Whenever sadness and regret fill us,

have mercy upon us and bring us your peace.
When we are cast down or low in spirit,
keep us safe in your love
awaiting the day when we will know again
the possibility of joy.

God of all creation,
Jesus, the risen one,
Spirit bringing hope and new life,
God the Holy Trinity,
we give you praise and claim your comforting love
this day and always,

All Amen.

We pray in the name of Jesus
who taught us to pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Prayers

God, source of all life,
mysterious, profound, generous in love,
we give thanks because we have seen you in ... N
We give thanks for their life;
for all that they were,
and for all that they gave of themselves
to their family, to friends,
to the community of faith in the Church,
to the world of work
and to the wider community.
We thank you for ...

We give thanks
for what they were to each one of us.

We give thanks that they were such a person
that we are moved to grief and sorrow by their loss.
Help us, through their death,
to see more clearly the significance of life
and to grasp more firmly the hope that we are more than our years
and that love is stronger than death.

We pray for ourselves,
disturbed by the great mystery of death,
facing the questions it raises and the loss it brings.
We pray that we will not be overwhelmed,
but may face honestly what confronts us,
so that we may sorrow freely
and turn to life again
with courage and with hope.

As we honour ... N ...
we commit ourselves to care for each other,
to bring hope to the despairing,
and joy to those who sorrow. God,
be with us here this day
and in all the days to come.
May we live as those who remember the past and who have hope for the future

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ
our Lord and our Redeemer.

All Amen.

The congregation may be asked to stand

Words of commendation

O God, who gives us life
and in whose arms we die,
we entrust ... N ...
to your safe keeping
in the faith of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.
Receive one of your own,
one in whom you have been at work,
who carries with them our love.

Welcome them into your presence,
into the rest of everlasting peace
and into the company of all the saints.

Living God,
in the mystery of your eternity,
we are not separated from ...
for your love holds us together.
While we live they will not be forgotten among us.
In your eternal love, they will never be lost.
May our memories of them enrich our lives.
May the good things of their life leave a trace on earth.
May your keeping of them glorify heaven.

All Amen.

Scripture sentences

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
and into an inheritance that is imperishable,
undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you.

1 Peter 1:3-4

Prayer

Eternal God,
Creator of life and conqueror of death,
we are in your presence now
and this is a holy place.
Jesus Christ, who lived among us and died for us,
you stand beside us in every sorrow.
Holy Spirit, you are always with us,
to comfort us and to give us strength.
We come to you now,
that we may know your presence with us in this place,
and on this day.

We thank you for your promise that in your safe keeping
the saints find peace for ever.
Though they are no longer with us here,
they are with you,
sheltered by your eternal love.

We praise you for the gifts of life,
for love and tenderness,
wisdom and affection
and all that makes life good and holy.
We praise you for ... N ...
whom we have loved
and who will be remembered among us.

We praise you for the gift of new life,
for the promise of resurrection
and your assurance that the future is in your hands.

Be with us now
as we honour one whom we loved.
Confirm in us the hope of the Gospel.
and help us to put our trust
in your mercy and love,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Scripture reading

Silence for reflection

Interment or scattering

We have commended ... N ... to God's eternal love, and committed their body to be cremated.

We now inter their ashes in this ground (scatter their ashes in this place),
in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

In the earth, we give them a final place to rest.

In our memories, we will not forget them.

In the eternal love and mercy of God, they will be at peace.

Prayer

Eternal God,
who unites as one
the people on earth
and the company of heaven,
may we know and rejoice
that we are within your community of saints,
both the living and the dead.

May we praise you with our lives
as the angels praise you in heaven.
Cheer us with the hope of your eternal life,
support us with the knowledge of your love
and bring us at the last to see you in glory,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Blessing

The peace of God
which is beyond all understanding,
guard your hearts and your thoughts in Jesus Christ.
And the blessing of God,
Creator, Christ and Comforter, (Father, Son and Holy Spirit)
be with you, now and always.

All Amen.

Readings for Funeral services

Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures)

Job 14:1-2, 5

'A mortal, born of woman, few of days and full of trouble,
comes up like a flower and withers,
flees like a shadow and does not last.

Since their days are determined,
and the number of their months is known to you,
and you have appointed the bounds that they cannot pass.'

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 11a

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones,
and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.
God has made everything suitable for its time.

Isaiah 25:1, 6-9

O Lord, you are my God;
I will exalt you, I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines,
of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.
And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him,
so that he might save us.

This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isaiah 40:6-10, 28-31

A voice says, 'Cry out!'
And I said, 'What shall I cry?'
All people are grass,
their constancy is like the flower of the field.

The grass withers, the flower fades,
when the breath of the Lord blows upon it;
surely the people are grass.

The grass withers, the flower fades;
but the word of our God will stand forever.

Get you up to a high mountain,
O Zion, herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength,
O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings,
lift it up, do not fear;
say to the cities of Judah,
'Here is your God!'

See, the Lord God comes with might,
and his arm rules for him;
his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him.

Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.
He gives power to the faint,
and strengthens the powerless.
Even youths will faint and be weary,
and the young will fall exhausted;
but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 46:3-4

Listen to me, O house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who have been borne by me from your birth,
carried from the womb;
even to your old age I am he,
even when you turn grey I will carry you.
I have made, and I will bear;
I will carry and will save.

Lamentations 3:17-26

My soul is bereft of peace;
I have forgotten what happiness is;
so I say, 'Gone is my glory,
and all that I had hoped for from the Lord.'
The thought of my affliction and my homelessness is wormwood and gall!
My soul continually thinks of it
and is bowed down within me.
But this I call to mind,
and therefore I have hope:
The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.
'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul,
'therefore I will hope in him.'
The Lord is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.
It is good that one should wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

Psalm 90

Lord, you have been our dwelling place
in all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
You turn us back to dust,
and say, 'Turn back, you mortals.'
For a thousand years in your sight
are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.
You sweep them away; they are like a dream,
like grass that is renewed in the morning;
in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.
For we are consumed by your anger;
by your wrath we are overwhelmed.
You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
For all our days pass away under your wrath;
our years come to an end like a sigh.
The days of our life are seventy years,
or perhaps eighty, if we are strong;
even then their span is only toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.
Who considers the power of your anger?
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you.
So teach us to count our days
that we may gain a wise heart.
Turn, O Lord! How long?
Have compassion on your servants!
Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us,
and as many years as we have seen evil.
Let your work be manifest to your servants,
and your glorious power to their children.

Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us,
and prosper for us the work of our hands—
O prosper the work of our hands!

Psalm 103:1-18

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and do not forget all his benefits—
who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,
who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,
who satisfies you with good as long as you live
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
The Lord works vindication
and justice for all who are oppressed.
He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.
The Lord is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
He will not always accuse,
nor will he keep his anger for ever.
He does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.
For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
as far as the east is from the west,
so far he removes our transgressions from us.
As a father has compassion for his children,
so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him.
For he knows how we were made;
he remembers that we are dust.
As for mortals, their days are like grass;
they flourish like a flower of the field;
for the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place knows it no more.
But the steadfast love of the Lord
is from everlasting to everlasting
on those who fear him,
and his righteousness to children's children,
to those who keep his covenant
and remember to do his commandments.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills—
from where will my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.

Psalm 122

I was glad when they said to me,
'Let us go to the house of the Lord!'
Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem—built as a city
that is bound firmly together.
To it the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
as was decreed for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.
For there the thrones for judgment were set up,
the thrones of the house of David.
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
'May they prosper who love you.
Peace be within your walls,
and security within your towers.'
For the sake of my relatives and friends
I will say, 'Peace be within you.'
For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 139

O Lord, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
you discern my thoughts from far away.
You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.

Even before a word is on my tongue,
O Lord, you know it completely.
You hem me in, behind and before,
and lay your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is so high that I cannot attain it.
Where can I go from your spirit?
Or where can I flee from your presence?
If I ascend to heaven, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
If I take the wings of the morning
and settle at the farthest limits of the sea,
even there your hand shall lead me,
and your right hand shall hold me fast.
If I say, 'Surely the darkness shall cover me,
and the light around me become night,'
even the darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day,
for darkness is as light to you.

For it was you who formed my inward parts;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Wonderful are your works;
that I know very well.
My frame was not hidden from you,
when I was being made in secret,
intricately woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my unformed substance.
In your book were written
all the days that were formed for me,
when none of them as yet existed.
How weighty to me are your thoughts,
O God! How vast is the sum of them!
I try to count them—they are more than the sand;
I come to the end—I am still with you.

O that you would kill the wicked, O God,
and that the bloodthirsty would depart from me—
those who speak of you maliciously,
and lift themselves up against you for evil!
Do I not hate those who hate you, O Lord?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against you?
I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.
Search me, O God, and know my heart;
test me and know my thoughts.
See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.'

John 11:17-27

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.' Jesus said to her, 'Your brother will rise again.' Martha said to him, 'I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.' Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life.

'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?' She said to him, 'Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.'

John 14:2-6, 18-19, 27

'In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said to him, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?' Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live.

'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.'

Romans 6:3-8

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Romans 8:15b-18, 28, 31-35, 37-39

When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect?

It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Corinthians 15:20-22, 51-58

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ.

Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: 'Death has been swallowed up in victory.'

'Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?'

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labour is not in vain.

2 Corinthians 4:13-18

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—'I believed, and so I spoke'—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

Revelation 21:1-7

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;

he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.'

Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.'

Revelation 22:1-5

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its 12 kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign for ever and ever.

APOCRYPHA

Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-8

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment will ever touch them.

In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
and their departure was thought to be a disaster,
and their going from us to be their destruction;
but they are at peace.

For though in the sight of others they were punished,
their hope is full of immortality.

Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
like gold in the furnace he tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
and will run like sparks through the stubble.

They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord will reign over them forever.

Ordinations, Inductions and Commissioning services

The nature of the tradition to which the United Reformed Church belongs, and the heritage to which it lays claim, are clearly seen when we meet in a local congregation to ordain a new minister or Elder, to commission a Church Related Community Worker or a Lay Preacher. As men and women commit themselves to service of the one Church, through ministry within the United Reformed Church, we celebrate both the patterns of service we have inherited from the past and the new traditions we are developing. These services may be opportunities for the wider Church to hear us proclaiming the faith we hold and hopefully to see us putting it into action.

At such services it is right that there are some words and acts which we always say or do and that all is conducted with continuity and integrity. The Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church is therefore very important. For some services of ordination, induction and commissioning there are Schedules of the Basis of Union which have been agreed by the General Assembly. These contain the words of the promises which individuals are expected to make before entering on a new way of serving the church. The texts which follow include all the relevant Schedules, including any variations where there are different options. These parts of the texts must always be used, on every occasion, because they express the unity we share.

There is also, as is right for a church which celebrates freedom and diversity, much space for creativity, individuality and local variety. As well as those words which we have agreed always to use, there is still a great deal of material which is there as a suggestion or guide, and can readily be adapted or changed. There are also further resources online.

Selections of readings are offered as suggestions. There are many more possibilities and local situations with creative people will provoke new ideas and new prayers.

Ordination and Induction of Elders

The ordination and induction of Elders should take place during Sunday worship in the local church where the Elders are to serve. The worship should include the reading of Scripture and a sermon (or another form of proclamation of the Word) and normally the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Section 4 should only be used when new Elders are to be ordained.

When all the Elders have been previously ordained Section 4 should be omitted and the other elements of the service used to induct them for renewed service. Elders so inducted should have been re-elected by the church members, either after a period as non-serving Elders or when offering to extend an initial period of service.

Through baptism,
members of the Church
are called to serve God in the world and to proclaim the love of Christ
by the way they live.

Some are called to particular responsibilities
as Ministers of Word and Sacraments, and in the United Reformed Church
some are called to be Elders,
to share with the Minister in the pastoral oversight and leadership of the local church.

Today, according to the decision of the church meeting,
we are to ordain ... A ... (and ... B ...) to the office of Elder,
and to induct them (with ... C ... and ... D ...)
to serve in this congregation.

Statement of purpose

The Lord Jesus Christ continues his ministry in and through the Church, the whole people of God called and committed to his service. To equip them for this ministry he gives particular gifts, and calls some of his servants to exercise them in offices duly recognised within the Church. Some are called to the ministry of Word and Sacraments; some are called to be Elders.

Elders share with the Minister in the pastoral oversight and leadership of the local church. To each is normally entrusted a group of members. In the Elders' meeting they take counsel together for the whole congregation. They are responsible for making provision for Christian worship and education, for maintaining proper standards of membership, and for promoting witness and service to the community, mission at home and abroad, and the peace, unity and welfare of the Church. It is their duty to arrange for the proper maintenance of church buildings, and to ensure the oversight of church finances. Some Elders represent the local church in the wider councils of the Church, and by virtue of their membership of these councils represent the whole Church to the local church.

Elders, being elected by the church meeting, are ordained to their office and inducted to serve for such period as the church which elects them determines. Their ordination and induction is an act of the Church. It is right at this time to share in the Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church, and to identify ourselves with it.

Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church

This Statement (Basis of Union, Schedule D) is read in one of the approved forms.

Affirmations

All stand as the presiding Minister asks those/the one to be ordained and/or inducted to affirm their faith.

Do you accept this statement and confess again your faith in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

I do.

In dependence on God's grace do you reaffirm your trust in Jesus Christ as saviour and Lord and your promise to follow him and to seek to do and to bear his will all the days of your life?

I do.

Do you believe that the Word of God in the Old and New Testaments, discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, is the supreme authority for the faith and conduct of all God's people?

I do.

Do you accept the office of Elder of the United Reformed Church in this congregation and do you promise to perform its duties faithfully?

I do.

Do you promise as an Elder of the United Reformed Church to seek its well-being, unity and peace, to cherish love towards all other churches and to endeavour always so far as you are able to build up the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church?

By the grace of God I do, and all these things I profess and promise in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Ordination

All new Elders, not previously ordained, may kneel.

Thank you, God, for the various gifts which you give to your people, and for the varieties of ministry in the Church.

Thank you for all women and men of faith and integrity who have served this local church.

Thank you, now, for ... A ... (and ... B ...).

The Minister and appointed Elders lay hands on each person to be ordained, praying thus:

Empower them with your Holy Spirit,
give them humility and grace,
so that by their faithfulness,
they may show your love to your people:
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

In your name,
and trusting it to be your will,
we now ordain ... A ...
to be an Elder.

Induction

The Minister asks the members of the church to accept the ministry of all the Elders named, both newly-ordained and any previously ordained:

Do you, the members of this local church, accept and receive ... A ... (... B ... , ... C ... and ... D ...)
to serve as an Elder/Elders among you?

All We do

Will you encourage and support them,
and respond to their ministry
acknowledging that it comes to you from God?

All We will

Eternal God, you have called us all to serve you in the world
and to share your love with each other and our neighbours.
Through the decision of this local church you have called ... A ... (... B ... , ... C ... and ... D ...) to serve us as an Elder/Elders.

Give them the promised blessings of your Holy Spirit
and fill them with fresh vision and courage,
to lead us in the work you have called us to do.
Make them wise with the mind of Christ,
and give them the gifts they need(s)
to fulfil this service faithfully;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Declaration of Ordination and/or Induction

... A ... (... B ... , ... C ... and ... D ...), in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and according to the decision of the church meeting,
I declare you to be (ordained and) inducted
to serve as an Elder/Elders,
and welcome you into this office,
in confirmation of which
I give you the right hand of fellowship.

The Minister and others give the right hand of fellowship.

May the God of peace sanctify you entirely,
and may your spirit, soul and body
be kept sound and blameless.
The one who calls you is faithful,
and will do this.

Renewal of commitment

And now as Elders and members of this church and congregation,
let us confirm our commitment
to each other and to the gospel.
Let us pursue what makes for peace
and build each other up in love.

All We will grow together
in humility, gentleness and patience;
we will nurture each other in faith;
we will bear with one another in love;
we will make every effort to maintain the unity of the Holy Spirit
in the bond of peace,
so that we may faithfully proclaim the gospel of Christ.

The God of peace will make us complete in everything good.

All To whom be glory for ever.

The Lord of peace will give us peace,

All at all times and everywhere.

The peace of the Lord is with you.

All And also with you.

Eternal God,
accept this commitment
made in your presence,
and give us grace to make it true,
so that we may not fail you in the end,
but give you glory and honour
by the way we live
and through everything we say and do,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord's Supper normally follows and the newly-inducted Elders serve or are served together.

Some suggested Scripture readings:

Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures):

Exodus 18:13-27, Numbers 11:16-17, 24-30, Isaiah 42:1-9, Ezekiel 34:11-16

New Testament:

Greeting

Peace be to the whole community, and love with faith,
from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

All Grace be with all who have an undying love
for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:23-24

or

Grace to you and peace from him who is
and who was and who is to come.

Revelation 1:4b

Scripture sentences

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation;

All for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created.

He is the head of the body, the church;

he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,

All for in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

Colossians 1:15-16, 18a-b, 19a

Hymn or song

Prayers of praise, Confession and forgiveness

We praise you, God, the Creator:

All through your love and power all things came to be
and continue in their being.

We praise you, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh:

All through your death and resurrection
we are reconciled to the Father
and born into a new and living hope.

We praise you, Holy Spirit, the Giver of life:

All through wind and fire the Church was born,
and by your gifts the body of Christ is built up.

With the whole Church on earth

and in heaven we praise you:

All one God for ever.
Amen.

or

For the wonders of creation and the beauty of this earth

All Creator God, we praise you.

For your gift beyond words in Jesus Christ

All redeeming God, we praise you.

For the call to follow and the grace to serve

All living God, we praise you.

Let us confess our sin:

for our abuse of your creation

All Lord, forgive us;

for our divisions within the one body of Christ

All Lord, forgive us;

for our neglect of the gifts of the Spirit

All Lord, forgive us.

or

Gracious God,

you call us to be the body of Christ,

yet we often fail in our vocation.

While Christ proclaimed truth, we obscure it.

Though Christ prayed for the unity of all, we remain divided.

While Christ touched the sick and blessed the poor,

we shrink from the demands of justice.

Forgive us. Conform us to Christ.

May all that we do arise from our unity in him,

and may his Spirit renew us,

so that the world might come to believe.

All Amen.

In repentance and in faith hear the promise of grace
and the assurance of pardon:

Through Christ, God was pleased to reconcile to himself

all things, whether on earth or in heaven,

by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Colossians 1:20

Jesus says: Your sins are forgiven.

Mark 2:5b

He also says: Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep. Follow me.

All Thanks be to God.

Amen.

John 21:15b, 16b, 19b

A prayer for grace may be said such as:

God, the source of every perfect gift:
in Jesus Christ you have given us
your life to redeem us,
your word for our wisdom,
your grace for our guide.
Enter and possess our hearts,
to dwell with us always,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Ordination and Induction

Presentation of the candidate

The interim moderator may present the candidate to the presiding Minister with these or similar words:

Moderator, I present to you ... N ... , for ordination and induction.

Statement by the Ordinand

The ordinand makes a brief statement about their call to the ministry of Word and Sacraments and to the particular ministry into which they will be inducted.

Narrative of the call

We now hear a statement on behalf of the synod, outlining the steps which have led to this call.

We shall hear how the congregation(s) of ... called ... N ... to be its/their Minister.

(We shall hear how ... N ... was appointed to exercise this ministry in the post of ...)

An appointed person may make a short statement on behalf of the synod and the congregation or other appointing body.

Alternatively, short statements may be made on behalf of the synod by a representative/representatives of the congregation(s) or appointing body.

Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church

This Statement (Basis of Union, Schedule D) is read in one of the approved forms.

Affirmations

All stand as the presiding Minister asks the ordinand to affirm their faith.

1. ... N ... will you confess anew your faith?
I confess anew my faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
I believe that the Word of God
in the Old and New Testaments,
discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
is the supreme authority for the faith
and conduct of all God's people.
I believe that Jesus Christ, who was born of Mary,
lived our common life on earth, died upon the cross,
and who was raised from the dead
and reigns for evermore,
is the gift of God's very self to the world.
I believe that through him God's love,
justice and mercy are revealed
and forgiveness, reconciliation and eternal life
are offered to all people.
And by the grace of God
I promise to proclaim this gospel faithfully.
I believe that the Church is the people
gathered by God's love
to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God
through Jesus Christ.

2. What leads you to this ministry?

So far as I know my own heart,
I believe that zeal for the glory of God,
love for the Lord Jesus Christ,
obedience to the Holy Spirit
and a desire for the salvation of the world,
are the chief motives
which lead me to enter this ministry.
Relying on the strength of Christ,
I promise to live a holy life,
and to maintain the truth of the gospel,
whatever trouble or persecution may arise.

3. Will you faithfully fulfil the duties of your charge?

The presiding Minister (after appropriate consultation) may modify the wording of the following answer (or of question 7 below) to fit the kind of ministry to which the candidate has been called.

By the grace of God
I promise to lead the church in worship,
to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments,
to exercise pastoral care and oversight,
to take my part in the councils of the Church,
and to give leadership to the Church
in mission to the world.
As a minister of the United Reformed Church
I promise to seek its well-being, purity, and peace,
to cherish love towards all other churches,
and to endeavour always to build up
the one holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I undertake to exercise my ministry
in accordance with the Statement
concerning the Nature, Faith and Order
of the United Reformed Church.
All these things I profess and promise
in the power of the Holy Spirit.

or the affirmations may be made in this way:

1. ... N ... , do you confess anew your faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

I do.

2. Do you believe that the Word of God
in the Old and New Testaments,
discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
is the supreme authority
for the faith and conduct of all God's people?

I do.

3. Do you believe that Jesus Christ, who was born of Mary, lived our common life on earth, died upon the cross, and who was raised from the dead and reigns for evermore, is the gift of God's very self to the world?
Do you believe that through him God's love, justice and mercy are revealed and forgiveness, reconciliation and eternal life are offered to all people?
And will you faithfully proclaim this gospel?

By the grace of God this I believe
and this I will proclaim.

4. Do you believe that the Church is the people gathered by God's love to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God through Jesus Christ?

I do.

5. Are zeal for the glory of God, love for the Lord Jesus Christ, obedience to the Holy Spirit and a desire for the salvation of the world, so far as you know your own heart, the chief motives which lead you to enter this ministry?

They are.

6. Do you promise to live a holy life, and to maintain the truth of the gospel, whatever trouble or persecution may arise?

Relying on the strength of Christ, I do.

7. Do you promise to fulfil the duties of your charge faithfully, to lead the church in worship, to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments, to exercise pastoral care and oversight, to take your part in the councils of the Church, and to give leadership to the Church in its mission to the world?

By the grace of God, I do.

8. Do you promise, as a minister of the United Reformed Church, to seek its well-being, purity and peace, to cherish love towards all other churches and to endeavour always to build up the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church?

By the grace of God, I do.

9. Will you undertake to exercise your ministry in accordance with the statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church?
I will, and all these things I profess and promise in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Promises

The presiding Minister asks the congregation:

Do you confess again your faith in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

All We do.

Do you receive ... N ... as from God, as a Minister of Word and Sacraments of the United Reformed Church?

All We do.

Will you pray for ... N ... in this ministry, giving them due honour, support and encouragement?

All We will.

asks members of the local church(es) where the Minister is to serve:

Ordination and Induction prayer

The congregation stands while the ordinand kneels for the ordination and induction prayer, and for the laying-on of hands by those whom the synod have appointed.

God of every perfect gift,
we praise you that in every age you call your people
to show forth your acts of mercy and love.
We give you thanks that you have called your servant ... N ...
to serve you as a minister in your Church,
in succession to the apostles
and in company with all who follow in Christ's way.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit
on your servant ... N ...
as in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ
we ordain them to be a minister of your Church
and induct them to serve as ...

Gracious God, dwell with ... N ... and strengthen the gifts you have given them
that the ministry and mission of your people may bear fruit.

Inspire them in leading worship,
in preaching and teaching and service;
may the gospel be celebrated
when they preside at the sacraments.

Bless them with love and humility to tend your flock,
to feed the hungry, heal the wounded, and find the lost.

Give them power and patience
to witness with all Christians to your way,
and to labour with all people of goodwill
for justice and mercy in society.

Watch over them in times of trial;
in weariness, disappointment, or frustration;
and keep them from complacency and spiritual pride.

Fill their home with your peace.
(Special petitions may be added at this point.)

Give grace to the people of *this church/ these churches/ this community/
this hospital Trust/ this university/ this place of work ...*
that they may accept the service God offers them through ... N
May they work together for the glory of your name.

And may the good work you have begun today
be brought to completion in Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you, Father,
and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever.

All Amen.

Declaration of Ordination and Induction

The presiding Minister says:

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and representing the ... XY ... Synod
of the United Reformed Church,
I declare ... N ... to be ordained to the Ministry of Word and Sacraments
within the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church,
and to be inducted to ...

May the God of peace,
who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus,
the great shepherd of the sheep,
by the blood of the eternal covenant,
make you complete in everything good
so that you may do his will,
working among us that which is pleasing in his sight,
through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Hebrews 13:20-21

or

Now to him who by the power at work within us
is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine,
to him be glory in the church
and in Christ Jesus to all generations,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Ephesians 3:20-21

Welcome

The right hand of fellowship is given by the presiding Minister and others duly appointed, who may include representatives of the local church(es), the synod and the General Assembly, as well as ecumenical, civic and community representatives.

Giving of gifts

The newly-ordained Minister may be presented with symbolic gifts, for example:

Receive this Bible,
All the word of God, living and active. Hebrews 4:12a

Receive this cup and plate,
All to hold bread and wine
for the feeding of God's people.

Receive this water,
All symbol of baptism and sign of new life.

Prayers of Intercession

These prayers may be spoken by different voices and may end with the Lord's Prayer.

Hymn or song

Dismissal and blessing

Now to him who is able to keep you from falling,
and to make you stand without blemish
in the presence of his glory with rejoicing,
to the only God our Saviour,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
be glory, majesty, power and authority,
before all time, now and for ever.

All Amen. Jude: 24-25

or

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted;
support the weak;
help the afflicted;
honour everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

And the blessing of God almighty,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, (Creator, Christ and Comforter)
be with you always.

All Amen.

Induction of Ministers of Word and Sacrament

A meeting of the synod, the inducting body in the United Reformed Church, shall be constituted. The Moderator of the Synod (or their deputy) shall be invited by the synod to preside. The service shall normally be held in the pastorate to which the Minister is being inducted. If desired the Lord's Supper may be celebrated.

The preparation

The congregation stands as the Bible is brought into the church and placed open upon the lectern, pulpit or communion table.

Greeting

Peace be to the whole community, and love with faith,
from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

All Grace be with all who have an undying love
for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:23-24

or

Grace to you and peace from him who is
and who was and who is to come.

Revelation 1:4b

Scripture sentences

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation;
All for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created.

He is the head of the body, the church;
he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,

All for in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

Colossians 1:15-16,18a-b,19a

Hymn or song

Prayers of Praise, Confession and Forgiveness

We praise you, God, the Creator:

All through your love and power all things came to be
and continue in their being.

We praise you, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh:

All through your death and resurrection
we are reconciled to the Father
and born into a new and living hope.

We praise you, Holy Spirit, the Giver of life:

All through wind and fire the Church was born,
and by your gifts the body of Christ is built up.

With the whole Church on earth
and in heaven we praise you:

All one God for ever.
Amen.

or

For the wonders of creation and the beauty of this earth
All Creator God, we praise you.
For your gift beyond words in Jesus Christ
All redeeming God, we praise you.
For the call to follow and the grace to serve
All living God, we praise you.

Let us confess our sin:
for our abuse of your creation
All Lord, forgive us;
for our divisions within the one body of Christ
All Lord, forgive us;
for our neglect of the gifts of the Spirit
All Lord, forgive us.

or

Gracious God,
you call us to be the body of Christ,
yet we often fail in our vocation.
While Christ proclaimed truth, we obscure it.
Though Christ prayed for the unity of all, we remain divided.
While Christ touched the sick and blessed the poor,
we shrink from the demands of justice.
Forgive us. Conform us to Christ.
May all that we do arise from our unity in him,
and may his Spirit renew us,
so that the world might come to believe.
All Amen.

In repentance and in faith hear the promise of grace
and the assurance of pardon:

Through Christ, God was pleased to reconcile to himself
all things, whether on earth or in heaven,
by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Colossians 1:20

Jesus says: Your sins are forgiven.

Mark 2:5b

He also says: Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep. Follow me.
All Thanks be to God.
Amen.

John 21:15b, 16b, 19b

A prayer for grace may be said such as:

God, the source of every perfect gift:
in Jesus Christ you have given us
your life to redeem us,
your word for our wisdom,
your grace for our guide.

Enter and possess our hearts,
to dwell with us always,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Induction

Presentation of the candidate

The interim moderator may present the candidate to the presiding Minister with these or similar words:

Moderator, I present to you ... N ... , for induction into ...

Statement by the Minister-Elect

The Minister-Elect makes a brief statement about their call to the ministry into which they will be inducted.

Narrative of the call

We now hear a statement on behalf of the synod,
outlining the steps which led to this call.

We shall hear how the congregation(s) of ... called ... N ... to be its/their Minister.

(We shall hear how ... N ... was appointed to exercise this ministry in the post of ...)

An appointed person may make a short statement on behalf of the synod and the congregation or other appointing body.

Alternatively, short statements may be made on behalf of the synod by a representative/representatives of the congregation(s) or appointing body.

Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church

This Statement (Basis of Union, Schedule D) is read in one of the approved forms.

Affirmations

All stand as the presiding Minister asks the Minister-Elect to affirm their faith.

1. ... N ... will you confess anew your faith?
I confess anew my faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
I believe that the Word of God
in the Old and New Testaments,
discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
is the supreme authority for the faith
and conduct of all God's people.
I believe that Jesus Christ, who was born of Mary,
lived our common life on earth, died upon the cross,
and who was raised from the dead
and reigns for evermore,
is the gift of God's very self to the world.
I believe that through him God's love,
justice and mercy are revealed
and forgiveness, reconciliation and eternal life
are offered to all people.
And by the grace of God
I promise to proclaim this gospel faithfully.
I believe that the Church is the people
gathered by God's love
to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God
through Jesus Christ.

2. What leads you to this ministry?

So far as I know my own heart,
I believe that zeal for the glory of God,
love for the Lord Jesus Christ,
obedience to the Holy Spirit
and a desire for the salvation of the world,
are the chief motives
which lead me to enter this ministry.
Relying on the strength of Christ,
I promise to live a holy life,
and to maintain the truth of the gospel,
whatever trouble or persecution may arise.

3. Will you faithfully fulfil the duties of your charge?

The presiding Minister \(after appropriate consultation\) may modify the wording of the following answer \(or of question 7 below\) to fit the kind of ministry to which the candidate has been called.

By the grace of God
I promise to lead the church in worship,
to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments,
to exercise pastoral care and oversight,
to take my part in the councils of the Church,
and to give leadership to the Church
in mission to the world.
As a minister of the United Reformed Church
I promise to seek its well-being, purity, and peace,
to cherish love towards all other churches,
and to endeavour always to build up
the one holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I undertake to exercise my ministry
in accordance with the Statement
concerning the Nature, Faith and Order
of the United Reformed Church.
All these things I profess and promise
in the power of the Holy Spirit.

or the affirmations may be made in this way:

1. ... N ... , do you confess anew your faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

I do.

2. Do you believe that the Word of God
in the Old and New Testaments,
discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
is the supreme authority
for the faith and conduct of all God's people?

I do.

3. Do you believe that Jesus Christ, who was born of Mary, lived our common life on earth, died upon the cross, and who was raised from the dead and reigns for evermore, is the gift of God's very self to the world?
Do you believe that through him God's love, justice and mercy are revealed and forgiveness, reconciliation and eternal life are offered to all people?
And will you faithfully proclaim this gospel?
By the grace of God this I believe and this I will proclaim.

4. Do you believe that the Church is the people gathered by God's love to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God through Jesus Christ?
I do.

5. Are zeal for the glory of God, love for the Lord Jesus Christ, obedience to the Holy Spirit and a desire for the salvation of the world, so far as you know your own heart, the chief motives which lead you to enter this ministry?
They are.

6. Do you promise to live a holy life, and to maintain the truth of the gospel, whatever trouble or persecution may arise?
Relying on the strength of Christ, I do.

7. Do you promise to fulfil the duties of your charge faithfully, to lead the church in worship, to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments, to exercise pastoral care and oversight, to take your part in the councils of the Church, and to give leadership to the Church in its mission to the world?
By the grace of God, I do.

8. Do you promise, as a minister of the United Reformed Church, to seek its well-being, purity and peace, to cherish love towards all other churches and to endeavour always to build up the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church?
By the grace of God, I do.

9. Will you undertake to exercise your ministry in accordance with the Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church?
I will, and all these things I profess and promise in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Promises

The presiding Minister asks the congregation:

Do you confess again your faith in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

All We do.

Do you receive ... N ... as from God, as a Minister of Word and Sacraments of the United Reformed Church?

Hymn or song

Prayer of Approach

Loving God,
whose love we live to serve,
so that all the world may see the wonder of it,
take hold of us again as we worship here,
and give us the mind of Christ,
so that we may rediscover your presence
in the community around us,
and recognise your Spirit at work
in every act of human kindness,
in every plea for justice,
in every call to service
and in every challenge to our complacency.
Take hold of us again,
fill us with love for each other
and our neighbours,
and by our faithfulness,
let your justice, joy and peace
extend to more and more,
so that the thanks and praise we offer now
may increase,
to your glory and our delight,
now and for evermore.

All Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Faithful God,
you called your Church into being
to proclaim your integrity to the world,
and to live in the truth of it.

All Forgive our faithlessness,
and make our witness true.

Loving God,
you called your Church into being
to assure the world of your unfailing love
and to live in the power of it.

All Forgive our lovelessness,
and give us grace to love our neighbours as you,
in Christ, have loved us.

God of justice,
you called your Church into being
to serve your cause,
and to challenge prejudice and oppression.

All Forgive our prejudice,
and our hardness of heart;

fill us with compassion
and make us merciful.

God of peace,
you called your Church into being
to teach the world the things that make for peace.

All Forgive our enmity and bitterness,
make us truly your daughters and sons
and makers of peace,
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

The saying is sure
and worthy of full acceptance:

All that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.
Thanks be to God
who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.

And by the grace of God
I promise to proclaim this gospel faithfully.
I believe that the Church is the people
gathered by God's love
to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God
through Jesus Christ.

2. What leads you to this ministry?
So far as I know my own heart,
I believe that zeal for the glory of God,
love for the Lord Jesus Christ,
obedience to the Holy Spirit
and a desire for the salvation of the world,
are the chief motives
which lead me to enter this ministry.
Relying on the strength of Christ,
I promise to live a holy life,
and to maintain the truth of the gospel,
whatever trouble or persecution may arise.

3. Will you faithfully fulfil the duties of your charge?
By the grace of God, I promise to care for,
to challenge and to pray for the community,
to discern with others God's will
for the wellbeing of the community.

I promise to take my part in the councils of the Church and to endeavour to enable the Church
to live out its calling to proclaim the love and mercy of God through working with others
in both Church and community
for peace and justice in the world.
As a Church Related Community Worker
of the United Reformed Church
I promise to seek its well-being, purity, and peace,
to cherish love towards all other churches,
and always to build up
the one holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I undertake to exercise my ministry
in accordance with the Statement
concerning the Nature, Faith and Order
of the United Reformed Church.
All these things I profess and promise
in the power of the Holy Spirit.

or the affirmations may be made in this way:

1. ... N ... , do you confess anew your faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit?
I do.
2. Do you believe that the Word of God
in the Old and New Testaments,
discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
is the supreme authority
for the faith and conduct of all God's people?
I do.
3. Do you believe that Jesus Christ, who was born of Mary,
lived our common life on earth, died upon the cross,
and who was raised from the dead and reigns for evermore,
is the gift of God's very self to the world?
Do you believe that through him
God's love, justice and mercy are revealed
and forgiveness, reconciliation and eternal life
are offered to all people?
And will you faithfully proclaim this gospel?
By the grace of God this I believe
and this I will proclaim.

4. Do you believe that the Church is the people gathered by God's love to proclaim the reconciliation of the world to God through Jesus Christ?
I do.

5. Are zeal for the glory of God, love for the Lord Jesus Christ, obedience to the Holy Spirit and a desire for the salvation of the world, so far as you know your own heart, the chief motives which lead you to enter this ministry?
They are.

6. Do you promise to live a holy life, and to maintain the truth of the gospel, whatever trouble or persecution may arise?
Relying on the strength of Christ, I do.

7. Do you promise to care for, to challenge and to pray for the community, to discern with others God's will for the wellbeing of the community? Do you promise to take your part in the councils of the Church and to enable the Church to live out its calling to proclaim the love and mercy of God through working with others in both Church and community for peace and justice in the world?
By the grace of God, I do.

8. Do you promise as a Church Related Community Worker in the United Reformed Church to seek its well-being, purity and peace, to cherish love towards all other churches, and to endeavour always to build up the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church?
By the grace of God, I do.

Will you undertake to exercise your ministry in accordance with the Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church?

I will, and all these things I profess and promise in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Promises

The presiding Minister asks members of the church-in-community and representatives of the synod to respond to the following questions:

Do you confess again your faith in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

We do.

Do you receive ... N ... as from God, to serve among you here and with you in the world?

We do.

Do you promise to pray for each other and for ... N ... ;
and do you promise to share with them
in seeking and doing the will of God,
to give them encouragement, consideration and support,
so that you grow together in faith, hope and love?

We do.

Hymn of the Holy Spirit

Commissioning prayer

The congregation remains standing for the commissioning prayer.

Eternal God, you have called us into the Church
to proclaim the gospel and make it effective in the world;
and, in your Holy Spirit, we receive all the gifts we need.

We give thanks, today, because you have given ... N ...
the necessary gifts to challenge and encourage us
in our work within the community where we live.
As we receive them in the name of Jesus Christ,
and as we commission them to your service here,
strengthen and encourage them
with the assurance of your Holy Spirit's constant presence, so that they may face the future, with all its responsibilities,
calmly and confidently but also with excitement and joy.
Give them ever deeper understanding of your ways with the world,
keep them compassionate and courageous
in all their dealings with other people,
so that they may discover
their infinite value as your daughters and sons.
Through their ministry
may all of us be more and more challenged
and inspired to respond to human need;

that our work and prayer might help all to find their voice
and the strength to build a better community,
at one with itself,
in the peace and joy of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Declaration of Commissioning and Induction

The presiding Minister says:

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and representing the ... XY ... Synod
of the United Reformed Church,
I declare ... N ... to be commissioned and inducted to the ministry of Church Related Community Worker to work with ... church-in-community
and ... XY ... Synod:

Signing of the CRCW covenant

Five copies of the Church Related Community Work covenant are signed by the Church Related Community Worker and representatives of the church-in-community, the CRCW programme sub-committee and the synod.

Welcome

The right hand of fellowship is given by the presiding Minister and others duly appointed, who may include the church-in-community, the synod and the General Assembly as well as ecumenical, civic and community representatives.

Giving of gifts

The Church Related Community Worker may be presented with gifts.

Prayers of Intercession

These may be offered by someone from the church-in-community and end with the Lord's prayer (if not used earlier).

Prayer of commitment

Help us, God, to trust you and to find your purpose
in everything that happens to us.
Be there with us in every experience,
speak to us through other people,
and give us what it takes to express your love for the world
in all our words and works.

Take us where you want us to go,
renewing our faith and hope,
forgiving our sin,
perfecting our praise
and filling us with confidence, so that your name may be glorified in us
as it has been already
and will be for ever
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Hymn or song

Dismissal and blessing

Go to the world again in confidence;
play your part in God's creation
and never lose heart.
Put your faith in the risen Christ,
who will match his stride to yours
until your journey's end.

And the blessing of the Eternal God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, (Creator, Saviour and Holy Spirit)
be with you all.

All Amen.

Commissioning of Accredited Lay Preachers

A commissioning service is conducted by a synod after accreditation by the Ministries Committee on behalf of the General Assembly. The commissioning may be a special service and the Synod Lay Preaching Commissioner, or their deputy, may share in the leadership of it.

If the service takes place on a Sunday at the Lay Preacher's own church it is usually the Minister of that church who presides. When it is part of an act of worship at an ordinary meeting of the synod the Moderator normally presides.

The service offered below may be appropriately adapted for use at a service for a Lay Preacher to be recognised by the synod.

The act of commissioning should follow the sermon or another form of proclamation of the Word.

Introduction

Hear this, all you peoples;
give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
both low and high,
rich and poor together.
My mouth shall speak wisdom;
the meditation of my heart shall be understanding.

Psalm 49:1-3

or

Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell you what he has done for me.
I cried aloud to him,
and he was extolled with my tongue.
Blessed be God,
because he has not rejected my prayer
or removed his steadfast love from me.

Psalm 66:16-17, 20

or

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain
the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens – wakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.

Isaiah 50:4

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
the head of the Church,
we are now to commission as a Lay Preacher ... N ... , who has been recognised by the ... XY ... Synod and accredited by the General Assembly
of the United Reformed Church.

Statement by the Lay Preacher

The Lay Preacher makes a statement concerning their faith and sense of calling.

Statement concerning the Nature, Faith and Order of the United Reformed Church

The Statement (Basis of Union, Schedule D) is read in one of the approved forms.

Affirmations

The congregation is invited to stand as the presiding Minister asks the Lay Preacher to affirm their faith:

... N ... , do you confess again your faith in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?

I do.

Do you reaffirm your trust in Jesus Christ as saviour and Lord, promising to follow him and seeking to do his will all the days of your life?

Trusting in God's grace, I do.

Do you believe that the Word of God in the Old and New Testaments, discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, is the supreme authority for the faith and conduct of all God's people?

I do.

Do you believe that you are called to preach the gospel of God's love and mercy revealed in Jesus Christ?

I do.

Do you undertake to exercise your ministry in accordance with the Statement concerning the Nature, Faith, and Order of the United Reformed Church?

I do.

The presiding Minister asks the congregation:

Do you, the members of this local church and the members of ... XY ... Synod accept ... N ... as a Lay Preacher and promise them your prayerful support and encouragement in this ministry?

All We do.

Commissioning

Ever gracious God,
you have brought us into your Church
and made us your witnesses,
giving us the gifts we need to proclaim the gospel of your holy love.
We give thanks today for ... N ... ,
whom you have called to be a preacher of your Word,
and in your name we commission them
to the office of Lay Preacher.
Inspire them with your Holy Spirit
so that they will be fired with passion and always seek deeper understanding of the gospel they proclaim.
Sustain them in their calling,
when it is easy and when it is difficult.
May they find eager hearers
who respond to their proclamation,
and give them their support and encouragement.

Keep them humble,
but make them aware of what they bring to the life and well-being of the Church, as,
through their preaching,
the gospel is proclaimed.
Keep them ever hopeful
and keep them ever joyful.
Bring them
and all of us at the last
to full maturity in Christ,
in whose name we pray.

All Amen.

Declaration

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
the only head of the Church,
and in accordance with the decision of the ... XY ... Synod,
and of the General Assembly,
I declare you to be commissioned
to the office of Lay Preacher
in the United Reformed Church.
In token of this I give you the right hand of fellowship.

Presentation

The certificate and also a Bible or other suitable gift may be presented.

The service concludes with the Lord's Supper or with a hymn and blessing.

The following readings are appropriate:

Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures:

Numbers 11:16-17, Isaiah 40:1-11, Isaiah 52:7-12,
Jeremiah 1:4-10, Jeremiah 23:16-22.

New Testament:

Matthew 9:32-38, Luke 10:1-6, John 15:1-17, Acts 11:19-26, Romans 1:8-17, 2 Timothy 4:1-5, 1 Peter 4:8-14

Rededication services

There are times in the lives of individuals and congregations when an act of renewal and rededication is valuable. Some churches do this within an annual service to renew their relationship with ecumenical partners. In joint United Reformed-Methodist congregations the Covenant service in January or September gives an opportunity to start again. Many congregations have a special Sunday each year, which may or may not be called their Anniversary, when they mark a new beginning in their life and re-commit themselves to the work of ministry.

In 1997 the General Assembly acknowledged the importance of these congregational acts by agreeing to ask that local churches should observe the first Sunday in October each year, or another convenient date, such as rededication Sunday.

Two different orders for such a service follow. One is based on the Five Marks of Mission. The other draws on existing material which has been produced for anniversary and rededication Sundays, and focuses on the theme of unity. Neither of them needs be followed slavishly. They simply offer two models for incorporating these ideas into worship.

Themes of remembering, renewal and rededication have different significance for different local congregations, and are influenced by the hopes and fears which people have for the future of their fellowship. Within the safety and challenge of worship, they can be encouraged to let go of burdens from the past and renew their energy for the unseen future which God holds out to them.

First, there is an order for a congregational renewal of baptismal promises which is based on the Baptismal service in this book. This offers a chance for all present to renew the promises they made at baptism, or the promises which previously were made for them by their parents, when they were young children.

Renewal of Baptismal promises by the congregation

This act will normally take place after the sermon. The congregation may be invited to gather around the baptistry or font, or to turn to face it. The act of renewal may be followed by a celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Introduction

As a community of God's people,
let us remember that we have been baptised
and reaffirm our commitment to follow Christ.
In baptism, God has set us as a seal upon his heart.
In baptism, God has brought us into union with Christ,
made us one with all his people in heaven and on earth
and assured us of everlasting life.

Scripture sentences

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord,
my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,
and as a bride adorns herself with jewels.

Isaiah 61:10

You did not choose me but I chose you.
And I appointed you to go and bear fruit,
fruit that will last,
so that the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.
I am giving you these commands
so that you may love one another.

John 15:16-17

For just as the body is one and has many members,
and all members of the body, though many, are one body,
so it is with Christ.
For in the one Spirit we were all baptised into one body –
Jews or Greeks, slaves or free –
and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:12-13

Profession of faith

Let us now proclaim the faith of the Church
in which we were baptised.

The people proclaim their faith. The Apostles' or Nicene Creed \(Rejoice and Sing 759, 760\) or Statement of Faith of the United Reformed Church \(Basis of Union, para. 17 or para. 18\) may be used, or a hymn of faith may be sung.

By grace, let us respond to grace.

All Believing and trusting in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
I repent of my sins,
turn away from evil,
and turn to Christ.
Christ alone is my Saviour and Lord.

From the beginning,
believers have continued
in the worship and fellowship of the Church.
With God's help,
let us commit ourselves anew to this life;

All I accept the gift and cost
of following Christ
in my daily life and work;
and with the whole Church,
I will proclaim by word and action
the good news of God in Christ.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Strong deliverer, holy One,
for you alone our souls wait in silence,
from you comes our salvation.

Your Spirit first brooded over the waters of chaos,
bringing life to a formless waste.
After waters flooded the earth,
you made a covenant with your people
and gave us the rainbow to be a sign of hope.
Through the waters of the sea,
you led your people out of bondage
from slavery to freedom.

You sent your son Jesus who was baptised in the Jordan
and received your Spirit.
As we share in the baptism of his death and resurrection
you set us free from bondage to sin
and open the way to eternal life.
For many waters cannot quench love.

All The waters closed in over me,
the deep surrounded me.
Out of the darkness I called to you and you answered me.
You brought up my life from the depths.
You are the Lord my God.

We praise you for your Holy Spirit,
the Spirit of joy,
who teaches us and leads us into all truth.
You gather us in the Church through Christ,
a people of your choosing,
called to live justly and in peace.
And so to you be all praise, honour and glory,
through Jesus Christ our saviour,
who with you and the Holy Spirit,
lives and reigns for ever.

All Amen.

The Peace

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All And also with you.

The people are invited to offer one another a sign of Christ's peace.

A service for Rededication Sunday

Based on the Five Marks of Mission

The Five Marks of Mission originated at the 1988 Lambeth Conference and were endorsed by the Forum of Churches Together in England in 1997. They are to proclaim the good news of the kingdom (tell), to teach baptise and nurture new believers (teach), to respond to human need by loving service (tend), to seek to transform unjust structures of society (transform) and to strive to safeguard the integrity of creation (treasure).

Objects symbolising the five marks may be brought forward, perhaps during the prayer of confession or the renewal of commitment. The service may conclude with the Lord's Supper.

Call to worship

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;
the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple;
the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes;
the fear of the Lord is pure, enduring for ever;
the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

Psalm 19:7-9

Hymn or song

Prayer of Approach

Powerful, ever present God,
you make yourself known to us
through the mystery and energy of your creation.
Help us to worship you in spirit and in truth.

You reveal your purposes
in the ministry and mission of your Son, Jesus Christ,
who lived and died and rose to life again.
Help us to trust in him as our Lord and saviour.

You send your Holy Spirit
to help us glimpse your kingdom
and give us hope to strive for it.
Enable us to work with you for your rule of justice and peace.

All Amen.

Prayer of Confession

God of mercy,
we confess we have failed to answer your call to mission.

You invite us to tell others the good news;
yet too often we have been silent and fearful.
For our unwillingness to share your gospel
forgive us, we pray,

All and help us to start again.

You call us to teach others
and to keep growing in faith ourselves;
yet we have settled for easy answers
and avoided challenging issues.
For our resistance to your teaching
forgive us, we pray,

All and help us to start again.

You show us in Jesus
what it means to care for others;
yet we would sooner sit on our hands
than offer them in your service.
For our slowness to follow the example of Jesus
forgive us, we pray,

All and help us to start again.

You give us this world
and all living things as gifts to treasure;
yet we have damaged and despoiled them
by ignorance, impatience and greed.
For our failure to take care of the planet entrusted to us
forgive us, we pray,

All and help us to start again.

You challenge your people
by your prophets, old and new,
to confront the injustice in their lives and communities;
yet we feel uncomfortable
when our double standards are brought home to us.
For our failure to work for peace with justice
forgive us, we pray,

All and help us to start again.
Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

The God of new beginnings
releases us from past wrongs, refreshes our energy in the present
and renews us for the future.

All Thanks be to God.
Amen.

Theme introduction

Reading from Scripture

Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures):
Isaiah 65:17-25 or another appropriate passage.

Hymn or song

Reading from Scripture

New Testament:
Matthew 28:16-20, Romans 10:5-15 or another appropriate passage.

Hymn or song

Prayer for the day

O God, who calls us in Jesus not to be afraid,
but to tell others the good news,
confirm us in our love for you
and in our dedication to your service
that we may be filled with new energy
for the task of mission which you give us,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Sermon or other proclamation of the Word

Hymn or song

Prayers of Intercession

Gracious God, present in all creation,
we pray for your world and your Church.

Awaken us to the pain of those in poverty,
the distress of those in nations burdened by debt,
the sick, the sorrowing, victims of violence and war.
May we discover our common humanity with them and learn the art of finding Jesus in each sister and brother.

Where your people have lost their way
and fallen into decline or complacency, give them eyes to see
and ears to hear your summons to mission.
Where your Church is vibrant and growing,
give your people confidence to share with others
the lessons they are learning.

Give us courage and humour for what lies ahead.
Fill us with wisdom to face the world
and childlike trust in the power and goodness
of your ultimate purposes for all you have made.
In the name of Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Hymn or song

Renewal of commitment to mission

The congregation may be invited to stand.

We will delay our mission no longer.
We will live in ways that show those around us
the good news of God's love in Jesus.

We will demonstrate by our actions
as well as by our words how much God longs
for the healing and wholeness of the world.

We will build one another up in love,
so that those who encounter our common life will find in our sharing a foretaste of God's kingdom on earth.

All Amen.

Dismissal and blessing

We entrust to God
our companions on the road,
this place from which we journey,
and the neighbours who will share our work of mission.

And may the blessing of God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, (Creator, Christ and Spirit)
rest upon us now and always.

All Amen.

Call to worship

Let us worship God.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

Lord you have been our dwelling place

All in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,

All from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Psalm 90:1-2

or

Praise to God for the gifts of the past;

All for the witness of the people of God

Hymn or song

Introduction

God calls us to be one,
to share the unity
that binds the Trinity together in love.
We have come to rededicate ourselves
to seek that unity with all of God's people,
so that God may be glorified
and the whole creation sing praises.

Prayers of Approach

Loving and faithful God,
we come into your presence rejoicing.
We come to sing your songs of praise;
we come to hear your words of power;
we come to share your all-embracing love.

Be present among us
as we seek to remember our past
and rededicate ourselves to your future.

Called to be your people,
we pray in the name of your Son,
our saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

or

Eternal God,
you give us light to guide us
on our journey through life.
You give us life to fill us
so that we may know
we are truly your children.

We know you in Jesus Christ
who is for us the way,
the truth and the life.

Help us never to depart from this way
but to walk it with patience and humility.
May we always seek the truth,
with honesty and openness,
knowing that it will set us free.
So Christ's life will be in us
and we may come to fullness of life.

Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession

As followers of Jesus we have failed time and again,
and so we make confession of our brokenness
and seek God's forgiveness.

Silence

We have built up walls to divide the body of Christ
and ignored its unity.

All We have sinned, God forgive us.

We have dwelt upon what separates us,
and not sought what makes us one in the body of Christ.

All We have sinned, God forgive us.

We have belittled each others' gifts and traditions.

All We have sinned, God forgive us.

We have not loved you, Lord,
as we find you in our brothers and sisters in Christ.

All We have sinned, God forgive us.

or

Let us confess our sins to God.

Gracious God,
you call us to offer ourselves to you
in adoration and worship,

All but we have held back in selfishness and pride.

You call us to renewal through your Holy Spirit,

All but we have grown dull and tired,
clinging to comfortable old ways.

You call us to declare the saving power of your Son,

All but we have muffled your message
with our doubts and indifference.

You call us to share Christ's ministry of love,

All but we have turned aside from those in need.

You call us to witness to Christ's rule over the nations,

All but we have not allowed Christ to rule in our lives.

Forgive us and help us to respond anew
to your call to worship and service.

Assurance of Pardon

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
that everyone who has faith in him may not perish
but have eternal life.

To all who repent and believe,

I declare in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
God grants you the forgiveness of your sins.

All Thanks be to God.

or

There is rejoicing in heaven
when we turn from our sins.
Rejoice, people of God;
in Christ, your sins are forgiven!

All Thanks be to God.

Prayer of the day

Almighty God,
you promised through your Son
that you would remain with your Church forever.

We praise and thank you for those who brought to birth the United Reformed Church,
in answer to your gospel call.

Increase in us the spirit of faith and love
that we may be worthy of our heritage,
and that our fellowship may be an example to all;
through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

Gracious God,
from whom every family
in heaven and on earth takes its name,
we give you thanks and praise
for all we have learned of the breadth,
length, height and depth of Christ's love,
through the life of the United Reformed Church.

We pray for the inward strength and power of your Holy Spirit
that we may be set free
to leave the security of the familiar and discover you calling us
from unknown lands
where we can be more truly
the people you have made us to be.

We give glory to you
in the Church and in Christ Jesus, praying that his power
will continue to work in us and through us,
and believing that he can achieve
more than we can ever ask or conceive.

Yours are the kingdom, the power
and the glory, for ever.

All Amen.

Sermon or other proclamation of the Word

Hymn or song

Thanksgiving and rededication

For the worship offered in prayer and praise,
for the preaching of the Word,
for the celebration of the Sacraments,
through this church.

All All praise and thanks to God.

For the faith of all believers in Christ,
for the carrying of the gospel into all the world,
for the furtherance of the unity of all God's people
enabled by this church.

All All praise and thanks to God.

For the support and nurture of God's people,
for the care of young and old,
for the calling of all to a life of service,
through this church.

All All praise and thanks to God.

For the proclamation of God's truth,
for the care of the downtrodden,
for the giving of hope and courage
enabled by this church.

All All praise and thanks to God.

For the opposing of all that is evil,
for the promoting of human worth,
for action for peace and justice,
through this church.

All All praise and thanks to God.

For all who by word and deed
have brought this church into being,
for their living example to us,
for their faith and their hopes and dreams
built upon Jesus Christ the cornerstone.

All All praise and thanks to God.

or

We give you thanks and praise, O God,
that you have led us as a shepherd,
guiding your flock towards the river of life
which flows through the holy city.
We give you thanks and praise, O God,
for the future you have prepared for us
and the mission you share with us until all things are gathered into one in Christ and there is no hurt, no harm, on all your holy mountain.

Until that day
may we proclaim the gospel with courage and integrity,
point to the kingdom with excitement and commitment,
and let our self-seeking plans die
so that resurrection may burst forth surprising us with joy.

Encourage us in the tasks which are before us,
give us your consolation in our failures,
and never let us become complacent.
Confirm us in your Holy Spirit
that, in our life together, we may find peace.
Grant us the strength to live in the world for your reign
and hope in the fulfilment of the gospel of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Covenant God, in your presence,
within the living community of the gathered saints,
in the company of the communion of those who journeyed alongside you before us

we reaffirm our delight in sharing our lives with you.

All You have been our God and we have been your people.

We renew our commitment to serve and follow you.

All You are our God and we are your people.

We rededicate ourselves to care for the world around us in your name.

All You shall be our God and we shall be your people.

Preserve us from seeking acclaim and success
in the eyes of the world,
guard us from needing to be needed
before we see your love for us, protect us from faith that asks no questions and risks nothing.
Where you lead may we follow, today and every day.

All Amen.

Confession of faith

An appropriate statement of faith may be said.

Prayers for the Church and the world

The service may continue with the Lord's Supper.

Statement of Faith – adopted in 1972

We believe in the one living and true God, creator, preserver and ruler of all things
in heaven and earth,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Him alone we worship,
and in him we put our trust.

We believe that God, in his infinite love for men,
gave his eternal Son, Jesus Christ our Lord,
who became man,
lived on earth in perfect love and obedience,
died upon the cross for our sins,
rose again from the dead
and lives for evermore, saviour, judge and king.

We believe that, by the Holy Spirit,
this glorious Gospel is made effective
so that through faith we receive the forgiveness of sins, newness of life as children of God
and strength in this present world to do his will.

We believe in the one, holy, catholic, apostolic Church,
in heaven and on earth,
wherein by the same Spirit,
the whole company of believers is made one Body of Christ,
to worship God and serve him and all men
in his kingdom of righteousness and love.

We rejoice in the gift of eternal life,
and believe that, in the fullness of time,
God will renew and gather in one all things in Christ,
to whom, with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.

Alternative Statement of Faith – adopted in 1997

We believe
in the one and only God, Eternal Trinity,
from whom, through whom and for whom
all created things exist.
God alone we worship;
in God we put our trust.

We worship God,
source and sustainer of creation,
whom Jesus called Father,
whose sons and daughters we are.

We worship God
revealed in Jesus Christ,
the eternal Word of God made flesh;
who lived our human life,
died for sinners on the cross;
who was raised from the dead,
and proclaimed by the apostles, Son of God;
who lives eternally,
as saviour and sovereign,
coming in judgement and mercy,
to bring us to eternal life.

We worship God,
ever present in the Holy Spirit;
who brings this Gospel to fruition,
assures us of forgiveness,
strengthens us to do God's will,
and makes us sisters and brothers of Jesus,
sons and daughters of God.

We believe
in the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church,
united in heaven and on earth:
on earth, the Body of Christ,
empowered by the Spirit
to glorify God and to serve humanity;
in heaven, eternally one with the power,
the wisdom and the love of God in Trinity.

We believe that,
in the fullness of time,
God will renew and gather in one
all things in heaven and on earth
through Christ,
and be perfectly honoured and adored.

We rejoice in God
who has given us being,
who shares our humanity
to bring us to glory,
our source of prayer and power of praise;
to whom be glory, praise and adoration,
now and evermore.

A treasury of prayers

Eastern Church Liturgy, Third Century

We give thee hearty thanks for the rest of the past night,
for the gift of a new day,
with its opportunities for pleasing thee.
Grant that we may so pass its hours
in the freedom of thy service,
that at eventide we may again give thanks unto thee;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Augustine of Hippo (354-430)

O thou who art the light of the minds that know thee,
the life of the souls that love thee,
and the strength of the hearts that serve thee;
help us so to know thee that we may truly love thee;
so to love thee that we may fully serve thee,
whom to serve is perfect freedom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Liturgy of Malabar, Fifth Century

Grant, O Lord, that the ears which have heard the voice of thy songs
may be closed to the voice of clamour and dispute;
that the eyes which have seen thy great love
may also behold thy blessed hope;
that the tongues which have sung thy praise
may speak the truth;
that the feet which have walked thy courts
may walk in the region of light;
and that the bodies which have partaken of thy living Body may be restored in newness of life.
Glory be to thee for thine unspeakable gift.

All Amen.

Columba (c.521-597)

Be thou a bright flame before me,
be thou a guiding star above me,
be thou a smooth path below me,
be thou a kindly shepherd behind me,
today, tonight and for ever.

All Amen.

Mozarabic Sacramentary, Seventh Century

Grant us, O Lord, to pass this day in gladness and peace,
without stumbling and without stain;
that reaching the eventide victorious over all temptation,
we may praise thee, the eternal God,
who art blessed, and dost govern all things,
world without end.

All Amen.

Gregorian Sacramentary

May God Almighty direct our days in his peace,
and grant us the gifts of his blessing;
may he deliver us in all our troubles,
and establish our minds in the tranquillity of his peace;
may he so guide us through things temporal
that we finally lose not the things eternal.

All Amen.

Gelasian Sacramentary

Almighty and everlasting God,
the Comfort of the sad, the Strength of sufferers,
let the prayers of those that cry out of any tribulation
come unto thee;
that all may rejoice to find that thy mercy
is present with them in their afflictions;
through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Alcuin (735-804)

Eternal Light, shine into our hearts,
Eternal Goodness, deliver us from evil,
Eternal Power, be our support,
Eternal Wisdom, scatter the darkness of our ignorance,
Eternal Pity, have mercy upon us;
that with all our heart and mind
and soul and strength we may seek thy face
and be brought by thine infinite mercy
to thy holy presence;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Sarum Breviary, Eleventh Century

O God, who through the grace of thy Holy Spirit,
dost pour the gift of love into the hearts of thy faithful people;
grant unto us health, both of mind and body,
that we may love thee with our whole strength,
and with entire satisfaction may perform those things
which are pleasing unto thee;
through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Francis of Assisi (1182-1226)

Merciful God, to thee we commend ourselves
and all those who need thy help and correction.
Where there is hatred, give love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is sadness, joy;
where there is darkness, light.
Grant that we may not seek so much to be consoled, as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
for in giving, we receive,
in pardoning we are pardoned,
and dying we are born into eternal life.

All Amen.

Richard of Chichester (c.1197-1253)

Thanks be to thee, my Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits thou hast won for me,
for all the pains and insults thou hast borne for me.
O most merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother,
may I know thee more clearly,
love thee more dearly,
and follow thee more nearly; for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Mechthild of Magdeburg (c.1210-c.1280)

O sweet and loving God,
when I stay asleep too long,
oblivious to all your many blessings,
then, please, wake me up,
and sing to me your joyful song.
It is a song without noise or notes.
It is a song of love beyond words,
of faith beyond the power of human telling.
I can hear it in my soul,
when you awaken me to your presence.

All Amen.

Julian of Norwich (1342-c.1416)

God of your goodness, give me yourself,
for you are sufficient for me ...
If I were to ask anything less
I should always be in want,
for in you alone do I have all.

All Amen.

Ignatius Loyola (1491-1556)

Teach us, good Lord, to serve thee as thou deservest;
to give, and not count the cost;
to fight, and not to heed the wounds;
to toil, and not to seek for rest;
to labour, and not to ask for any reward,
save that of knowing that we do thy will;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

John Calvin (1509-1564)

Most gracious God, our heavenly Father,
in whom alone dwelleth all fullness of light and wisdom:
illuminate our minds, we beseech thee, by thy Holy Spirit,
in the true understanding of thy Word.
Give us grace that we may receive it with reverence and humility unfeigned.
May it lead us to put our whole trust in thee alone;
and so to serve and honour thee,
that we may glorify thy holy name,
and edify our neighbours by a good example.
And since it hath pleased thee
to number us among thy people,
O help us to pay thee the love and homage that we owe,
as children to our Father, and as servants to our Lord.
We ask this for the sake of our Master and Saviour.

All Amen.

Teresa of Avila (1515-1582)

Christ has no body now on earth but yours;
yours are the only hands with which he can do his work,
yours are the only feet with which he can go about the world,
yours are the only eyes through which his compassion
can shine forth upon a troubled world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

All Amen.

after John Donne (c.1571-1631)

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening
into the house and gate of heaven,
to enter into that gate and dwell in that house,
where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling,
but one equal light;
no voice nor silence, but one equal music;
no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession;
no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity;
in the habitation of thy glory and dominion,
world without end.

All Amen.

Oliver Cromwell (1599-1658)

Strengthen us O God, to relieve the oppressed,
to hear the groans of poor prisoners,
to reform the abuses of all professions;
that many be made not poor to make a few rich;
for Jesus Christ's sake.

All Amen.

Richard Baxter (1615-1691)

Keep us, O Lord, while we tarry on this earth,
in a serious seeking after thee,
and in an affectionate walking with thee,
every day of our lives;
that when thou comest,
we may be found not hiding our talent,
nor yet asleep with our lamp unfurnished,
but waiting and longing for our Lord,
our glorious King, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Matthew Henry (1662-1714)

O Lord, lift up the light of thy countenance upon us:
let thy peace rule in our hearts;
and may it be our strength and song,
in the house of our pilgrimage.
We commit ourselves to thy care and keeping this day;
let thy grace be mighty in us, and sufficient for us,
and let it work in us both to will and to do
of thine own good pleasure,
and grant us strength for all the duties of the day.
Keep us from sin; give us the rule over our own spirits,
and keep us from speaking unadvisedly with our lips.
May we live together in peace and holy love,
and do thou command thy blessing upon us,
even life for evermore.
Prepare us for all the events of the day;
for we know not what a day may bring forth.
Give us grace to deny ourselves;
to take up our cross daily,
and to follow in the steps of our Lord and Master.

All Amen.

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Bless me, O Lord,
and let my food strengthen me to serve thee,
for Christ's sake.

All Amen.

John Angell James (1785-1859)

O Holy Spirit, the Comforter,
come and dwell in our souls;
make our bodies thy temple.
Fill our minds with thy light,
and our hearts with thy love,
that over our whole character thy power may be seen in the beauties of holiness.

May we live as something sacred to thee
as well as perfected by thee.
Come in all thy sevenfold energy,
and replenish us with thy illuminating,
comforting, sanctifying influence.
Baptise us with celestial fire,
and give us in thine abundant grace
the earnest of glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Christina Rossetti (1830-1894)

O Lord, in whom is our hope,
remove far from us, we pray thee,
empty hopes and presumptuous confidence.
Make our hearts so right with thy most holy and loving heart,
that hoping in thee we may do good;
until that day when faith and hope
shall be abolished by sight and possession,
and love shall be all in all.

All Amen.

Cardinal Newman (1801-1890)

O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life,
until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes,
the busy world is hushed,
the fever of life is over and our work is done;
then, Lord, in your mercy, grant us safe lodging,
a holy rest and peace at the last;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

or

Lord, support us by your grace
through all the hours of life's day:
until the shadows lengthen, the busy world is hushed,
the fever of life is over, and the evening comes.
Then Lord, in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging,
a holy rest, and peace at the last;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

G E Darlaston (1876-1931)

God, our Father, we thank thee for thy welcoming spirit that meets us as we assemble ourselves together for worship.
We thank thee for thy greeting of peace and for the sacred joy that awaits us as our minds are drawn into the stream of common thought and holy purpose.
Help each one of us to give himself to the leading of thy Spirit,
not holding back in any reluctance
or self-complacency or indifference,
but with out-stretched minds and aspiring souls
to come together to thy holy hill.
Each one has some gift of heart and thought to bring,
each some failing or sin to confess,
each has some praise and prayer,

and we would lift many voices as one voice,
and many petitions as one petition,
to the throne of thy grace.

Lead us into the fellowship of holy worship,
and weave the varied strains of many hearts
into one symphony of praise;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

William Temple (1881-1944)

O Lord Jesu Christ, who didst pray
for thy disciples that they might be one,
even as thou art one with the Father:
draw us to thyself, that in common love
and obedience to thee we may be united to one another,
in the fellowship of the one Spirit,
that the world may believe that thou art Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

All Amen.

Prayer of General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we, your unworthy servants,
give you most humble and hearty thanks
for all your goodness and loving kindness
to us and to all people.

We bless you for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love
in the redemption of the world
by our Lord Jesus Christ,
for the means of grace,
for the hope of glory.

Give us, we pray,
such a sense of all your mercies,
that with truly thankful hearts,
we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips but in our lives,
by giving up ourselves to your service,
and by walking before you in holiness
and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be all honour and glory,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.
