Gracious God,
look upon ... N ... , (your child through baptism,)

The Lord's Prayer

Commendation at the time of death

Depart, O Christian soul, out of this world:
in the name of God the Father almighty, who created you;
in the name of Jesus Christ, who redeemed you;
in the name of the Holy Spirit, who sanctifies you;
may you rest in the peace of God's eternal kingdom.

Into your hands, O merciful Saviour, we commend your servant ... N Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold,
a lamb of your own flock,
a sinner of your redeeming.
Receive them into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace,
and into the glorious company of the saints in light.

All Amen.

O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes,
the busy world is hushed the fever of life is over and our work is done:
then, Lord, in your mercy, grant us safe lodging, a holy rest and peace at the last:
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Nunc Dimittis

Now Lord you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.
My own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel.

Prayers with the family

Loving God, we turn to you now in our need.
The moment of death has come.
May we find the strength and faith to release ... N ... to you, confident that they may know the joy of your eternal keeping.
You have shared these last days and hours as you share all our days.
Stay close to us in the days to come.
Be our good shepherd,
light for our darkness, hope for our sorrow.
Hold us now and always in the comfort and peace of your love.
This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

All Amen.

or

Holy and gracious God,

I am the resurrection and the life.

Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. John 11:25-26

The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deuteronomy 33:27a (RSV)

As I was with Moses, so I will be with you;
I will not fail you or forsake you. Joshua 1:5

may not perish but may have eternal life. John 3:16

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death?
Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.
For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. Romans 6:3-5

We have come together to worship God; to give thanks and praise for the life of ... N ... , whose days among us here have drawn to a close.
We are here to share our grief for one loved and respected by those who knew them, and one whose own love and concern have,
through the years, strengthened others.
We are here to pray for the comfort and strength that God promises us and to affirm the Christian conviction that, while death is the end of human life,
it marks a new beginning in our relationship with God.

Hymn or song

Prayers of Approach and Confession

Eternal God,
the creator and upholder of all things,
your ways are not our ways, nor your thoughts our thoughts;
your wisdom is unsearchable;
your purposes cannot fail.
Humbly we worship you,
and as trusting children we come to you.
Let not our hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.
Comfort us in the natural grief of parting, and help us bear ourselves as Christian people, for whom death itself is swallowed up in victory;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

or

God of comfort and compassion, we come seeking the faith to trust that ... N ... is with you.
We come seeking the peace you promise to us.
We come to open our hearts to you.
In the pain of grieving,
may your strong love hold us.
In the joy of treasured memories, may your peace comfort us.
In the love and support of family and friends, may your grace keep us.
Grant us strength for today and hope for tomorrow as we pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

or

God who gave us birth,
you are ever more ready to hear than we are to pray.
You know our needs before we ask,
and our ignorance in asking.
Show us now your grace, that as we face the mystery of death we may see the light of eternity.
Speak to us once more
your joyful message of life and of death overcome.
Help us to live as those who are prepared to die, and when our days here are ended, enable us to die as those who go forth and live, so that living or dying
our life may be in Jesus Christ our risen Saviour.

All Amen.

God of compassion and grace, faced now with the reality of death, sorrow and sin, grieving and guilt intertwine.
In our frailty we confess the regrets we can do nothing to change and the unfulfilled hopes of what might have been.
We ask you to heal our hurt with pardon and love.
In the mystery and mercy of your eternal love from which nothing in life or death can ever separate us, may our freedom, hope and peace be in Christ Jesus.

All Amen.

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ:
'Your sins are forgiven.' Thanks be to God.

All Amen.

Sermon on the Christian hope

Hymn or song

Thanksgiving for the victory of Christ

Almighty and everlasting God, we thank you that you sent your Son Jesus Christ to die for us and rise again.
His cross declares your love to be without limit;
his resurrection that death, our last enemy, is doomed.
By his victory we are assured of the promise that you will never leave us or forsake us; that neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come, can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All Amen.

Thanksgiving for the life of the departed

Eternal God,
before whose face the generations rise and pass away;
we praise you for all your servants departed this life in your faith and love, especially for ... N ... , each of us recalling, in a moment of silence, what they have meant to their loved ones, friends and colleagues....
We give thanks for all your goodness towards them;
all they accomplished by your grace;
and all that they were to those who loved them.
And now we praise you that for them sorrow and sickness are ended, death itself is past,
and they live for ever in your love and care;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayers of petition and Intercession

God of all compassion,
We bring to you all who mourn ... N ... now, especially those whose loss is deepest, whose need is greatest ...
(mourners may be named).

May they cling to your firm promises and know the strength and comfort of your love.
May they find beyond their tears
the light of your eternity, and receive from your treasure-store gifts beyond human giving; peace, hope, joy and faith, gifts for their grieving and gifts for their future.
Through the bonds of family and friendships may we be channels of your grace.
We pray through Jesus Christ your Son and our Saviour who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever.

All Amen.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:38-39

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

All and let light perpetual shine upon them.

with your mercy and your love still around them.

Strengthened by this assurance,
