

Welcome to GAGed Issue 2, 1923! We hope you liked our recent rebrand, we apologise for misunderstanding the Rose suggestion made yesterday - we found the acting too convincing.

GAG WANTED BOARD THE BINGO CHEATER

Reuben Watt, former URC YA moderator sent a message on the URC Youth group chat claiming he had achieved bingo. After further investigation, GAG discovered that he hadn't previously filled a bingo card and subsequently tried to doctor a fake bingo card. GAG does not tolerate cheaters - even from one of their own. How dare you Reuben Watt! For his crimes the URC Youth Moderator will sentence him to listening to the A2 Presentation 3 more times. We feel this is harsh but fair.

Dear Revd. Dr. M. Hopkins,
It has been brought to our attention that we missed some islands in the first edition of GAGed. We assure you that this grave mistake will never happen again, and sincerely apologise for the editorial error. In the spirit of repairing justice, we will be providing Thousand Island sauce for members of Wessex and Islands Synod after January 2027.

Love,
The GAGed Team x

Guilty as Charged!!
Members of the GAGed team would like to apologise for falling asleep during the disciplinary presentation. We want to assure GA members that this was in no way a reflection of the quality of the wonderful presentation.

THE PINK PANTHER

A young ginger man has been spotted stealing a jar of pink wafers. This is a serious crime, not only because pink wafers are a key part of our rebranding, but also because we are concerned for his health. For his crimes the Youth Moderator has sentenced him to be banned from dessert. REWARD FOR ANY ARREST: 1 FIRST TIME SPEAKER CARD

THE CAKE BRIBER

The (nearly) Moderator Elect has attempted to bribe members of assembly with Welsh cake. She has been sentenced to losing her green card. However, GAG police will accept Welsh cakes to reduce her sentence.

This highly classified information appeared in the GAGed team's inbox this morning from an Anonymous Andy. We are still yet to confirm its veracity and so if anyone is able to support this allegation please come forward.

Foody Stores

Following the success of St. Arbucks, we are delighted to announce the opening of the following stores:

- Amen Zon
- Pray A Manger
- KFC (Kingdom Fried Chicken)
- Burger King of Kings

Calling all Cream Tea Lovers!

Will you join 276 the GAG team for cream tea at Old Meeting URC, Bedworth's 300th Birthday?

(In other news, if anyone from St. Andrew's URC in Monkseaton would like to bake the GAGed team a cake we would absolutely love it!!! xx)

AI's Contribution to GA

We are glad to hear that Siri is wanting to speak during General Assembly on such pressing matters. The GAGed team would hope that Si has now handed in their First Time Speaker Card.

Despite the clear requests from Irish Sirmons for ALL electronic devices to be set to silent, some representatives haven't found the off switch yet.

Therefore, GAGed would like to present our: Top 10 Most Annoying Noises (almost) Heard at General Assembly:

- The Ring doorbell tone
- The Aircon kicking in
- Loud chewing and slurping, especially of the (alleged) vegetarian carbonara
- Random device notification sounds
- URC Youth opening cans of pepsi
- Baby Shark - various formats
- "Point of Order!"

Who is this woman??

A rogue minister failed to say her name and accreditation at the podium before addressing assembly - the offending reverend is still at large. If you have any information, please contact Nicola Furley-Smith and the Assembly Clerks.
