The United Reformed Church

Volunteer Opportunity:
Represent the United Reformed Church on the Milton Mount Foundation Board!

Are you passionate about education and the life of the Church? The Milton Mount Foundation is seeking a United Reformed Church (URC) member to join its Board of Trustees and help guide its mission of educational support.

The Milton Mount Foundation exists to help fund education, primarily by making grants towards school fees using funds invested from the sale of the buildings of a now closed school, and also by offering grants towards university education.

This is a voluntary but deeply rewarding role that helps shape how the Foundation supports students across the UK.

Available Volunteer Roles:

URC Representative Trustee on the Milton Mount Foundation Board

Purpose: To contribute to the strategic and practical decision-making of a long-established educational charity serving ministers' families within the URC and Congregational traditions.

Responsibilities:

- Attend two Board meetings per year:
    - July (in person, London, with lunch and reimbursed travel)
    - November (via Zoom)
- Consider and approve bursary and grant applications
- Oversee fund investments and financial management
- Engage with Foundation administration through occasional email correspondence

Requirements:

- Must be a member of the United Reformed Church
- Willing to serve a term of four years (as set by the URC)
- Interest in education, charity governance, or church life is desirable
- Must be under the age of 80 throughout the duration of the term

Why volunteer with us?

- Make a real difference in the lives of young people from ministers' families
- Join a committed group of volunteers passionate about educational access and equality
- Gain valuable experience in charity governance and strategic decision-making

How to get involved

To express interest or request more information, please contact: miltonmountfoundation@gmail.com. We welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, and experience levels to join us in serving God.

Please be aware that all volunteers applying for roles within the United Reformed Church (URC) are required to undergo safer recruitment procedures. This ensures the safety and protection of all members within our community. Further details on this process will be provided during the application and selection process. Further guidance can also be found on our website www.urc.org.uk.
